Constitution

PREAMBLE

We, the women of the Baptist churches of North Carolina, desirous of stimulating the missionary spirit and the grace of giving among the women and children of the churches, and of aiding in the collection of funds for missionary purposes to be disbursed by the State Mission Board and the Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention, adopt the following Constitution:

ARTICLE I

Name

This organization shall be known as the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention.

ARTICLE II

Object

The object shall be threefold: (1) To stimulate a broader religious development on the part of the Baptist women and girls of the State, to train the children in Christian work, and enlist all in active personal endeavor for the salvation of those in their own communities. (2) To receive and distribute missionary information, to stimulate effort to encourage the organization of Missionary Societies and Bands among the women, young people and children. (3) To encourage the earnest, systematic cooperation of women and children in contributing money for missions at home and abroad.

ARTICLE III

Officers

Section 1. The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents; one located at W. M. U. Headquarters and one from the State at large, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, a Recording Secretary, a Young People's Leader, a Mission Study Superintendent, and an Editor, who, together with sixteen ladies residing in or near Raleigh, shall form the Executive Committee.

Election

Sec. 2. These officers and sixteen ladies who together with them compose the Executive Committee, shall be annually elected on the last day of the Annual Session after nominations by a Nominating Committee, composed of ten members, two from each division; this committee being elected from the floor.

ARTICLE IV

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meetings shall be held at such time and place as the Union shall decide.

ARTICLE V

Representatives at Annual Meeting

Those entitled to membership in the Annual Meeting shall be the officers of the Union, Executive Committee, the Divisional Superintendents, the Associational Superintendents, five representatives from the entertaining Society, with one representative from a Society, provided no church has more than three delegates. Only such delegates as are personally present and duly accredited by the Union shall be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE VI

Conduct of Meeting

Every session of the Union shall be opened and closed with religious exercises.

ARTICLE VII

Program

The program shall be arranged by the Executive Committee in conference with the committee of the Society with which the Annual Meeting is held.

ARTICLE VIII

Amendments

This Constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any Annual Meeting, one month's previous notice of proposed change having been given through the Executive Committee.

By-Laws

- 1. President—The President shall preside at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union and all meetings of the Executive Committee, shall appoint all committees not otherwise provided for, and shall be ex-officio member of all standing committees. She shall also be the State Vice-President of the Southern Woman's Missionary Union and shall endeavor to keep the State work in line with the plans of the General Union. She may, through the Recording Secretary, call special meetings of the Executive Committee when in her judgment needed, or at the request of five members of said Committee.
- 2. Vice-Presidents—The First Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, preside at monthly meetings of Executive Committee, and at the Annual Meeting of the Union. In the event that the First Vice-President cannot assume these duties, they fall upon the Second Vice-President.
- 3. Corresponding Secretary—The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Union, present reports of the condition of the work at the Annual Meeting, keep a record book as a source of information, organize societies, send out blanks for quarterly reports, conduct the W. M. U. Department of the State denominational paper, and attend to other business usual to the office.
- 4. Treasurer—It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to keep an accurate account of all money contributed to missions by Societies to objects included in the annual program, when reported to her through receipts signed by the church treasurer, or sent direct to her. She shall make out a quarterly report at the close of each quarter, and an annual report to be submitted to the Woman's Missionary Union Annual Meetings. She shall keep an account of the receipts and disbursements of all money sent to her for special Woman's Missionary Union funds, and render quarterly and annual reports of same.
- 5. Recording Secretary—The Recording Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the annual and special meetings of the Woman's Missionary Union. She shall also notify officers of their election and committees of their appointment, and shall perform other duties usual to her office.
- 6. Young People's Leader—The Young People's Leader and College Correspondent shall have general oversight of the Junior organizations of the Woman's Missionary Union and with the cooperation of pastors, superintendents, and officers of societies, shall organize our young people for efficient, systematic mission work. She shall conduct a column relative to Young People's work in the State denominational paper.

- 7. Divisional Superintendents—The Divisional Superintendents shall have general supervision of the Associations in their respective Divisions, keeping in touch with the Associational Superintendents and aiding them in every way possible. They shall be members of the Executive Committee and shall hold an annual meeting in their Division, these Division meetings to be held preferably in the months following the State meeting.
- 8. Associational Superintendents—The Associational Superintendents shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Associational Union. They shall correspond with the President of the Executive Committee and the officers of all Woman's Missionary Societies and Junior Societies in all the churches of their Associations. They shall assist the societies in forming an Associational Union, which shall meet annually. They shall be ex-officion members of the Executive Committee, and shall as frequently as possible attend the monthly meetings of that committee. An Annual Meeting of the Superintendent and Executive Committee shall be held during the Annual Meeting.
- 9. Executive Committee—The Executive Committee shall carry out the instructions of the Union, and transact all business between its sessions. It shall meet monthly, and oftener when necessary. Seven members shall constitute a quorum. When a vacancy occurs, the remaining members of the Executive Committee shall be empowered to fill the unexpired term. The committee shall report at the Annual Meeting and send an annual report to the State Convention through the State Board of Missions.
- 10. Representatives to Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention—These representatives shall be appointed by the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina at its annual session.
- 11. Expenses—In addition to the amount paid by the State Mission Board for printing, postage, and salaries, the expenses of the Woman's Missionary Union Office, including traveling expenses of officers on Union business, shall be met by a yearly contribution of ten cents per member from each local society, said contributions to be made during the first quarter.

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

OF NORTH CAROLINA

THIRTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL SESSION

Wilmington, N. C., March 1, 1927.

The thirty-seventh annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, was held with the First Baptist Church of Wilmington, March 1-3, 1927.

The meeting opened Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, Dr. J. M. Kester, of Wilmington, presiding. "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" was sung. The Scripture lesson, Heb. 12, was read by Rev. J. A. Sullivan, of Wilmington, after which Rev. E. Kolb of Wilmington offered prayer. "Crown Him With Many Crowns" was sung.

The Convention sermon was preached by Dr. A. Paul Bagby, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Wake Forest. Subject, "The Meaning of the Cross for Jesus"—"Jesus in the shadow of the Cross." "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" was sung.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 3

The session was opened for business at 10 o'clock, with Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, president, in the chair. "In the Cross of Christ I Glory" was sung. Miss Macy Cox, of Magnolia, conducted the devotional service, reading Exodus 18:15. Mrs. F. D. Lethco, Charlotte, led in prayer. Solo, "Give of Your Best to the Master," by Mrs. P. C. Brantley, Wendell. The acknowledgment of a beautiful bouquet of flowers with a message to the Convention, Eph. 3:20, 21, from Mrs. Livingston Johnson, Raleigh, was made by Mrs. Jones. The secretary was asked to send a message of love and appreciation to Mrs. Johnson—Numbers 6:24, 25.

Welcome to Wilmington was expressed by Mrs. Howard A. Hanby, and acknowledged by Mrs. J. W. Bunn, Raleigh. Letter of welcome from the "Chamber of Commerce" of Wilmington was read by Mrs. Jones.

On motion of Mrs. J. M. Whitted, Durham, it was ordered that the calling of the roll be dispensed with, that those whose registration cards have been deposited with the secretary up to this time be recognized as constituting the organization.

It was voted that the program as arranged and in the hands of the delegates be made the order of business for the session.

Our Union hymn, "Jesus Shall Reign," was sung. Watchword—"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God." Mrs. Edna R. Harris, corresponding secretary, presented her report. It was voted to adopt the report of corresponding secretary, with gratitude for the service she has rendered.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

A year has passed since I stood before this body and accepted the place as your corresponding secretary. It was no easy task to follow Mrs. Stevens, and God's goodness and guiding hand have been manifest throughout the year, and all praise is given to Him for what has been accomplished. For the patience, advice and help of my coworkers in the office, as I learned new duties, I shall ever be grateful; and it is always a joy to return to the office and find no accumulation of unanswered mail or mission study. The days spent in the office have been happy ones, and if "variety is the spice of life," we have had three hundred and thirteen spices, for each day has its own interesting experiences.

The report submitted is a report, not of my work, but of our work, for we have been "laborers together" and you by your interest, cooperation and prayers have made possible this report.

The world's most wonderful key, dedicated to the Master's use, is ours to use whenever we will. Many have used this key spasmodically; some have tried it and became discouraged because results were slow in coming; others used it regularly, persistently and prayerfully, using it on every door of opportunity, and the record of association and society stand forth as a result. The name of this magic key is spelled with four capital letters, W-O-R-K.

Field workers: Through the kindness of the State Mission Board, we have had Mrs. K. D. Stukenbrok as field worker in the North Western District, and it is with the keenest regret that we have to give up Mrs. Stukenbrok now. She cannot be surpassed in her tact, and gentle approach in going into anti-missionary territory, and in her ability to encourage the weak societies. Her work has proven a blessing to that section of the State.

Through the kindness and help of Dr. VanNess of the Sunday School Board, we have had Miss Della Huggins for seven months in French Broad Association, and Miss Gertrude Mattison in the Johnston for six months. As summer field workers we had Miss Valeria Belle Nichols for two months in Brushy and Stone Mountains; Miss Mary Cliatt, one month in Carolina; Miss Lillie Harper, for two months in Tar River; Mrs. John O. Gough, two months in Central; Mrs. J. S. Connell, for three months in Montgomery and Stanly, and one month in Tennessee River.

Their combined reports show 743 days spent in the work, 23 associations assisted, 197 communities reached, 232 homes visited, 95 societies revived and organized, 54 mission study classes, 96 churches visited, 698 letters and postals sent in interest of their work, 77 subscriptions to magazines taken, and 11,939 miles traveled. In behalf of the field workers and myself, I would thank those who have welcomed us into their homes.

Associational Superintendents

There is great wisdom in that little saying by Edward Everette Hale, "Lift where you stand." The place to apply our magic key is just where you are. Our superintendents have wrought well; each one meeting the problems in her association as best she could, and often working against great odds and at great disadvantage. But for their voluntary services our North Carolina W. M. U. could make no worth-while report. Their reports show: fifty-five annual meetings have been held in the fifty-nine active associations, with 1,096 societies represented. They have traveled 21,038 miles and written 14,039 letters and postals. The best results are obtained in associations where it is divided into smaller districts, or by counties presided over by capable women who greatly assist the superintendent in organizing new societies and fostering weak ones.

Societies

At Houston last May North Carolina stood first in the number of new societies organized, 430; this year we hope to keep in the front rank, reporting 484 new societies, an increase of 79 over last year. The W. M. S. led in the number of new organizations with 131.

The number of active societies at the close of the year is 2,413. Because of not reporting during the year a large number were dropped from the roll, so we show a net loss of fifty in the number of organizations. We keep no dead mailing list, and when a society makes no report from January 1 to December 31 it is dropped from the list.

Standard of Excellence

Our only means of making this report is from the blank sent to each society, and from those returned to the office we compile the following: Four hundred and fifty-three organizations reached the Standard, 148 being A-1. Of the W. M. S. there are 62 A-1, 75 B, 62 C, 36 D; total for W. M. S., 235.

Sixty-two churches reported full graded unions, an increase of 9 over last year. Five churches report A-1 full graded W. M. U.—Amis Chapel, Flat River Association; Mount Zion, Tar River; Elizabeth City, First Chowan; Greensboro, Asheboro Street, Piedmont; and Stony Creek, Roanoke. These five churches will have banners presented to them by the Southern W. M. U. at Louisville in May.

Roanoke Association led in the number of societies reaching four or more points on the Standard with 39, 14 of which are A-1; Chowan second, with 34, 9 of which are A-1.

Associational Standard

Thirty-nine associations made four and more points on the Standard for Associations. Tar River stands first, making 10 points; thirteen reached 9 points; eight made 8 points; nineteen made no report on this.

Tithers

From the large number of requests for tithing record cards, stewardship cards, tithing boxes and leaflets, we feel sure that more and more of our people are interested in this, the Bibilical plan of giving. We have had through the associations 3,518 tithers, an increase of 566 over 1925. Roanoke reported the largest number, 354; Piedmont next, with 242; Wilmington third, with 200.

Societies Reporting

The number reporting every quarter was 828; of that number, 472 were W. M. S.; 79, Y. W. A.; 75, R. A.; 163, S. B.

Seasons of Prayer

"It is important that men should know the gospel; it is quite as important that they should pray for the gospel. If they pray, the gospel proceeds; if they do not pray, the gospel halts."

This year 1,629 churches observed one or more of the seasons of prayer. Pilot Mountain is the outstanding association in this respect, having forty churches which observed all three seasons of prayer. Chowan led in the churches observing Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions, with 62; Mount Zion for Home Missions, with 42; Pilot Mountain for State Missions, with 40.

Periodicals

What would we do without the Biblical Recorder and our missionary periodicals! We cannot estimate the value of these in our work; yet when we compare the subscriptions to these with the members of our missionary societies, we see how few have access to them—Biblical Recorder subscribers, 5,952; Home and Foreign Fields, 2,413; Royal Service, 5,565; World Comrades, 1,464.

Contributions

It is with praise and thanksgiving that we report our apportionment met—total contributions being 265,042.53. Are you not glad you had a part in it?

The month for the Lottie Moon Christmas offering was changed from January to December; hence, our report for this includes both the offering in January and the one in December—a total of $33,733.36.

Winston-Salem, First Church, stands first in gifts, $7,358.17; Greensboro, First, second, $5,896.97; Wilmington, First, third, $5.685.24.

The associations standing at the top in gifts are Piedmont, first with $24,320.29; Roanoke, second, $18,959.31; Pilot Mountain, third, $17,293.20; Mount Zion, fourth, $16,184.93.

Travels

Turning from the office with its duties and pleasures, I would like to dwell on the many delightful meetings that took me from one end of the State to the other, and to tell you of the joy I found in the work. I was privileged to attend the Annual W. M. U. and Southern Baptist Convention in Houston, Texas. These were high points of inspiration and instruction. It was helpful to attend the State Convention in Wilmington in November. On account of some conflicts your officers could not attend all of the associational meetings, but forty-five out of fifty-five held had a representative from head-quarters. Mrs. Jones attended 6 associations, 11 other meetings, traveled 5,967 miles, wrote 168 letters; talks, 17.

Miss Kellam visited nine associations, was the W. M. U. representative at the summer assembly at Ridgecrest.

Your corresponding secretary had the joy of being present at 2 divisional meetings, 30 associations, 6 state rallies, 2 county unions, and 18 other meetings; talks, 58; miles traveled, 9,559.

Enlistment

Our work has progressed during the year, and if the new societies organized each year lived, and the old ones put forth new efforts, we could in a few years report a society in every one of our churches. When we have 40,326 women and young people in our organizations, and 133,073 women and young people in our churches not identified with any missionary organization, we see our opportunity and task. As I think of my part of the task, there comes to me a better understanding of the lines:

"We are not here to play, to dream, to drift. We have hard work to do, and loads to lift, Shun not the struggle; face it; 'tis God's gift."

Miss Dorothy Kellam, Young People's leader, read her report, which was adopted with thanks.

REPORT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEADER

When I was seven years old, my great-grandmother tried to teach me the fine art of crocheting. We sat on the porch together on summer mornings. I wonder how she had the patience to bother with me. Invariably she would send me back the second or third time to wash my hands before they were clean enough to begin. Soon, as we worked, I learned that she wanted not only clean hands, but a pure heart.

In another fine art, the leading of young people, our Teacher, the Master, requires the same. As we close one year and start anew, let us ask Him to give us pure hearts, and hands clean and eagerly ready for every task ahead. Sometimes it may have seemed, as in crocheting, that every other stitch was a knot or mistake. Grandmother could always straighten them out, and so can the other Teacher. We acknowledge that we have failed only when we forgot to ask Him to untie the knots and take us over the hard, discouraging places.

Progress on little mats and on our young people's work may seem dreadfully slow, as if we go round and round in a circle, but really it is row upon row, patiently, until some day we shall look at the completed mat and discover the pattern. All the tiny mats were in a star-shaped design. Those who lead young people, work on the design of the Star of Bethlehem that leads to Jesus Christ. We are working towards the points, the ideals of Prayer, Bible Study, Mission Study, Personal Service, and Giving.

And so we have finished one more round on our W. M. U. centerpiece—the young people's work. Girls and boys are the thread; organizations are the stitches. In this 1926 row there were 1,396 stitches—the entire number of societies. There are four kinds of stitches: 264 Y. W. A.'s, 320 G. A.'s, 167 R. A.'s, and 642 Sunbeam Bands.

Each row is necessarily larger than the preceding one, so there are more stitches—353 new young people's societies. This is 92 more than we had in 1925. There are—sad to say—some drop stitches where societies have disbanded. Can we not catch them up? There are open spaces in the design made by the scores of churches without any missionary education for boys and girls.

Some stitches were perfect—the 86 A-1 organizations; 19 Y. W. A.'s, 14 G. A.'s, 10 R. A.'s, and 43 Sunbeams. Standard societies, 218.

In other ways we follow the ins and outs of the needle. Leading to one point of the star—Mission Study—there were awarded 2,302 certificates, 3,674 seals, 217 reading cards, 240 reading stamps, 30 Y. W. A. official seals. This is the largest increase along any line of our work.

Working towards the star point of Giving, we count the total contributions, $35,865.70; of these $20,209.53 is from Y. W. A.'s; $4,824.64, G. A.'s; $2,639.05, R. A.'s, and from Sunbeams, $8,192.48.

Association Camps for G. A.'s and R. A.'s were new ventures, but promise to become permanent in our State, because of the successful ones of last summer. The superintendents and association young people's leaders coöperated beautifully in making these profitable and joyous occasions, which we hope may be repeated and multiplied in other sections. Camps were in these associations: Wilmington, Central, Mt. Zion, Johnston, and several associations in the northwestern end of the State combined with one camp at Hayes. There were other camps not officially reported. Little River Association continued its annual custom of holding a Sunday Rally.

College Y. W. A.'s are most encouraging! Their work is reported for the school year closing June, 1926. Those A-1 were: Meredith College, Chowan College, Mars Hill Junior College, Wingate Junior College, Campbell Junior College (formerly Buie's Creek Academy), and Fruitland Institute. Gifts to the Sisterhood Special amounted to $157.25.

It is with real pleasure that I report to you the promising organization of a Grace McBride Y. W. A. for the nurses in our Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem.

Stanly Association goes on record as the first to have held a training school for young people's leaders.

North Carolina had 28 representatives at the Ridgecrest South-wide Y. W. A. Camp in June.

It is glorious to start a new row of crocheting for 1927. God grant that it may be much, much nearer perfection, because we determine to be much more faithful and zealous!

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY KELLAM.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris presented the W. M. U. banner offered to the Associational Union doing the best all-round work during the year to the Tar River Association. It was accepted by Mrs. Norwood Fuller, Louisburg, in the absence of Miss Lillie Harper, superintendent of the Association.

Mrs. Wesley N. Jones gave her annual address as president, the theme being, "A Woman's Choice," followed by a solo—"I Shall Not Pass Again This Way," by Mrs. T. S. Johnson, Raleigh.

A WOMAN'S CHOICE

Many centuries have come and gone, each one writing indelibly its story upon the pages of history since the day the beautiful Moabitish widow with her sister-in-law and her mother-in-law came to the place of parting. Yet the story is as fresh in the minds of the world today as it was ages ago, because it has for its theme a wise choice and an undying love, and such stories live always. It is so familiar we do not need to repeat it, this story of the young woman of Moab who in her youth and beauty had found happiness with another people than her own, and when sorrow comes and the time of separation arrives finds that it is more than a choice of her own land, her own people and the land and people of her husband that she is called on to make. It is a choice between the God of Israel and Chemosh, the God of Moab. With the deepest expression of feeling, in words that never lose their beauty and appeal, she makes her choice, "Thy God shall be my God, thy people my people," and turns her face forever from her home and native land.

Can we not see in this choice of Ruth a parallel to the experience that confronts every woman in her Christian life? There is the choice, the choice of putting God first, of giving Him our very best, or letting Him have but a second place in our lives and affections. Every one wants the highest and best in life; there is but one way to obtain it, by choosing God, by letting Him control and direct our lives. Having decided for Him, all earthly and temporal blessings follow. That is the meaning of our W. M. Union motto for this year, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God,"—"Only when ye are Christ's are all things yours." Our God today will not accept a divided heart or a divided allegiance any more than in the days of Israel, when His leader commanded, "Choose you this day whom ye will serve." "Come out and be ye separate, for the Lord our God is a jealous God."

Choice

The choice of God carries with it the choice of the highest and best in all earthly relationships. Having chosen Him, we must choose in all the multitude of decisions that make up our every-day lives the right from the wrong, the best from the worst, the path of duty and of service, and not the primrose path of self-indulgence and easy living. Life is made up of choices, and on them hang the eternal destiny of mankind. Some one has said there are no small things in life, certainly there are no small choices. We know not the farreaching consequences of our deeds; we only know this is right, the other is wrong for me. God only leads a step at a time. It is only by choosing to follow Him day by day as He makes the way plain for our footsteps that we come into the full experience of apprehending Him and His purpose in our lives. One step in the wrong direction brings untold sorrow. One fails, perhaps, at the time to realize how grave are the consequences of one choice for the things that are not the highest and best, just as one fails to see the sun crossing the line between summer and winter, but soon the days grow shorter, the cold comes and the flowers are gone until again the line is crossed and spring with all its beauty comes again. It is easier to make a great choice than it is always to make right decisions in the every-day events that seem so trivial, and to remember that these choices are so far-reaching and will help us to a new knowledge of our God and His great purposes.

Lot lifted up his eyes and looked on the fertile plain and saw Sodom situated, as it were, "in the garden of God," and made a fatal choice. The world still charms and allures, and many are tempted still to pitch their tents in sight and sound of its consuming and fatal pleasures. In the work of our young people there comes a solemn responsibility to lead them to make right choices, for most of the decisions that control our lives and destinies are made in our early years. In the Shepherd psalm David pictures the Good Shepherd leading his sheep in paths of righteousness. So many of our young people apparently have no guiding hand to lead them in safe paths and are making choices that wreck their lives and can but lead to an eternal night. Shall we not realize anew our responsibility to these young lives and make them see that the best is theirs for the choosing? The years go by so rapidly, and the constant cry is, "We have no time," and yet the days are twenty-four hours long, the years three hundred and sixty-five days. Isn't the difficulty that we crowd too much in them that rightfully should have no place? Aren't we choosing constantly to spend our time on things that to say the least have no permanent value, and are by their insistence preventing us from choosing better things? God calls us to mountain-top experiences and to walk in the valley of service with Him. On the mountain top we shall get a vision of the world's needs; as we walk with Him in the valley, we shall indeed be able to witness for Him, to His love and His power and His grace, and so win others to His service. Are we satisfied with our lowly experience when God calls us to the heights? It is only by choosing the best that His will for us will be accomplished.

"To every man there openeth
A way and ways and a way,
And the high soul climbs the high way,
And the low soul gropes the low.
And in between on the misty flats
The rest drift to and fro.
But to every man there openeth
A high way and a low,
And every man decideth
The way his soul shall go."

Service

The journey from Moab to Bethlehem was not a long journey as we count miles today, but a weary one to the two women with their sad memories and an unknown future before them. In the land of the people of God Ruth finds service. Having chosen God, service must follow. It is one of the mysteries how the idea was conceived, that having accepted the command of our Lord to follow Him, there was no further obligation, simply to receive and to enjoy His blessing and to give nothing in return. Not over 25 per cent of our church membership is actively engaged in His service. More than six hundred of our churches are absolutely ignoring our Lord's last command, the "marching orders of His church." Over a thousand churches are doing so little that their work is negligible. Jesus came into the market place near to the close of the day and said to the idlers there, "Why stand ye here idle?" With a world in commotion, would He not say even more forcibly today to these inactive church members, "Why stand ye here idle?" In Mark's Gospel we are told that the Son of Man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house and gave authority to his servants and to every man his work. "The growth of the kingdom of God has been committed to human hands and divine authority given for the task." Each one has his appointed work, and to each is given the strength and ability needed. Herein we make our great mistake; we look at ourselves and our lack of ability when it is to God we must look. "Not by might nor by power, but by my spirit" is the lesson taught over and over in the Scriptures. Yet we have failed to learn it, and we count our natural resources and make our calculations, and busy in our man-made plans forget that it is God alone that giveth victory.

Work must be a part of our Christian experience, because it is God's plan for us. Jesus said, "The night cometh when no man can work." It will not be very long before to each of us the days of active service are over. It is not the laborious toil of middle life that is so taxing, but the days and weeks that come in the evening hours, when we try to learn the lesson that, "They also serve who only stand and wait." Are we as W. M. U. women "redeeming the time"? Are we rejoicing in the privilege of laboring together with God and forgetting the weariness of the task, the disappointments to our high hopes that come sometimes, in the consciousness of His presence? Because of the brief period of our service, let us be busy servants in the Master's vineyard. Let us fill life so full of activities that the dawning of each new day means to us one more day's service to Him. Christ is the perfect pattern of service. Before He healed the blind man, He looked up into heaven. We, too, must have the heavenward look if our service is to bless and help mankind. It is only by keeping constantly before us the power and strength of our risen Lord that we shall be able to complete our task and meet the claims of those about us who need our love and help. In the account of our Lord's ministry given in the Gospel of Luke we are told that there were certain women who, because of the blessings He had bestowed on them, followed Him from place to place and ministered unto Him of their substance. These women have had a large following, a following that has grown until today the largest organization of women in the world is the woman's missionary organization. is a royal company to which we belong.

Our Lord still has need of the ministry of human hearts and measures our devotion as we bring him of the bounty He has bestowed on us. He has left us the command to carry His Gospel unto the uttermost parts of the earth, and that is the objective of all our effort in our Missionary Union, an objective that is worthy of the very best we have to give. Dr. Robert E. Speer says, "If the missionary enterprise is a mistake, it is not our mistake; it is the mistake of God. If the laying down of life in an effort to evangelize the world is an illegitimate waste, let the reproach of it rest on that priceless life that was therefore laid down needlessly for the world nineteen hundred years ago. No word needs to be spoken beyond His word, 'I came to save the world.' We need not seek for further authority or justification for our missionary expenditures of life and money." It is not only a royal company, our Woman's Missionary Union, but it is indeed a royal service in which we are engaged. Work is the Christian's duty, but it is also his privilege, his joy, and his crown.

"Blessed are they that labor, for Jesus partakes of their bread.

He puts His hand to their burdens, He enters their homes at night: Who does his best shall have as his guest the Master of life and of light.

And courage will come with His presence, and patience return at His touch,

Rest

After labor comes rest. "And Naomi said unto her, 'My daughter, shall I not seek rest for thee that it may be well with thee." Not a surcease from our activities, but rest in the midst of our greatest efforts. Rest because one learns to see God in all the experiences of life. Life will not be troubled when we see the divine hand behind all the difficulties and perplexities we meet on our way. Rest because of our fellowship with God, the desires of our hearts become the carrying out and fulfillment of the divine will. Rest because we have committed all to God, and we trust the future to Him, knowing that in all the experiences that may come to us He will come also. Rest will come not only because of trust, but because of the abiding love of God. Jesus said to His disciples on that night before His crucifixion. "As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love." The condition of abiding in His love is keeping His commandments. Love and obedience are inseparable, and where they are found, there is no question as to the rest that follows. Obedience means following the Master step by step, day by day. We shall fail to know the rest that comes from abiding in Him if we follow afar off and allow the transitory things of this life to hide Him from us. The invitation is, "Come unto me, and I will give you rest." The great Burden-bearer will carry our burdens. They may be burdens of disappointment, of failure, of wasted opportunities, but He says bring them to Him, and He will give you rest. The prophet Isaiah, dwelling in a land of intense heat at certain seasons, with always a limited water supply, writing of the coming Messiah, says, "He will be a covert from the storm, a refuge from the tempest, as rivers of waters in a dry place and the shadow of great rock in a weary land." If we come to Him, we find Him sufficient for our every need.

He sometimes gives to us a different kind of rest, a cessation of our work, and we stand aside, and some one else must do the things that have been such a joy to us. This is not an easy experience. Ruskin says, "There is no music in a rest, but there is the making of music in it. In our whole life melody the music is broken off here and there by 'rests,' and we foolishly think we have come to the end of the tune. God sends a time of forced leisure-sickness, disappointed plans, frustrated efforts-and makes a sudden pause in the choral hymn of our loves, and we lament that which ever goes up to the ear of the Creator. How does the musician read the rest? See him beat the time with unwavering count and catch up the next note true and steady, as if no breaking place had come in between. Not without design does God write the music of our lives. Be it ours to learn the time and not be dismayed at the 'rests.'" To the Israelites in the wilderness Jehovah said, "My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest." That is the secret, the guiding presence of God.

Reward

The devout Jew prayed and waited for the coming of the Messiah, and every Jewish woman looked with a longing heart to the day when He should be born of a woman and save His people from their sins. Ruth, the Moabitess, perhaps never dared to think that such an honor should come to her as that she should be an ancestress of our Lord, and that for this reason her name should be heralded through the ages. Always there is reward not only for service, but in service. Jesus said to His disciples, "No man having forsaken houses or brethren or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands for my name's sake but shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life." If we build upon the sure foundation, our work will abide, and we shall receive a reward. Dr. Maclaren says, "There are many recompenses for all sacrifices for God, some of them outward and material, some of them inward and spiritual, but the reward which surpasses all others is that by such sacrifices we attain to greater capacity for God, and therefore possess more of Him. This is the only reward worth thinking of, for God only satisfies the soul. With Him we are rich, without Him poor. 'Exceeding great riches in glory, transcending all measures."

Ultimately there will come to us the reward of a perfect service, unhindered and unhandicapped by our human limitations. In the midst of the soot and grime of our coal-burning cities the snow begins to fall, and quietly all day long the white flakes fall and by evening the whole world is transformed, and the unsightly places that marred the city are all beautiful in their mantel of purity and whiteness, and so it will be with our lives. "Behold I make all things new." The things that marred our service, the failures and mistakes are all made new in Him, and He shall present us faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy. For the faithful servant there is the blessed assurance of the abundant entrance into that city where the Lord God giveth light, and where they serve Him forever.

For you who make up our Woman's Missionary Union, and whose work has been so abundantly blessed by God, may I not wish that having chosen God, that day by day you may be guided to choose only the highest and best, and that you may find in the work to which He has called you the consciousness always of His guiding presence, the rest of His abiding love, and, finally, when the little span of earthly life is over, the reward of the crown of life, of glory, and of lighteousness.

SALLIE BAILEY JONES.

Recognition of the following visitors was made at this time: Miss Kathleen Mallory, Corresponding Secretary, W. M. WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Union was called to order at 2:30 by the president. Singing of hymn, "Jesus Thy Boundless Love to Me." The devotional exercises were conducted by Miss Annie Logan, Asheville. John 4:35—"Lift up your eyes and look on the fields." "Open Mine Eyes" was sung as a prayer by Mrs. T. S. Johnson, Raleigh. Minutes read and approved.

The report of the Training School trustee, Mrs. R. N. Simms, was read. A letter of greeting from the North Carolina girls now at the Training School, containing Numbers 6:24, 25, was read. The report was adopted. Mrs. J. J. Roddick led in prayer.

TRUSTEE OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

While the year 1926 has worked many changes in the general life of our Training School, all has gone well, and the management reports a fine year's work.

The new principal, Mrs. Janie Cree Bose, has proven not only very capable, but has been an inspiration to all connected with the School and in the territories she has visited. Mics Carrie U. Littlejohn, as assistant principal, is invaluable, and is also director of the Good Will Center and Practical Missions.

The Seminary professors have continued to teach the girls, coming to the school, since the opening of the new Seminary at "The Beeches." This plan has been delightful for the girls, and they and the faculty alike were delighted that they could continue to have the same splendid instruction in Old and New Testament, Theology, Church History, Biblical Introduction, and Christian Education, by the same great professors. All are delighted, too, with the new professor, given by the W. M. U., Dr. C. L. McGinty, formerly of Mercer University. This Department of Christian Education has been financed by the school's lifelong friend, the Sunday School Board, which also donated splendid reference books for this subject. Courses in Social Service, Practical Missions, Personal Service in Soul Winning, W. M. U. courses, Music, and Expression are taught by Misses Littlejohn, Bucy, and Johnson, Mrs. George J. Sutterlin, and Mrs. Edward A. Mac-Dowell. The new secretarial course, better fitting students for pastor's assistants, W. M. U., Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. workers, is filling a long-felt need. With these splendid opportunities, it is no wonder that our girls leave House Beautiful so wonderfully prepared for Christian service.

Last year one student received the degree of M. M. T., forty-three received degrees of B. M. T., and forty-five received certificates for their one year's successful training. Three registered nurses received the religious training equipping them for missionary work.

The student body this year is again smaller than in years past, but very fine in other ways. The beautiful "Sister Spirit" has never been more evident, and the religious and home life is very beautiful.

North Carolina has fourteen unusually fine girls there this year, including our protegé, Amalia Gerwich, from Roumania. Four of these are self-supporting, while the other ten are either on half-year or whole-year scholarships. Letters from our girls are full of praise and delight with the school, and are also deeply appreciative of the goodness of the women of our North Carolina W. M. U. for making it possible for them to go.

The splendid spirit of the girls is shown by the sacrificial gifts they make to Home and Foreign Missions, last year to the Seminary, etc.

The school is greatly appreciative of the splendid gifts from all the states from time to time. The North Carolina Executive Committee requested your trustee to send the sum of twenty-five dollars to the North Carolina girls at Christmas to be used in a treat for the whole school. They were very happy, indeed, over it and voted to have an oyster supper with it.

The girls and faculty are always happy to have W. M. U. visitors from over the South and always enjoy the visits from the missionaries. Especially have they received inspiration this past year from the visits of Misses Malloy, Mather, White, Mrs. Cox and Miss Annie Williams of the Sunday School Board.

The splendid new Good Will Center, built at a cost of forty-two thousand dollars, including the lot, has been a great joy and has doubled the possibility for service and training. There was an attendance of over 10,750 last year.

It has been with deep regret that the Board has had to accept the resignation of Mrs. George B. Eager, who for so many years has served so faithfully as Chairman of the Board of Trustees. Her service has been invaluable and her life and presence an inspiration to all who came in contact with her. She and Dr. Eager will be greatly missed and are followed by the love and prayers of the Training School family as they make a new home with their son in Georgia. Mrs. S. E. Woody is the new chairman, and was chairman also, preceding Mrs. Eager, and according to Mrs. Bose, "is taking hold in a beautiful way," having "come to the Kingdom for such a time."

Mrs. Bose also says that they are looking forward joyfully to having the Southern Baptist Convention meet in Louisville in May and to having many friends visit the school. All former Training School students who are still single, or going without husbands or children, will be entertained at night in the school and every former student there will be entertained at the alumnæ banquet so they can break bread once more in the old home.

North Carolina women have always shown their love for the Training School in a substantial way. This past year we have sent $1,800.00 for current expenses and $1,470.00 for loan funds. In addition to this $250.00 came to us from the Southern Education Board for enlargement and endowment.

Let us continue to pour out our gifts during this new year, being sure to keep our societies reminded of our Training School offering in the summer as we have about used all of the surplus. Then let us remember to keep in touch with the girls of our communities and lead them to desire to have this Christian training, and most of all let us remember to pray constantly and earnestly that God will continue to richly bless and use our Training School for His Glory—and the incoming of His Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. R. N. SIMMS, Trustee.

Mrs. Thomas M. Pittman, Margaret Education Fund Chairman, read her report, which was adopted. Mrs. Carey Newton, China, a Margaret Fund Mother, in a very touching way expressed her appreciation of the scholarship given by the Margaret Fund to her children.

REPORT OF MARGARET EDUCATION FUND

Scholarships under the Margaret Education Fund were granted this year to more than seventy boys and girls, children of our missionaries.

These students were divided out among the states for special care. North Carolina was asked to "mother" six of them. One at Mars Hill, Reba Lowe; two at Wake Forest, Wade Bostick and Edwin Dozier; two at Meredith, Mary Herring and Clarissa Poteat; one joined her parents in Virginia, Margaret Lowe.

A letter about the Margaret Fund Students was put in the W. M. U. page of the Biblical Recorder suggesting that missionary societies send boxes to these young people during the year. A number of societies responded and it was arranged that each student might receive a box each month. The societies have written of the great pleasure they received in doing this work.

While our State has not done as much for the Margaret Fund students in a personal way as some states, we rejoice that we have steadily met our apportionment set by the General Union. This year our Treasurer reports $500.00 for this fund. This amount is contributed in the W. M. U. Specials. For the present year the apportionment for the Specials had to be made up through a surplus in the treasury. We would therefore urge larger gifts to the Specials for 1927.

The Margaret Fund Committee of the General Union suggests that Bibles be given the scholarship students and that the societies join in prayer regularly for these young people.

Certainly all societies can respond to the last request. Possibly some societies present may wish to give the Bibles this year.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. THOMAS M. PITTMAN,
N. C. Member Margaret Fund Committee.

Personal Service Chairman, Mrs. Chas. E. Maddry, read her report, adopted.

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT

Our Personal Service aim has been stated as "Every Society a Center of Usefulness and Power in its Community." This defines the object of our endeavor and our field of labor.

Year by year we are learning better how to carry on the Personal Service of our societies. In addition to the individual ministrations of the many, we are emphasizing the organized work which is planned and directed by the missionary society as a constructive piece of work which shall bring permanent good. Not only the visits and a basket of food to a needy family, but such attention to this family problem that they may be helped through their period of distress, that the bread-winner may find needed employment, or through treatment at the hospital his health may be restored, or the fundamental handicap removed.

The reports of the year have told of such a variety of service rendered that it is impossible to mention them all here. The needy have been supplied with food, clothing, shelter, fuel, house-furnishings, linen, and money, the children kept in school. The sick have been nursed or a nurse and medical attention provided, nourishing food has been brought to them through the months, they have been taken to hospitals for special treatment; our women, boys and girls have cheered them by many visits through their sicknesses. Those not in their own homes, but living in institutions, have had their days brightened as groups of people have come with song and prayer services, leaving showers of greeting cards, fruit, candy, or flowers.

The young people in places are having a splendid, wholesome social life provided, with special suppers served for them, flowers and refreshments and such things as youth loves brought in by the mother society.

Those who are struggling with scant means for an education have been aided with outfits of clothing, tuition paid, and in other ways.

Working side by side throughout the State we are striving each in her own place, to be laborers together with Him.

The report of our Baptist Hospital and the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home was read by Mrs. J. J. Roddick, a trustee of the institution, and discussed by Dr. G. T. Lumpkin. Adopted. "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult," was sung.

REPORT ON BAPTIST HOSPITAL

As I come before you to make a report on the Baptist Hospital, my thoughts are centered around the one who said "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these ye did it unto me." As we review the history of the Hospital during the past year, our hearts swell with gratitude. The year 1926 was the greatest in the history of this institution. The very figures thrill us with inspiration and thanksgiving; they speak eloquently of the great work of love and sympathy we are doing, and bear witness to the wonderful possibilities in the years to come.

Over six thousand patients have been cared for since the Hospital opened its doors to suffering humanity. At least 1200 of these were charity patients who came from all parts of our State for the blessing and benefits of this institution, without money or price, old and young, boys and girls, and we did our best for them. The wonderful thing about this is the fact that the death rate has only been fourteen out of every thousand. Surely He who neither slumbers nor sleeps is keeping watch over His own.

For the year ending December 31, 1926, there were 2,006 patients. These spent 17,983 days in the Hospital. Among this number were 500 charity patients who spent 5,848 days and cost for their care about $27,250.00. You will notice that about one-third of the Hospital days were taken up by the charity patients, this is due to the fact that as a general rule these patients are in a much worse condition when they enter than the regular pay ones, having for various reasons been delayed in their entry, and because in this number were a great many children treated for deformed limbs and bodies which takes months to correct.

For this charity expense of $27,250.00 we received from Mother's Day contributions $14,475.00, a little more than half the cost; from the Duke Endowment Fund $3,600.00, and together with everything that could be saved from overhead expense, we are able to make this report more encouraging than it might have been. But the great challenge that faces us today is that we shall unite in prayer and renewed effort to make "Mother's Day" not only a day that will reflect honor on our blessed mothers but far and above that, honor Him who gave His life for a suffering world.

One of the outstanding events in our year's work was the "White" gifts made to the Hospital. It surely was a noble gift, for from every part of the State, it seemed that every society responded either by check or loving gift, until the united gifts were valued at over $2,000.00.

On May 25th last the Hospital sent out its first graduating class. This was considered quite an important occasion as it meant the going forth of ten bright, capable young women, whose high vocation would call them into homes of suffering, and some of them as His messengers to other lands. The graduating day was preceded by a birthday party given to all the babies who had been born in the hospital. The occasion was an auspicious one, not only 200 babies responded to the invitation but as many mothers happy in their new found joy were there to extend their best wishes to this class who had ministered to their needs while in the Hospital.

On the following evening, May 25, a very impressive graduating exercise was held in the First Baptist Church, at the close of the exercises a beautiful reception was given by the ladies of the church to the Hospital Board of Trustees, the staff, and all the nurses with their friends and relatives. As we review the past with all its achievements may we not take courage and face the task that is now before us with joy and hopefulness.

The most imperative need of the Hospital today is a Nurses' Home. We must build this year or go backward; we have reached the limit of our development; we cannot be listed as an A-1 Hospital any longer if we fail to make provision for our nurses. We have been given three and one-half years to complete the requirements for an A-1 Hospital and this is the last year. In the report submitted last year to our Union, it was stated that we hoped that $45,000.00 would build the "Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home" and that if the women of the Union would raise one-half the amount, the Trustees would go ahead and build the Home. The gifts of the W. M. U. for the past two years amounted to $14,500.

At a meeting of the Executive Board held in the Hospital February 3, 1927, it was decided that if the women of the Union would again pledge us their coöperation this year by raising $5,500.00 we would be able to make plans to start on the building next month.

The Trustees do not feel that it is wise to make a large debt at this time, so the matter must be decided by this Union. We should not consider the task as a large one but rather a sacred obligation; the young girls come to us in faith that we will make suitable provision for their needs, their recreation and worship. Last, but not least, it will be the completion of a fitting memorial to that beautiful life of service so joyfully given in the name of the Master by Blanche Josephine Barrus.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. J. RODDICK.

Mrs. Z. M. Caveness read the report of White Cross Work; also a letter from Miss Alda Grayson, Superintendent of the Kathleen Mallory Hospital, Laichowfu, China. The report was adopted.

REPORT OF MISSION STUDY SUPERINTENDENT

"So built we the wall, . . . for the people had a mind to work." Nehemiah 4:6.

As Nehemiah's forces stood each man and builded the wall before his house, so the associations stand.

As you view this wall before you, you will see how the associations had a mind to build. Some had a mind to work steadily and systematically; some societies were satisfied with only one effort during the year, while others builded steadily through the year.

Our W. M. U., realizing that there must be information and impression before there can be inspiration and expression, laid carefully the foundation, worked out the minute detail, formulated plans and methods which are adequate for the future. So we build a wall of information necessary to protect us from the pit-falls of ignorance, and from indifference to the needs of the Kingdom, and to fit us for intelligent service in bringing in that kingdom.

"The aim of mission study is not intellectual interest, nor enjoyment, although both result from it. Its aim is to reach men and women and, above all, young people, and to relate them permanently to the missionary enterprise, thereby directly hastening the coming of the Kingdom of God." Missions is the great first work of the church, and so should be given definite study.

It is said that if you would scour the five continents you could find no more beautiful spot than Rydalmere in the English lake country. As you stop to marvel at its beauty you notice an old crumbling gray wall, and the flagstones leading to it, rugged and worn from the tramping of many feet through the years; they lead to the wonderful Wishing Gate, where thousands pass in and out with wistful wishes on their hearts.

Wishing time is always with us, but as we close one year's work, and begin a new one, and our reports come in, many crowd the way through the Wishing Gate, some with regretful wishes that their report was small, many with hopeful and prayerful wishes for better work and service next year.

Fifty-one of our associations now have a mission study chairman, many of these, counting their appointment a call to service, have worked untiringly to promote mission study in their associations.

The ever-present opportunity of implanting the vision of missions and the need for our Saviour is with our young people, and we must give this to them in the years when they are reaching out for visions, and direct their thought and energies to things worth while.

The number of certificates and record cards is 4,698; seals of all kinds, 8,407.

The Advanced Course of Mission Study was completed by Mrs. H. F. Jones, of Greenville, and diploma awarded her at the annual meeting in Houston. Several others have seals on the Advanced Course.

One thousand and forty-six classes have been reported.

Charlotte Division led all divisions in mission study, with 1,627 certificates and record cards; 2,399 seals. Pee Dee led the associations in this division, with 370 seals. Roanoke Association led the associations in Elizabeth City Division, as well as all associations in the State, with 732 seals. Mount Zion led in Greensboro Division, with 457 seals; Johnston Association led in Wilmington Division, with 383 seals; French Broad in Asheville Division, with 433 seals.

We are very grateful to Mrs. A. R. Phillips, former missionary to Argentina, for leading the mission study class at the Preachers' School at Meredith College in "Gospel Triumphs in Argentina and Chile," and to Miss Kathleen Mallory for her splendid work at the Ridgecrest Assembly in leading the W. M. S. and Y. W. A. in "Prayer and Missions."

WEDNESDAY EVENING SESSION, 7:30

Dr. Charles E. Maddry, Raleigh, Corresponding Secretary, Baptist State Convention, presided at this session. "O Zion Haste" was sung, after which the Scripture lesson was read by Rev. J. T. Byrum, Wilmington. Hymn, "From Greenland's Icy Mountains," was sung. Following a brief talk by Dr. Maddry, on the "Coöperative Program," and special music by choir, Dr. W. C. Newton, of Tsing-Tao, China, was presented by Dr. Maddry, and spoke concerning his work on the foreign field, and "Three Wars in China, and Conditions Resulting from These Wars." The benediction was pronounced by Rev. H. W. Baucom, Wilmington.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

After singing "He Leadeth Me," devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain. Romans, sixth chapter, was read. "Consecration" was her subject. Prayer by Mrs. H. M. Finch, Rocky Mount. Solo by Miss Williams of Chapel Hill. Minutes read and approved.

The hour for the reports of Divisional Superintendents having arrived, Mrs. A. E. Hampton gave the report of the Asheville Division; Mrs. T. B. Henry read the report of the Charlotte Division; Mrs. C. C. Hoggard reported for the Elizabeth City Division; Miss Macy Cox read report of the Wilmington Division. The reports were adopted. Prayer by Dr. J. M. Kester.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ASHEVILLE DIVISION

In presenting the annual report of the Asheville Division to this convention, I am sure that every woman in the division who has had any part in this great work of helping to bring in the Kingdom of God would say from the depths of her heart, "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow," for in "Serving the Lord Christ" we could do nothing without His blessed Holy Spirit to guide.

Our divisional meeting last year was held at Calvary Baptist Church, West Asheville, with a fine presentation from most of the associations. This year it will be at Brevard, in June.

A great deal of interest is shown in personal service, both organized and individual. Some very fine work along this line has been reported by our superintendents. Special mention should be made of the splendid work done by the women of Haywood Association. There has been an increase in almost all phases of the work. This division has 105 Woman's Missionary Societies, with a membership of 2,815, 95 Junior organizations, eight A-1 societies for the year 1926, 51 new societies have been organized, 1,328 mission magazines subscribed to, and 81 societies have observed the three Seasons of Prayer. There has been 124 mission study classes conducted, with 1,204 seals and awards given.

It is to the untiring efforts and faithfulness of the noble women of our 15 active associations that credit should be given for what has been accomplished during the past year; although there has not been a note of satisfaction expressed by any of our superintendents as to the work that has been done. Strong leadership seems to be the call of the hour. All of our associations did not reach their aim for the year, but express hope in attaining it during this year.

Special mention should be made of the fine work done by Miss Della 'Huggins, who has charge of the rural work of the French Broad Association. The total contributions for the year for the division amounted to $19,714.28.

May we all realize that if we "Seek first the Kingdom of God" by putting "first things first," we can make this year, 1927, the greatest of all years for our Lord and Saviour.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. A. E. HAMPTON.

REPORT OF CHARLOTTE DIVISION

It is with joy and gratitude I bring to this convention an account of the faithfulness, loyalty and liberality of the W. M. U. workers of the Charlotte Division. It is encouraging to learn that we again led the State in gifts—contributions, $82,330.20.

The annual session of the Charlotte Division was held at Statesville. The South Yadkin Association was our dinner hostess, at the church, and the good women of Statesville took care of us during the remainder of the time. At this meeting we learned that there were no lights in the Kathleen Mallory Hospital in China, because the generating engine had worn out and the Foreign Mission Board was unable to buy a new one. For our special work this year, over and above our apportionment, we decided to buy an engine for the Kathleen Mallory Hospital. Miss Laura Lazenby was appointed chairman of this committee. The Missouri sisters joined hands with us, and we sent the engine to Alda Grayson, our own division daughter, for a Christmas gift. Through our treasurer, Miss H. W. Little, $380 was paid to Mrs. Z. M. Caveness to purchase this engine for the Kathleen Mallory Hospital. This engine will furnish lights for the church, the school, our missionaries' homes, as well as the hospital.

We led the State again in Mission Study. Mrs. H. B. Marsh of Marshville is our Mission Study Superintendent. The W. A. Smith Memorial Banner was won by the Pilot Mountain Association in 1926, and Mrs. J. J. Roddick received it, for best work done in Mission Study.

This year the Pee Dee Association is leading, with 370 seals.

In addition to our regular Personal Service, we sent a number of boxes to our mountain schools, and contributed money toward their support.

The annual session of the Charlotte Division will be held at Lenoir the first week in June. Miss Grayson will be home on a furlough, and will be with us in our divisional meeting.

"Come with us and we will do thee good."

"True greatness lies in the faithful toilers of the world, Not in empires built by greed of man or waging wars, But in deeds of charity and love that bless our homes, And light our earth as heaven is lighted by the stars."

MRS. T. B. HENRY.

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

The progress of our W. M. U. work in the Elizabeth City Division is marked by a steady growth, which is gratifying and encouraging. The thought of enlistment, stewardship and tithing has been outstanding in our work throughout the year. No endeavor on our part has yielded a greater fruitage than the enlistment work carried on in two of our associations, which resulted in reviving a number of our missionary societies and the organization of many others.

Stony Creek Church, Roanoke Association, was one of the three N. C. churches that attained recognition at our Southern Baptist W. M. U. Convention, having a full graded W. M. U., and each organization standard A-1.

Our gifts have not been so large as we wish, so much emphasis has been placed on tithing through the distribution of stewardship leaflets and by being featured on various programs given.

Our associational superintendents and county chairmen are aggressively working in their respective fields, and every phase of our work is feeling the impetus of their united efforts. Our superintendents are truly faithful leaders, for it is due to their untiring zeal and their great love for the Master that the progress has been made.

A great development in the work of Personal Service has been accomplished in each association.

The women of West Chowan, in addition to supporting a missionary in China, are giving scholarships to three deserving girls, who are now students of Chowan College. The Woman's Missionary Society of Edenton Church, Chowan Association, is also supporting a missionary in China. Neuse-Atlantic and Roanoke Associations report a wonderful Personal Service work.

Many boxes have been sent to mission schools and orphanages; jails and county homes have been visited and religious services held. The Woman's Missionary Society of Rocky Mount, Roanoke Association, is aiding financially a ministerial student at Mars Hill College. Jesus said, "The poor ye have with you always, and whensoever ye will, ye may do them good."

The Neuse-Atlantic Association is rendering a great service by defraying the expenses of the poor at hospitals. During the summer special prayer bands and study classes were organized in two of the associations, to help in "soul-winning" during the revival meetings. Vacation Bible Schools have been conducted in some of the churches for the entire membership. The associational and quarterly meetings during the year were our best in attendance, interest, and evident purpose to promote our program of activity. Each association held an annual meeting, with well-arranged, instructive, and inspirational programs. We hope this year that the associations will be keenly alert to the work of rural extension, and that we may be able, during the summer, to secure at least two field workers whose activities will be confined to rural fields.

Our annual divisional meeting, held at Windsor, in June, was a gathering of eager, enthusiastic women. The presence of Dr. J. R. Saunders from Canton, China, who brought to the women a soulthrilling message concerning the needs of China, added much to the interest and spiritual value of the meeting.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris of Raleigh, the mission study leader of North Carolina, was present also, and her address on "Mission Study" inspired our women to a greater task.

Our next divisional meeting will be held at Edenton, Chowan Association, in June. Mrs. E. F. Aydlett will be hostess superintendent, and desires a large attendance.

It has been my privilege to visit many of the societies in the division during the past year. Though sharing the general denominational depression and distress, because of debt-burdened boards, the W. M. U. of the Elizabeth City Division has had many encouraging and happy experiences through the year. We go forward with renewed hope and a greater desire to do His will in carrying on the work He has entrusted to us.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. C. HOGGARD.

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION

In bringing this report for the Wilmington Division, we praise God, from whom all blessings flow. His blessings have been showered upon us, and to Him we give the glory of all that has been accomplished through us.

It has been my good pleasure to visit every association in my division during the last two years, and to attend seven annual meetings last fall. As I attended several for the second, some for the third, fourth, and fifth year, I was much gratified to see the marked improvements in attendance, programs, and general interest.

We bring some of these achievements to you in this report.

First, in organizations: Last year our report showed many new societies, but the loss of old ones was greater than the gain, and our net loss was 63. This year we have also had losses, but ninety-five new societies, and a net gain of 76. It is very gratifying to report that of this net gain, 64 are young people's societies; 3, Y. W. A.; 26, G. A.; 17, R. A.; 18 Sunbeam Bands. R. A. has just doubled; 12 net gains in W. M. S. These gains are as follows: Total gain in Bladen Association, 7; Brunswick, 2; Cape Fear-Columbus, 5; Eastern, 16; Johnston, 15; Little River, 5; Robeson, 7; Wilmington, 14; Total, 76.

Nearly every association reports better personal service work, seasons of prayer, mission study, and willingness and development to speak in public meetings.

Some special work reported from Bladen Association was 6 quilts sent to Thomasville Orphanage, and several boxes sent from Cape Fear-Columbus and New South River.

Bladen, under the splendid leadership of Mrs. W. O. Biggs, made 9 points on Standard of Excellence, and met their apportionment. Report $1,371.72.

Brunswick, under the leadership of Mrs. Carl Ward, showed many signs of improvement and interest in their annual meeting. Mrs. B. R. Page is the new superintendent. They have nearly completed their Mary Ward Scholarship for Training School. Miss Lillian Mabry, the Sunday school worker in that association, lends her helping hand in many ways to the W. M. U. work. They reported $633.79.

The superintendent of Cape Fear-Columbus Association moved to Wilmington, and again the beloved Mrs. J. L. Memory carried on the work till October, when Mrs. J. T. McKenzie was elected. Their report showed increase in interest in Seasons of Prayer and personal service, and number of tithers. Their gifts were $1,187.79.

The Eastern, still led by Miss Macy Cox, has gone forward in development of leaders, and leads the division in number of new societies, 20, and net increase, 16. They also lead in number of churches having five grades of W. M. S. work, 6 churches, and in young people's societies, 64. Mount Olive W. M. S. sent one dozen bed spreads and a towel shower to our Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem. Clinton W. M. S. gave a Christmas tree at Sampson County home.

Misses Elizabeth Middleton and Virginia White are in our Training School. The Eastern made 8 points on the Standard of Excellence, and paid their apportionment. Report, $4,219.97. Have nearly completed their fund for furnishing room in our new seminary.

Johnston is going steadily forward under the faithful leadership of Mrs. B. A. Hocutt and the able assistance of their new W. M. S. worker, Miss Gertrude Mattison. They led the division in Mission Study, with 383 seals, organized 17 new societies, helped furnish a room at Meredith, and made 9 points on Standard of Excellence. Financial report, $4,219.97.

Little River is still led by the loyal Miss Mattie Bain, and have more A-1 societies this year than ever before, 12. They met their apportionment, continue the Castlebury Scholarship at our Training School, and have Miss Foy O. Quinn in the Baptist Bible Institute at New Orleans. They reported $3,548.78.

New South River was without superintendent all the year till October. Their annual meeting was led by their divisional superintendent. A splendid program was rendered by the women of the association, at which time Mrs. I. N. Kimbrough was elected superintendent. Notwithstanding these difficulties, they met their apportionment, and went forward in other ways. Gifts, $2,502.62.

Robeson Association, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Horace Baker, has gone forward in general interest, mission study, and giving. They have rendered good Personal Service to the hospitals in Lumberton. Mrs. Baker resigned in October, and Mrs. Alf. H. McLeod is the new superintendent. Their gifts were $8,589.96.

Mrs. C. O. Baird led the Wilmington Association forward in many ways for one year, and left the State in September. Mrs. R. E. Williams is again superintendent. They made 8 points on Standard of Excellence, met their apportionment, and led in number of tithers, 150, and in gifts, $10,386.91. Total from division, $36,635.97.

In Bladen Association 3 churches have five grades of W. M. U. work. In the Eastern, 6 churches have five grades; in Johnston, 3; Little River, 2; New South River, 1; Robeson, 2; and Wilmington, 1.

In Brunswick and Cape Fear-Columbus no church has five grades. Mother societies, help provide leaders for the children of your churches.

We are greatly blessed with the presence and help of Miss Dorothy Kellam in the annual meeting of the Little River Association, and Mrs. Edna R. Harris in Bladen, Brunswick, Cape Fear-Columbus, New South River, Robeson, Johnston, Wilmington, and Eastern.

The Wilmington Division did not hold their annual conference in January, because the annual State meeting was to be in our division.

Respectfully submitted.

MACY COX, Superintendent.

"Come Thou Almighty King" was sung, after which Miss Willie Kelly of China gave an inspiring address, her subject being "Thirty Years in China." Mrs. T. S. Johnson sang, "We Are Coming Lord to Thee."

"A Crown of Beauty in His Hand" was the theme of the message brought to us by Miss Kathleen Mallory, Corresponding Secretary of the W. M. U. of the Southern Baptist Convention, Birmingham, Alabama.

Conferences were conducted by Mrs. Edna R. Harris on Mission Study; Personal Service by Mrs. Chas. E. Maddry Adjourned with prayer, led by Rev. R. B. Lineberry.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Meeting called to order at 2 o'clock by the president. Singing of hymn, "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross." Period of intercession, led by Mrs. Herman Stevens, High Point, whose subject was, "The Long Road Home." Mrs. T. S. Johnson sang, "The Long, Long Road." Prayer by Mrs. Clyde Turner, Greensboro. Minutes read and approved.

Mrs. C. C. Hoggard, superintendent of Elizabeth City Division, was called to the chair, in the absence of the two vice-presidents. Mrs. Wesley N. Jones read the plan of work for 1927, section by section, giving time for discussion of each section. Motion was made by Mrs. Jones that plan of work be adopted. An amendment to this motion was offered by Miss Macy Cox, Magnolia, "that the Heck Memorial Fund this year be appropriated to the Nurses' Home of Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, instead of to Meredith College," which was adopted.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR 1927

The Executive Committee of the Woman's Missionary Union recommend:

- 1. That the Plan of Work adopted by the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention and presented to each society in the Year Book, be adopted as our Plan of Work for the year.
- 2. That all Associations which have not completed their apportionment for the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home are requested to send in by May 30th the remainder of their quota. The Nurses' Home is to be built this year and the fund must be completed at once.
- 3. That the Heck Memorial Fund this year be appropriated to the Blanche Barrus' Nurses Home at Winston-Salem.
- 4. That we urge Y. W. A. girls and leaders to profit by the South-wide camp at Ridgecrest, June 14-24, and that each Associational Young People's Leader make a special effort to reach all societies through separate associational camps for G. A. and R. A.
- 5. That we accept our quota of the fund appropriated to the Woman's Missionary Union by the Sunday School Board for field work, plans for this work to be made by the Corresponding Secretary and the Divisional and Associational Superintendents in the territory in which the work is to be done. An amount equal to that appropriated by the Board is to be given in the locality requesting this aid or by the General Board.

- 6. That we increase our State Expense Fund to meet the needs of our work. Every society is asked to send in a contribution for this fund in May, the objective this year to be $1,800.00.
- 7. That we urge the societies to make their contributions according to the printed blanks for reports, the gifts each quarter to be for Co-operative Program and the special offering for that quarter as specified on the blank; all society, associational, and state reports to run according to the calendar year.
- 8. That we observe Monday, September 12, as a day of prayer for State Missions and that our Educational work be given a part of the program that day. That as the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering will be observed in December, we recommend that the first week in January be set apart as a Week of Prayer for World-wide Missions; no offering to be taken at this time; no programs will be sent out from W. M. U. Headquarters.
- 9. That as all gifts for Woman's Missionary Union Training School at Louisville, Ky., Margaret Educational Fund and Sunday School Board Bible Fund are reported by the W. M. U. of Southern Baptist Convention as W. M. U. Specials, we take as our apportionment for this fund $3,000.00 to be appropriated as follows:

То	Current	Expenses,	w.	M.	U.	Training
	School					$1	1,800.	00
То	Margare	t Educatio	nal	Fu	nd.		900.	00
To	Bible Fi	ind Sunday	z Sc	hoo	1 B	oard	300.	0.0

That the Scholarship Fund for the W. M. U. Training School, including the Louis Castlebury Scholarship, be $2,000.00.

- 10. That we co-operate with the W. M. U., Auxiliary to Southern Baptist Convention, in all of their plans for the observance in 1928 of the Fortieth Anniversary of the organization of the Union, this to be called the Ruby Anniversary.
- 11. That in view of the fact that in 1930 we will celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of the Baptist State Convention, the W. M. Union would go on record as firmly believing that the most fitting way to do this would be by a united effort to relieve our Convention of its present indebtedness, which in our judgment is a severe handicap to our mission activities. To an effort of this kind we pledge our support.

12. That we take as our financial aim for the year 1927—$275,000.00:

First quarter—January, February,

March ______$70,000.00
Second quarter—April May, June____ 65,000.00
Third quarter—July, August, September 50,000.00
Fourth quarter—October, November,

December ______ 90,000.00

This amount, which includes all gifts to the Co-operative Program and to Special Offerings, is to be apportioned to the Associations and by the Associational Superintendents to the societies.

The hour for the memorial service having arrived, Mrs. John H. Vernon, of Burlington, read a tribute to the memory of Mrs. Martin W. Buck, of Burlington, former superintendent of Greensboro Division, after which Mrs. Edna R. Harris read the names of the members of the Union who had died since the last meeting, the audience standing. This was followed by a duet, "Shadows," by Mrs. P. C. Brantley of Wendell and Mrs. T. S. Johnson, Raleigh.

Mrs. R. M. Squires, Wake Forest, spoke on the subject, "His Call to Me," using the text, "Moses My Servant is Dead, Arise and Go Forward."

The report of Committee on Time and Place was read by Mrs. S. H. Templeman, Elizabeth City, and adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TIME AND PLACE

Your Committee on Time and Place unanimously recommend that we accept the most cordial invitation extended to the W. M. U. to meet with the churches of Asheville, in their annual meeting, 1928.

The meetings are to be held in the beautiful new First Baptist Church, and the time, March 6, 7, 8, 1928.

MRS. S. H. TEMPLEMAN, Chairman.

Report of the Nominating Committee was made by the chairman, Mrs. C. L. Haywood, Durham, and adopted.

THURSDAY EVENING SESSION

The evening session was presided over by Miss Dorothy Kellam, Young People's Leader. "O Zion Haste" was sung, after which Miss Louise McDaniel, Chowan College, led the devotional exercises, reading Ecclesiastes 12.

Miss Nannie Hewett read the winning tithing story by a member of the Girls' Auxiliary, which was won by Miss Avis Little, of Salisbury, who was not present. Miss Constance Ellis, of Meredith College, read the prize-winning tithing story by a Y. W. A. girl, which was written by Miss Bess Thomas, Meredith girl, who was unable to be present.

Mr. Herbert Baucom, Wilmington, told of his impressions of the R. A. Encampment at Wrightsville Beach last summer. Miss Ruby Padgett, of Lincolnton, gave a graphic account of the Y. W. A. Camp at Ridgecrest.

To the Tar River Association went the Young People's banner for organizing the largest number of societies and for the largest list of A-1 young people's organizations.

The playlet, "Two Times Two," written by Miss Kellam herself, proved one of the most interesting and helpful features of the convention.

The Committee on Resolutions made the following report, which was adopted:

RESOLUTIONS

We, the delegates and visitors, assembled in the Twenty-seventh Annual Meeting of the W. M. U. of North Carolina, tender our deep appreciation to the First Baptist Church, its pastor, officers, and people, for their generous hospitality in putting their fine premises at our disposal, and to all the Baptist pastors and people of Wilmington for their splendid welcome and fine personal service.

We gratefully thank Mrs. Howard Hanby and all committees and ushers for their untiring efforts and gracious provision for our comfort and well-being, which have so largely contributed to the efficiency of our Convention.

How can we adequately express our appreciation of our generous hostesses, who have opened their homes to us, provided our meals, and made our visit so delightful?

If meeting in conference inspires the soul, it also induces a remarkable appetite, and we thank the ladies of our sister churches who have so thoughtfully ministered to the inner "woman" in giving of their time and service, in providing meals—an arduous task.

We are indebted to those who, with organ, piano, cornet, and voice have inspired us with their beautiful music, for truly, "Music hath charms to soothe"—the Woman's Convention.

We greatly appreciate the welcome from the city of Wilmington, the Chamber of Commerce, and the kindness of those who planned for us a visit to the beach, those who provided sandwiches and candies, and those who placed their cars at our disposal.

Even in giving us snow, Wilmington has "treated us white."

We are indebted to the newspapers of the city and of others in the State for placing their columns at our disposal, and to Rev. W. M. Gilmore for his fine publicity service.

We appreciate the Literature Department so well conducted by Miss Madge Alderman. We value the services, efficiently rendered, of our recording secretary, Mrs. W. M. Gilmore. We acknowledge the excellent leadership of our vice-presidents, superintendents, and of Mrs. Maddry, Mrs. Simms, Mrs. Pittman, and Mrs. Caveness, who have guided us in our W. M. S. activities.

We are proud of Miss Elsie Hunter's inestimably valuable management of our funds as treasurer; we congratulate ourselves and Mrs. Edna R. Harris on her first year of fine constructive work as our corresponding secretary; and in the name of our boys and girls and students, give our loving thanks to their and our Miss Dorothy Kellam.

To our distinguished visitors we bring our tribute. Dr. Paul Bagby led us into the presence of our crucified and risen Master.

We have been laid under deep obligation by the messages brought by our representatives from the uttermost parts of the earth, Dr. and Mrs. Carey Newton and Miss Willie Kelly, whose noble services have laid us under serious responsibility. May we, by the grace of God, stand back of them in their work, and make our debt—it is not the Foreign Mission Board's debt—a thing of the past,

We have been inspired by the presence and message of Miss Kathleen Mallory, dearly loved leader of our Southland; of our own Dr. Maddry, the Andrew Fuller of our State, these who spare not time, strength, or even health, that they may hold the ropes, whilst our missionaries go down into the mines.

We greatly regret that Miss Blanche Sydnor White was not able to be with us because of sickness.

We are indebted to the young people of Wilmington for their instructive demonstration playlets.

Finally, to our beloved president, Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, we bring our devoted gratitude, not only for her wise service, her sane counsel. her sympathetic encouragement, but most for the spiritual leadership that seeks that in all things He may have the pre-eminence who loved us and gave Himself for us.

Therefore, be it resolved:

First, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes. Second, That a copy be sent to the papers.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. HUGH A. ELLIS,
For the Committee on Resolutions.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris read a communication from the Baptist State Convention.

COMMUNICATION TO THE STATE W. M. U. MEETING IN WILMINGTON, 1927

The General Board of the North Carolina Baptist Convention, at its regular session in Raleigh, December 21, 1926, after full discussion of the proposal made by the State W. M. U. to the recent North Carolina Baptist Convention to set up a special campaign for securing funds to meet very pressing and acute educational needs, desires to express its most cordial and hearty sympathy with the undertaking.

We would hereby assure the State W. M. U. that we recognize the absolute necessity for such a campaign, and desire the fullest cooperation of your organization with us in the undertaking, which shall be sufficiently large in its scope and purpose to relieve the pressing obligations which rest upon the educational institutions of our convention.

Our best judgment is that present economic conditions, together with the necessity for making ample preparations for right!y projecting such a campaign, will delay the going afield to make the canvass until after the meeting of the next North Carolina Baptist Convention. But we would express the hope that this necessary delay in actually securing the much-needed funds may in no wise dampen the ardor of the State W. M. U. for the enterprise, and also give the assurance that we would welcome at the next convention an expression of continued enthusiastic coöperation from your body toward the same great end. Our conviction is that such action on your part would bring a challenge which would greatly encourage the convention to undertake a worthwhile task as a worthy Centennial Movement for Christian Education.

JNO. R. JESTER, JOSEPH A. GAINES, MRS. G. T. LUMPKIN. Number of delegates enrolled, 397; visitors, 59.

On motion, adjourned, after prayer by Rev. R. J. Hall, Winter Park, Wilmington, to meet in the city of Asheville, March 6-8.

MRS. WESLEY N. JONES,

President.

MRS. WALTER M. GILMORE,

Recording Secretary.

In Memoriam

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

Mrs. Minnie Marshall Buck—Born December 16, 1865; died July 23, 1926. Superintendent, Mt. Zion Association, 1922-1925; Superintendent Greensboro Division, 1923-1926.

She gave unstintingly of time and effort in civic activities; was a tower of strength in her church; her wise counsel was sought and valued in State-wide W. M. U. and denominational circles. Her optimistic spirit, her faith in God, her power in prayer, her efficiency in every undertaking were outstanding characteristics.

"She was a woman who feared the Lord, and she shall be praised."

Constitution

PREAMBLE

We, the women of the Baptist churches of North Carolina, desirous of stimulating the missionary spirit and the grace of giving among the women and children of the churches, and of aiding in the collection of funds for missionary purposes to be disbursed by the State Mission Board and the Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention, adopt the following Constitution:

ARTICLE I

Name

This organization shall be known as the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention.

Object

The object shall be threefold: (1) To stimulate a broader religious development on the part of the Baptist women and girls of the State, to train the children in Christian work, and enlist all in active personal endeavor for the salvation of those in their own communities. (2) To receive and distribute missionary information, to stimulate effort to encourage the organization of Missionary Societies and Bands among the women, young people and children. (3) To encourage the earnest, systematic cooperation of women and children in contributing money for missions at home and abroad.

Officers

Section 1. The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents; one located at W. M. U. Headquarters and one from the State at large, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, a Recording Secretary, a Young People's Leader, a Mission Study Superintendent, and an Editor; who, together with sixteen ladies residing in or near Raleigh, shall form the Executive Committee.

Election

Sec. 2. These officers and sixteen ladies, who, together with them compose the Executive Committee, shall be annually elected on the last day of the Annual Session after nominations by a Nominating Committee, composed of ten members, two from each division; this committee being elected from the floor.

ARTICLE IV

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Union shall decide.

Representatives at Annual Meeting

Those entitled to membership in the Annual Meeting shall be the officers of the Union, Executive Committee, the Divisional Superintendents, the Associational Superintendents, five representatives from the entertaining society, with one representative from a society, provided no church has more than three delegates. Only such delegates as are personally present and duly accredited by the Union shall be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE VI

Conduct of Meeting

Every session of the Union shall be opened and closed with religious exercises.

ARTICLE VII

Program

The program shall be arranged by the Executive Committee in conference with the committee of the society with which the Annual Meeting is held.

Amendments

This Constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any Annual Meeting, one month's previous notice of proposed change having been given through the Executive Committee.

By-Laws

- 1. President—The President shall preside at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union and all meetings of the Executive Committee, shall appoint all committees not otherwise provided for, and shall be ex-officio member of all standing committees. She shall also be the State Vice-President of the Southern Woman's Missionary Union and shall endeavor to keep the State work in line with the plans of the General Union. She may, through the Recording Secretary, call special meetings of the Executive Committee when in her judgment needed, or at the request of five members of said Committee.
- 2. Vice-Presidents—The First Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, preside at monthly meetings of Executive Committee, and at the Annual Meeting of the Union. In the event that the First Vice-President cannot assume these duties, they fall upon the Second Vice-President.
- 3. Corresponding Secretary The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Union, present reports of the condition of the work at the Annual Meeting, keep a record book as a source of information, organize societies, send out blanks for quarterly reports, conduct the W. M. U. Department of the State denominational paper, and attend to other business usual to the office.
- 4. Treasurer—It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to keep an accurate account of all money contributed to missions by societies to objects included in the annual program, when reported to her through receipts signed by the church treasurer, or sent direct to her. She shall make out a quarterly report at the close of each quarter, and an annual report to be submitted to the Woman's Missionary Union Annual Meetings. She shall keep an account of the receipts and disbursements of all money sent to her for special Woman's Missionary Union funds, and render quarterly and annual reports of same.
- 5. Recording Secretary—The Recording Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the annual and special meetings of the Woman's Missionary Union. She shall also notify officers of their election and committees of their appointment, and shall perform other duties usual to her office.
- 6. Young People's Leader—The Young People's Leader and College Correspondent shall have general oversight of the Junior organizations of the Woman's Missionary Union and with the cooperation of pastors, superintendents, and officers of societies, shall organize our young people for efficient, systematic mission work. She shall conduct a column relative to Young People's work in the State denominational paper.

- 7. Divisional Superintendents—The Divisional Superintendents shall have general supervision of the Associations in their respective Divisions, keeping in touch with the Associational Superintendents and aiding them in every way possible. They shall be members of the Executive Committee and shall hold an annual meeting in their Division, these Division meetings to be held preferably in the months following the State meeting.
- 8. Associational Superintendents—The Associational Superintendents shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Associational Union. They shall correspond with the President of the Executive Committee and the officers of all Woman's Missionary Societies and Junior Societies in all the churches of their Associations. They shall assist the societies in forming an Associational Union, which shall meet annually. They shall be ex-officion members of the Executive Committee, and shall as frequently as possible attend the monthly meetings of that committee. An annual meeting of the Superintendent and Executive Committee shall be held during the Annual Meeting.
- 9. Executive Committee The Executive Committee shall carry out the instructions of the Union, and transact all business between its sessions. It shall meet monthly, and oftener when necessary. Seven members shall constitute a quorum. When a vacancy occurs, the remaining members of the Executive Committee shall be empowered to fill the unexpired term. The committee shall report at the Annual Meeting and send an annual report to the State Convention through the State Board of Missions.
- 10. Representatives to Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention—These representatives shall be appointed by the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina at its annual session.
- 11. Expenses—In addition to the amount paid by the State Mission Board for printing, postage, and salaries, the expenses of the Woman's Missionary Union office, including traveling expenses of officers on Union business, shall be met by a yearly contribution of ten cents per member from each local society, said contributions to be made during the first quarter.

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

OF NORTH CAROLINA

THIRTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL SESSION

Asheville, N. C., March 6, 1928.

The thirty-eighth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina met with the First Baptist Church of Asheville, March 6, 7, and 8.

The meeting opened Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock with Mr. H. B. Easom presiding. "O, Zion Haste, Thy Mission High Fulfilling" was sung. The Scripture lesson, Philippians 2:2-13, was read by Dr. W. H. Fitzgerald, pastor of Biltmore Baptist Church, after which Rev. J. B. Grice, of West Asheville, offered prayer.

The Convention sermon was preached by Dr. J. Clyde Turner, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Greensboro. He took as his subject, "The Expectant Christ," using Hebrews 10:11-14 as a text.

A telegram from Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Bateman, who were in Boston, was read. Dr. Bateman is pastor of the church in which the Convention was held, but owing to a previous engagement in Boston was unable to be present. After singing "Jesus Shall Reign," Dr. J. Clyde Turner pronounced the benediction.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 7

The morning session opened at 10 o'clock with Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, president, in the chair. "Jesus Calls Us," was sung. Mrs. W. D. Upshaw, of Asheville, conducted the devotional service, using selections from Matthew 5:15. The chief thought of the message was "Growth." She gave this most beautifully, by the comparison of physical and spiritual light.

On motion of Mrs. June Gunter, of Sanford, it was ordered that the calling of the roll be dispensed with, that those whose registration cards have been deposited with the secretary up to this time be recognized as constituting the organization.

Upon motion by Mrs. W. J. Francis, of Belmont, it was voted that the program as arranged and in the hands of delegates be made the order of business for the session.

Mrs. Chester Brown, of Asheville, most graciously welcomed the Woman's Missionary Union. The response was made by Mrs. Howard Hanby, of Wilmington. Visitors to our meeting were recognized and introduced by Mrs. Jones as follows: Mrs. Taul White, Rome, Ga.; Mrs. Carter Wright, Roanoke, Ala.; Miss Emma Leachman, Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Juliette Mather, Birmingham, Ala.

Following the introduction of visitors, our missionaries were presented as follows: Mrs. S. E. Ayers, Pingtu, China; Miss Naomi Schell, Kokura, Japan; Mrs. M. L. Braun, Shanghai, China; Mrs. L. B. Olive, Chinkiang, China; Miss Rose Marlowe, Shanghai, China; Mrs. D. W. Herring, Changchow, China; Mrs. V. P. Greene, Canton, China; Miss Alda Grayson, Laichow-Fu, China; Mrs. M. T. Rankin, Canton, China.

Committees on Time and Place and Resolutions were named:

Resolutions: Mrs. J. Ben Eller, Statesville; Mrs. A. L. Turner, Southport; Mrs. George Vernon, Greensboro; Mrs. W. T. Harris, Virgilina, Va.; Mrs. C. W. Blanchard, New Bern; Mrs. J. R. Morgan, Waynesville; Mrs. H. F. Jones, Greenville; Mrs. J. E. Hoyle, Raeford; Mrs. H. M. Whitaker, Andrews; Miss Valeria B. Nichols, North Wilkesboro.

Time and Place: Miss Wynona Chaney, Durham; Mrs. E. T. Poe, Star; Miss Gertrude Street, Shelby; Mrs. J. G. Murray, Sylva; Mrs. R. C. Mason, Harrellsville; Mrs. S. M. Combs, Columbia; Mrs. J. L. Griffin, Sanford; Mrs. S. N. Watson, Bladenboro; Mrs. J. G. Johnson, Charlotte; Mrs. M. M. Gordon, Spencer.

The Nominating Committee as follows, was elected from the floor:

Greensboro Division: Mrs. G. E. Ross, Durham; Mrs. D. A. Kearns, Greensboro.

Elizabeth City Division: Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain; Mrs. T. E. Beasley, Ahoskie.

Wilmington Division: Mrs. Ira E. D. Andrews, Clayton; Mrs. John Hanby, Wilmington.

Charlotte Division: Mrs. B. S. Blanton, Charlotte; Mrs. John Liles, Shelby.

Asheville Division: Mrs. A. E. Hampton, Brevard; Mrs. J. F. Brooks, Hendersonville.

The Nominating Committee were asked to meet at the close of the evening session and elect their own chairman.

Reports from the Woman's Missionary Union officers were read, and adopted as follows: Mrs. Edna R. Harris, Corresponding Secretary; Miss Elsie K. Hunter, Treasurer; Miss Dorothy Kellam, Young People's Leader.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

"Like living things on swiftest wings The days and weeks go by."

So fast have the days flown that it hardly seems possible for another year's work to have begun and ended and we are beginning again.

Louise Fletcher Tarkington expresses my feelings today in her yerse:

"So I wish that there were some wonderful place Called the Land of Beginning again, Where all our mistakes, and all our heartaches, Could be dropped like a shabby old coat at the door, And never put on again."

We've all made blunders, and blunders have their ugly side, and the knowledge of them hurts, but they do signify one mighty fine thing—that at least we tried. The only person who never blundered is the person who never tried, and who wants to be that person? Our blunders brought griefs and heartaches, but instead of bemoaning let's assume the attitude of gratefulness that we discovered how better to live even though it did take blunders to discover the knowledge. We cannot re-live but we can make the future better by having learned what to do, what not to do.

The Lord Christ in human hearts not only creates the wish, but verifies the fact of the imperishable truth that there is a "Land of Beginning Again." It is here, it is NOW. This year is a new opportunity, a time of beginning again to do probably the same thing we did last year, but with a little more wisdom, a little more patience with ourselves and with others, a little more faith and confidence in God and in ourselves by His help. This year we know just a little better how to begin, how to continue, and how to finish.

Your Secretary is even more grateful than she was last year for the privilege of bringing to you this report of our work.

During the year we have had some changes in our Superintendents, and welcome into our ranks twelve new ones: Mrs. Nettie Hoge, of Piedmont; Mrs. J. G. Greenwood, Buncombe; Mrs. Eugene Coker, Carolina; Mrs. Jno. O. Gough, Central; Miss Alda Grayson, Green River; Mrs. E. G. Geier, Haywood; Mrs. Jno. D. Berry, Raleigh; Mrs. Sam Ray, Elkin; Mrs. D. B. Snyder, Union; Mrs. Ralph Moody, Western North Carolina; Mrs. H. F. Brinson, Wilmington; and Mrs. E. W. Tatum of our new Association—Rowan.

In welcoming them, we wish to join in an expression of appreciation for the retiring Superintendents: Mrs. H. T. Stevens, Miss Amy Carter, Mrs. Marion Walker, Mrs. J. S. Harrison, Mrs. J. R. Taylor, Mrs. R. N. Barber, Mrs. Thos. Allen, Mrs. J. S. Bray, Mrs. C. M. Beach, Mrs. Bessie Deweese, and Mrs. R. E. Williams.

Fifty-five annual associational meetings were held and the Superintendents report 26,500 miles traveled and 15,527 letters and postals written. For every effort they made we are deeply grateful.

We are grateful for our past, but we are on the threshold of a future that thrills our souls with unmatched possibilities, and we want to prove our service worth while in this the Ruby Anniversary of our Southern W. M. U.

For the last six months of the year we had a general field worker, Miss Gertrude Mattison, and her report will show that she has been active. For the first six months of 1927, Miss Mattison was special field worker for Johnston Association. Miss Della Huggins was special field worker for French Broad for the year, but owing to illness was not able to give full time to her work. Part of the summer and fall three extra workers were employed: Miss Lois Miller in Liberty for five weeks; Miss Cora Lee Cannon in Pilot Mountain for two months; and Miss Bettie Tunstall in Tar River for two months. These combined reports show work in eleven Associations, 5,273 miles traveled; 238 churches and 495 homes visited; 52 mission study classes taught; 686 letters and postals written; 338 meetings attended; 315 talks made; 1,185 leaflets distributed; 710 magazines; and 86 societies revived and organized.

Our visitors to the State during the year added much to the missionary interest. We are indebted to the Southern Union for Miss Mallory at the Annual Meeting in Wilmington and a week's intensive work following it, with associational rallies at Fayetteville, Lumberton, Wake Forest, Durham, Greensboro, and Asheville; for Mrs. Carter Wright at Ridgecrest, July 14-24, when she led in a very spiritual manner a study class in "The Larger Stewardship"; for Miss Mather's visit—two weeks' work at Meredith and North Carolina College for Women; and to the Home Board we are indebted for having Miss Leachman for two weeks in associational work attending six of these annual meetings, and one week of most intensive field work in Caldwell Association where she touched sixteen churches and led one study class.

Many of our missionaries have made a distinct contribution to our work this year in their help in Divisional and Associational meetings. Among these were Mrs. S. E. Ayers; Dr. and Mrs. H. H. McMillan; Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Newton; Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Ware; Mrs. J. W. Shepard; Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Powell; Miss Alda Grayson; and Rev. and Mrs. L. B. Olive.

One of the problems yet unsolved is why so many of our W. M. U. organizations fail to send in reports. Of the 2,781 on file only 1,078 reported all four quarters, of that number 568 were W. M. S.; 102 Y. W. A.; 116 G. A.; 71 R. A. and 221 Sunbeams. The encouraging note here is that we had 250 more reporting every quarter than we had in 1926.

It is gratifying to find that more attention is being paid to the Standard of Excellence each year. We are able to report 775 organizations reaching the Standard; 262 being A-1; 173 B; 166 C; and 174 D. Of the A-1 societies 96 were W. M. S. The Association leading in the number of A-1 organizations of all grades is Piedmont with 26; Roanoke second with 20. One hundred and three churches have full graded Unions and 9 of these are A-1: Tar Heel, Bladen Association; Elizabeth City, First, Chowan; Amis Chapel, Flat River; Boiling Springs, Kings Mountain; Durham, Grace Street, Mount Zion; Durham, Watts Street, Mount Zion; Durham, First, Mount Zion; Franklinville, Piedmont; Greensboro, First, Piedmont.

Forty-three Associations made four and more points on the Standard for Associations. Four reached ten points; 8 reached 9 points; 11 made 8 points; 11 made no report on the Standard.

We are able to report 708 new societies organized last year, an increase of 224 over 1926. The Sunbeams led in number of new organizations; G. A. stood second and W. M. S. third. The number of societies at the close of the year is 2,781, as we were forced to drop from our list some that failed to function. We trust that the stronger societies will more and more foster the weaker ones, thereby growing themselves as they keep others growing.

Over the tomb of the unknown soldier in Paris always burns a light. By observing the 9:00 o'clock prayer hour and the Seasons of Prayer, we may kindle a light in each heart and each society that will glow and glow, not only for a day and a year, but always. This year 581 societies observed all of the Seasons of Prayer. Kings Mountain stands out this year as the Association which led in having half of her organizations observing all the Seasons of Prayer; 2,018 churches observed one or more.

In reading the account of the first missionary society of which we have any record we find that they made gifts to prove their intentions were real. So as a test of how real are our missionary intentions we report our total contributions of $278,085.60, this amount being $3,085.60 over our apportionment of $275,000.00. In the contributions by states North Carolina stands third, Texas and Virginia stand ahead. The Associations standing at the top in gifts are Piedmont first, with $25,257.70; Pilot Mountain second, with $21,587.04; Mt. Zion third, with $19,104.22. The rank of churches is Winston-Salem, First, with $10,665.87; Raleigh, First, second, with $7,033.08; Greensboro, First, third, with $6,884.08. Charlotte Division led in gifts with $89,119.08; Greensboro Division, second, with $80,679.14. Our Christmas Offering was $17,591.74.

Your Corresponding Secretary was privileged to attend the Midwinter Conference in Birmingham; the annual State meeting in Wilmington; the Southern W. M. U., and Southern Baptist Convention, in Louisville, Ky.; one Division meeting; thirty Associations; the Assembly at Ridgecrest; the General Convention in Durham, and fifteen other meetings. In doing this she traveled 9,332 miles, made 60 talks, visited 47 churches.

Mrs. Jones traveled 4,330 miles, attended 18 meetings, wrote 189 letters, made 22 talks. Miss Kellam represented the Union at 8 Associations, Miss Mattison at 5, Miss Joy Beaman at one.

SUMMER IS NEAR

(Report of Young People's Leader)

Are we optimistic enough to believe—in spite of the chill of early March days—that summer is near? It was Shelly who asked: "O Wind, if Winter comes, can Spring be far behind?" In turn we may ask the buds on the trees "If Spring time come, can Summer be far hence?" In the Twentieth Century translation we read Luke 21:29: "Look at the fig tree and all the other trees. As soon as they shoot, you know as you look at them, without being told that summer is near." And in the next sentence is Jesus' application: "And so may you, as soon as ye see these things happening, know that the Kingdom of God is near." He taught of the summertime of hearts—the Kingdom of God.

When that summer will come—who knows? But we do believe that faithful work of W. M. U. members has in some small way helped to nip the frost of winter, and I wonder if we could compare the growth in the work of the young people to the shoots and buds on the trees. Such growth promises that, like the summer season comes, in His own good time so shall the Kingdom of God.

The awarding of 4,308 mission study seals and 2,559 certificates prove that scores of young minds budded with new interest in missions. Reading cards, 162, reading stamps, 221, Y. W. A. official seals, 15.

I believe you will be interested to know that 1,700 of your 2,700 W. M. U. organizations are young people's societies. Five hundred and fifty-eight are new societies organized during 1927, as follows: Y. W. A., 109; G. A., 154; R. A., 116; Sunbeam, 179. Note the gain over the 353 new societies reported in 1926.

The teaching of tithing to young people, and the increase in their gifts prophecy that some day they will do much more than we do to bring the Kingdom of God near. Sunbeams gave $8,514.40; R. A.'s, $3,517.65; G. A.'s, $5,972.90; Y. W. A.'s, $21,816.48. Total, $41,257.64.

For the first time our State has over reached its quota of World Comrades subscriptions. There were 1,587.

There is a marvelous swelling in the number of A-1 societies. In 1926, there were 86, in 1927, 156. Sunbeams 65, R. A.'s 26, G. A.'s 40, and Y. W. A.'s 25.

Those association young people's leaders, superintendents, and voluntary helpers who gave such valuable service in camps last summer will agree in saying, "Be it ever so vigorous, there is no place like camp" for teaching, training, and inspiring our Baptist girls and boys. The first week in June, Wilmington Association had separate G. A. and R. A. camps at Wrightsville Beach, and simultaneously Bladen Association held one for G. A.'s and Y. W. A.'s at White Lake. Then followed the South-wide Y. W. A. Camp at Ridge-crest. Many pastors have paid tribute to the inestimable influence brought back by the girls. Several associations around Mountain View Institute joined together there for two weeks of camps. During the first week the girls' dormitory was filled with G. A.'s and Y. W. A.'s. The second week R. A.'s held theirs in the boys' dormitory, while mothers and Sunbeams occupied the other building. The Raleigh Association had an over-night house party at Meredith College, with a two-day program. The Chowan Association Encampment at Virginia Beach came in the middle of July. The Virginia W. M. U. kindly granted the use of their buildings which were erected for camps. The Johnston camp at White Lake, and that of the Little River Association at Buie's Creek, were fortunate to have Miss Gertrude Mattison in charge. At the latter there were 98 G. A.'s and R. A.'s registered for the entire camp. Stanly Association successfully carried out the camp idea on a small scale. All W. M. U. organizations of Brunswick Association joined in a general encampment at Fort Caswell. The summer ended with the Carolina Association camp for G. A.'s and Y. W. A.'s at Fruitland Institute, and your young people's leader boarded the eastbound train while singing "Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home." I wish there were time enough to thank individually those to whom the credit for the camps belongs.

There was genuine interest of all those campers in Bible, mission study, and methods classes. The total number of seals awarded was 452. Scores of tithers were enlisted, and quite a number of new organizations resulted from the explanation of Ruby Anniversary plans.

We might describe each loyal member of a college Y. W. A. like Hawthorne described Phœbe with "all her little womanly ways, budding out of her like blossoms on a young fruit tree." Little do we realize the excellent work done by these college organizations. Study courses were taught at the following schools: Mars Hill, Fruitland, N. C. C. W., Meredith, Chowan, Campbell, and Wingate. Every member of the Y. W. A. at Wingate took the course, and one hundred per cent took the examination and received awards. Four hundred and twenty-five seals were awarded for study in the colleges.

Last fall North Carolina imported one blossom which we have not had the privilege of enjoying for several years. It came in the person of Miss Juliette Mather, Young People's Leader of the Southern W. M. U. She taught classes at N. C. C. W., the First Baptist Church, Greensboro, and Meredith College, and generously added helpful joy by speaking at a number of other places.

As you have glanced at the tender shoots on our young people's trees, "You know as you look at them, without being told" that eternal summer is a bit nearer than ever before. Oh God, help us to tend Thy orchards diligently!

The report of Miss Gertrude Mattison, Field Worker, was postponed until the afternoon session.

Presentation of the Woman's Missionary Union State Banner was made by Mrs. Edna R. Harris to the Association doing the best all-round work. Kings Mountain Association was the happy recipient of this banner, having received it also for best work during the year 1926.

Following the presentation of the banner and its acceptance by Mrs. John Wacaster, Superintendent, Mrs. Jones, President of the Union, gave her annual address. This time Mrs. Jones chose as her subject, "Growth."

GROWTH

Gladstone, the great English statesman, said that the Constitution of the United States was the most wonderful document ever struck from the brain of man at one time, and yet this Constitution embodied not a single thing that was new, only things that had been tried and proven through the years.

When the question arose as to the most suitable way to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of the organization of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, no new and untried thing was suggested or even thought of; it must be done by an enlargement of our work, a growth along all lines of our activities. The whole story of God's dealings with men from the day he called Abraham from his home in Ur of the Chaldees and looking into the heavens promised that his descendants should be as innumerable as the stars above him, has been one of progress and growth. Isaiah in his glowing prophecy seeing with a prophet's eye the return of his people to their God, and the coming glory of the kingdom age said, "Enlarge the place of thy tent and let them stretch the curtains of thine habitations, spare not, lengthen thy cords and strengthen thy stakes." Israel never possessed her possessions, the inheritance which God gave her through her forefathers.

They became satisfied with what they had attained and failed to take what God intended for them. It is well that on an anniversary like this we should stop and ask ourselves if there is not danger of our being too easily satisfied with our own attainments and the achievements of our organization and failing to get the conception of God's plans and God's purposes and so like Israel of old failing to attain to the things that He intends for us.

When William Carey, the great apostle of modern missions, with a heart burning with the desire to carry the gospel to the heathen nations preached his famous sermon, he based it on this message from Isaiah and gave to the world the two great missionary maxims, "Expect great things from God, and attempt great things for God." So powerful was the message that soon afterward at Kettering, England, a company of twelve ministers formed the first Baptist Missionary Society, and the great era of modern missions began.

Jesus, teaching His disciples as to the kingdom of God in the first parable He gave them, taught them a lesson of growth. You recall the parable of the sower, the seed that fell by the wayside that the birds of the air devoured, the seed that fell on the stony earth and the sun caused it to wither away, the seed that fell among thorns that choked it and the seed that fell on the good ground that yielded fruit and brought forth some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred fold.

The kingdom of God started with such a small beginning that men took no note. The Savior of Mankind was crucified, His disciples persecuted and scattered, and the world thought that it had heard the last of the Man of Galilee. But there was divine life in the seed sown, and the triumph of Christianity in those early centuries is one of the marvels of history. Down through the ages the religion of our Lord has grown until today the knowledge of Him whom we love and serve has increased until He is known and worshipped among all the peoples of the earth.

Growth is a natural process in the world about us. One has only to plant the seed and set the tender plant in the earth and give it fair conditions, and slowly but surely it begins to grow, and soon we have the plant budding, blossoming into beauty, and yielding fruit. Every spring we see anew the great miracle of nature when apparently dead branches swell, send out the tender green buds, and soon the trees that have looked so brown and dead are covered again with leafage, and the careful observer sees not the same tree but a larger and a stronger one, the evidence of another year's growth. Seed time and harvest have followed from the beginning and will follow until the end of time.

In the spiritual world growth is not a natural process, it must come by effort. We must bend our wills and put forth our energies to the utmost in order that we may grow along spiritual lines. If there is progress to be made, it is necessary that we grow. If in our activities we stand at one place and the passing years bring no increase in our powers and in our achievements, we may well stop and question why. When the tree ceases to grow, we are told it begins to die; we may well consider if we, too, when there is no growth, are facing a condition that will result in death to our Christian activities. For this reason today we want to pause and look at the records of the past ten years in our Woman's Missionary Union history, and consider whether we are making any real progress or whether we are standing still and failing to grasp the opportunities God has set before us. Let us look first at the number of women in our churches that we have reached in an effort to bring them into an active participation in Kingdom work. In 1917 we reported 25,664 women and young people enlisted in our Woman's Missionary Union organizations out of 126,612 connected with our churches. In 1927 we reported 40,326 women and young people and a church membership of 173,399. The percentage is nearly the same, but the figures show that in ten years we have increased the number of members in our societies 14,662, a gain of a little more than one thousand each year. This year, the Ruby Anniversary Year of our Southern Woman's Missionary Union, we have taken as our goal an increase of 4,000 members in existing organizations or 10 per cent increase; a goal that the reports of the present year show we have attained if we were to count the members in our newly organized societies. With 133,073 unenlisted women and young people in our churches it should be a simple matter to reach at least 4,000 of this number. When we consider the fact that only the women who are members of our missionary societies are having any part in the great missionary movements of the present day and that these unenlisted women are failing to obey the parting injunction of our risen Lord to carry the message of His redemption to a lost world, surely we must realize anew their responsibility and our privilege to win them to an active Christian service.

In 1917 we had 1,488 organizations, in 1927 we had 2,413, an increase of 925, notwithstanding the fact that each year every society failing to report some gift for missions has been dropped from our roll. Many become interested in some local work and for the time being center their activities on this. A missionary society that fails for twelve months to make some contribution to the missionary work of our denomination is failing in the very purpose of its organization. There are 2,196 churches in North Carolina; we have 2,413 missionary societies, but as there are in some cases as many as five organizations in one church this does not mean that we have put our organizations in 2,196 churches. As nearly as we can estimate there are 913 churches that have no Woman's Missionary Union Societies after forty-two years of persistent work on our part. Many of these churches are having no part in the great missionary program of our denomination. Surely in some way we must reach the women in this large number of unenlisted churches. Here lies an open door of service for our Women's Missionary Union.

Ten years ago only 166 of our societies reported having had a mission study class during the year. Last year there were 1,046 classes, a growth along the line of missionary knowledge and interest that promises great results in the coming years. Much fine work has been done by our mission study leaders, work that we believe has been a fundamental factor in the progress of our Union.

In keeping with the growth in mission study we find the number of subscriptions to our State paper, the Biblical Recorder, and our mission magazines increasing from 4,722 to 14,054. This is most encouraging as many if not all of the problems that confront us as a denomination will be solved when all of our homes are reached by these periodicals.

It is hardly fair to make the comparison as to the growth of our Personal Service Department as the system of reporting has been recently changed, and now we report only the work of our organized Personal Service Committees. Ten years ago only 284 societies reported some form of Personal Service as a regular part of their activities, while last year there were 793. No phase of the work has made a greater appeal, and everywhere our women have learned the joy of ministering in His name. There is a legend of the Apostle Thomas that in his labors for the gospel in India he was commissioned by the king to build for him a prouder palace than mortals ever knew and to this end placed untold treasures at his command. The palace was built, but it was a spiritual palace of good works laid up in heaven,

"He clad the naked, the hungry fed
The oil of gladness around him shed.
He blessed them all with ample store
As never a king's wealth blessed before."

The king on his return was angry and put the apostle in prison, but soon after his brother died and appearing to him in a dream said,

"I have been in Paradise, O my king,
And there I saw by the gates of gold
A palace finer than tongue has told.
Its glories there in that radiant place
Shine forth like a smile from the dear Lord's face.
An angel said, 'It was builded there
By the good St. Thomas, with love and care.'"

The king released the apostle from the dungeon, saying,

"O builder, he is most wise
Who buildeth ever for Paradise."

The women who constitute the Woman's Missionary Union have builded wisely and well by deeds of love and kindness, by a ministry to the unfortunate, and have reared a structure whose size and beauty only eternity can reveal.

The work of our Young People's organizations lies near to our hearts as we realize that the success or failure of the work in future years depends on them. The organizations of our young people ten years ago numbered 733 with an annual contribution of $11,473.21. Last year we reported 1,393 organizations giving $35,865.70, a growth that is most gratifying and shows much earnest work on the part of those who are giving themselves so faithfully to this work. One does not hesitate to say that the greatest need and the greatest opportunity before us presents itself in the training of our young people in Christian service.

The total gifts of our Union in 1917 amounted to $50,849.79, fifty thousand dollars reached after thirty years of prayerful and loving service on the part of the faithful women who constituted our organization in those early days when results were apparently so small. Our gifts last year amounted to $265,042.53, the present year to $278,085.60, five times what they were ten years ago. Truly the seed sown has brought forth more than the hundred fold.

The story is told, but lest we be too satisfied with the things we have done, let us remember this is only the record of the things that are seen. Peter in prison, burdened with the infirmities of age and facing martyrdom, wrote to the early Christians, "Grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ." It is well that we should consider today to what extent we as a Union have grown in spiritual power, and whether as Christian women we are growing in the favor and knowledge of God. Just as in material things the outward signs of growth cannot be accomplished without the direct effort of our wills and by a complete consecration to our task, so the inward spiritual growth must come by application and because of a purpose in our lives. The fruits of the Spirit are the outward signs of the spiritual life within us. The life may be bare to the casual observer, but if the inner spiritual life is present, it will bud and blossom and bear fruit under the gracious favor of God.

The Psalmist compares the godly man to the tree planted by the run of waters that bringeth forth fruit in its season, and the promise is made that he shall flourish like the cedar in Lebanon. The life of the Christian is to be a continuous growth if the mission of the life is fulfilled. What is more pathetic in the physical world than a stunted or an arrested development, the little child whose beauty and innocence are a joy to all is a pathetic figure that pulls at the heart strings when the childhood fails with the passing years to develop into maturity. The child spiritually who with the years fails to develop a mature Christian experience is just as pathetic a figure. Quoting again from the apostle who perhaps more than any of the twelve disciples of our Lord realized more completely what a growth in grace meant and was himself an example of the transforming power of the Holy Spirit, "As new-born babes desire the sincere milk of the word that ye may grow thereby." The inference is plain, growth in grace is dependent on our feeding on the word of God, on communion with Him. May we not ask ourselves today how much more of the favor and knowledge of God we are conscious of in our lives than we were ten years ago? If we have walked daily with Him, if we have been guided by His divine hand all the way, surely we can say that we have grown into a larger and fuller fellowship with Him. If we have failed to grow in His grace, shall we not ask ourselves what are the things that have hindered or prevented, and endeavor to put those things out of our lives? There is no such thing as standing still in Christian experience, we are either growing day by day closer into His knowledge, or we are growing away from Him, away from the things that are unseen and eternal.

In the parable the slothful servant buried his talent and received the condemnation of his master. Just as surely we will fail to win the commendation of our Lord if we bury our Christian graces in inactivity and indifference and fail to realize the privileges of our high calling in Christ Jesus. The world must be won from ignorance and sin to the glorious gospel of our Lord by people like you and me, by those who have listened to the voice of the Master and have heard His call to service. The growth of the Woman's Missionary Union the past ten years has been largely because of the prayers of the women who make up our organization. It was founded on prayer, its achievements are the result of prayer, and its hope in the coming years is in prayer.

For forty-two years we have had the blessing and guidance of God. He has lead us into larger fields and broader paths than we ever dreamed of, and today as we acknowledge His blessings and give Him all the praise for what has been accomplished, we would urge you who constitute our Union to a fuller knowledge of His will, a deeper consecration to His service, and may He grant that you may grow not only in the outward manifestations of His love and power, but that there may be the inward growth in spiritual knowledge that shall light your pathway even into the perfect day.

"What is left for us, save, in growth
Of souls to rise up, far past both,
From the gift looking to the Giver
And from the cistern to the River,
And from the finite to the Infinite,
And from man's dust to God's infinity."

SALLIE BAILEY JONES.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris then presented her report on Mission Study. This report was adopted. Mrs. Harris introduced Mrs. Taul White, of Rome, Ga., who is a Field Worker for the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to Southern Baptist Convention. Mrs. White conducted an inspiring conference on Mission Study.

MISSION STUDY REPORT

"The field is the world," and as I make this report of mission study I am constrained to believe that more and more are we realizing that in order to make our contribution in service and money worth-while we must know of the complex problems of the day in our State, and in the South, and must be informed of world conditions which so vitally affect every one. During the World War we learned how happenings in other countries affected our own; and today we feel the effect of upheavals and disorder in other nations.

While not so many classes have been reported as last year, the number of seals show that a larger number have been studying, and the increasing number of those continuing their work shows that the story of missions has a grip on the heart. Eleven of our women are pursuing the Advanced Course. Mrs. C. C. Coppedge of Greenville, Roanoke Association, was awarded her diploma at Louisville last year; and Mrs. R. L. Harris, Greenville, and Mrs. E. L. Mayo, Bethel, both of Roanoke, have completed the Advanced Course since then. Roanoke also led in W. M. S. awards with 917 seals and 54 official seals. Mount Zion led in awards to young people with 445 seals.

Great stress is placed upon mission study at the associational camps, many of the young people completing two studies during the week. More schools of missions have been held this year and our missionaries have been most helpful in these. Many new books are coming out and no more gripping messages can be found anywhere than in these.

Back of all our study should come first the reading and studying of the Bible, for how shall we carry on the Master's work unless we know His way and His word? Hence let me urge every W. M. U. worker to select some definite plan for reading and studying God's word this year.

At the close of the morning session the registration books showed 379 delegates and 106 visitors, making a total of 485.

Mrs. P. C. Brantley, of Wendell, sang, "A Song of Praise."
After singing "The Morning Light is Breaking," Miss Emma Leachman, pronounced the benediction.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The afternoon session was called to order by Mrs. Jones.

"I Love to Tell the Story," and "Thou My Everlasting Portion" were sung. The devotional was conducted by Mrs. Arthus Jackson, of Hendersonville. She read Scripture selections from Acts 4:36-37, and Acts 11:1-26, her leading thought being, "For He was a good man and full of faith." Mrs. Hoge closed the devotional with prayer.

Minutes of the morning session were read and adopted. Miss Gertrude Mattison, Field Worker, read her report, which was adopted.

REPORT OF W. M. U. FIELD WORKER

Since leaving Johnston Association, where I worked as an associational worker, I have had the privilege of doing State W. M. U. field work. I began this work last September and have enjoyed every phase of the work thoroughly. Even though I have not been able to see great results, the people everywhere have responded beautifully and have seemed very appreciative of the help and suggestions I offered them. Since September I have spent my entire time, with the exception of the month of December, which was spent in the Centennial Campaign office, in the Yancey and Chowan Associations. The superintendents of these associations have worked with me in helping me to make my engagements with the various churches.

My plan of work has been to try to interest and enlist those unenlisted ones in missions and of course to strengthen and help the organized work. A great part of my work has been mission study, for I feel that through the study of an interesting mission study book, people will have their eyes opened to the great needs of the world and they will see as never before the "fields so white to harvest." By seeing these needs they will want to have a part in remedying the conditions now present in the world.

I feel that our most important and lasting work is with the young people and I have tried to emphasize this wherever I have gone. In most of the churches where I have worked I have been able to have a story hour for the children in the afternoons and in this way lead up to the organization of a Sunbeam Band. Surely no effort put forth with the young people can be in vain, for if the seeds of mission interest are planted in their lives while young and cultivated with care, they will blossom forth some day into missionary minded men and women.

Wherever it seemed best I have tried to organize new societies and have in most cases been able to follow up the work by visiting that new society in its first few meetings. It has not been my aim to organize a great number of new societies with no prospects of their living after the first month or so, but to take it more slowly and try if possible to make the work permanent. For my work done from September 1st to March 1st, I wish to make the following statistical report. This, however, really includes only five months, as I was not on the field during the month of December.

Number miles traveled while on the field	500
Number churches visited	26
Number homes visited	39
Number meetings attended	34
Number talks made	22
Number letters written	100
Number mission study classes	28
Number seals awarded	240
Number societies organized	15
Number subscriptions to missionary magazines	30

I appreciate the privilege which has been mine the last few months and trust that in the months to come I shall be able to do even more to spread the missionary interest wherever God calls me to work.

Respectfully submitted,

GERTRUDE MATTISON.

Telegrams from the following were read: Mrs. R. N. Simms, Raleigh; Mrs. Mary Warren Stevens, High Point; Mrs. F. D. Lethco, Charlotte; Miss Addie Sprinkle, of the W. M. U. Training School, for the North Carolina girls at this Institution; Mrs. Anna J. Woodall, Jackson Heights, N. Y.; W. M. S., Weldon.

Mrs. J. J. Roddick, of Winston-Salem, Trustee of the Baptist Hospital, gave her report, which showed progress, and carried with it a note of thanks for the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home, which is now completed. Her report was adopted. After the adoption of the report she spoke of the Hospital, and introduced Miss Anderson, who is Superintendent of Nurses, coming to us recently from Richmond, Va.

REPORT OF BAPTIST HOSPITAL

In every period of dispensation of the world's history God has given some revelation of His will as a test to man; and as we trace the progress of the human race we stand amazed at the power He has bestowed upon man in the fulfillment of that great promise that He should have dominion over land and sea. Today as we stand on the threshold of this great material age and scientific era, we are impressed as never before by the God-given power to man in this day of unlimited resources and unparalleled responsibility. The revelation or the call comes as never before to the nations and people who constitute His Church to "carry on" the great program of service that the Master gave His disciples nearly two thousand years ago, viz.: Teaching, Preaching, and Healing. As we review the ministry of our Great Physician, we are convinced that even with the blessings that scientific research has brought to suffering humanity, yet today as in centuries gone by "The words of life must be spoken by the Eternal Power." Realizing the blessing of God's promise in the work of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital we are grateful to report that 1927 was the greatest year in the history of our Hospital. During the year 2,250 patients came to us and we did our best for them, only 14 out of every thousand died, the others went home benefited or cured.

These sufferers came from every part of the State, afflicted with every known disease, some we could not help and others quietly slipped away to join that "innumerable throng."

But the record is gratifying indeed. We had over 500 charity patients—men, women and children, and young people from the mountains to the sea. Many had no hope and no means for treatment, but the good will of the Hospital expressed in timely service, without money or price. The sacrificial gifts made by our churches on Mother's Day have rendered an untold blessing to suffering humanity; $16,300 came in from the day's efforts to provide for the ministry to health and life. This together with the gift from the Duke Endowment Fund, and some given from the regular operating expenses, enable us to report such a large amount of charity work done. But if we meet increasing demands, we must enlist the loyalty of our Sunday Schools both large and small on Mother's Day.

And now comes the great joy of reporting to you the completion of our Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home. Does it not seem to each one of us today that this is the realization of a beautiful dream? I think we can say with the Psalmist, our "cup runneth over; surely goodness and mercy shall follow us" all our days. As each society has labored so untiringly for the success of our plans. It seems as though the life and gentle spirit of our beloved Blanche Barrus has beckoned us on to enter into larger service for the Master, and in consequence forty-three of our nurses in training in our Hospital, together with a matron, are enjoying the comforts of a home. The Home is everything we could wish in its arrangement and conveniences. We have two splendid living rooms, a sun parlor, and a large porch for the recreation of the girls, also a large lecture room and a splendid storage room and quarters for help in the basement. The large basement which runs along one entire side of the building would make a most excellent gymnasium whenever some one feels inclined to donate the equipment. The rooms provide for two students each and between each two rooms is a bath.

The furniture and carpets are of good quality, a large amount of which was contributed by the women of Winston-Salem. One room was furnished by the Philathea Class of Gastonia.

We cannot fail to express our thanks and gratitude to the W. M. U. for its most generous gifts to this building, for without their loyal cooperation and sacrificial contributions the building would not have been possible for many years. They contributed more than $21,900.00 for the buildings and more than $2,000.00 has been given for furnishings. It was their interest and our assurance of their constant support that gave us the faith and made possible the effort. If we would enter into that larger service for our needy brothers and sisters next year, we would again emphasize the necessity of the cooperation of the women in our Mother's Day offering. As we on this day recall the love and tender memories of one who first loved us, shall we not say,

"Saviour thy dying love thou gavest me
Nor should I aught withold
Dear Lord, from Thee:
In love my soul would bow,
My heart fulfil its vow,
Some off'ring bring Thee now,
Something for Thee."

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. J. J. RODDICK, Trustee.

Mrs. P. C. Brantley, then sang, "O, Christian, the Master is Calling to You."

Mrs. C. W. Trice, a charter member of the Lexington Woman's Missionary Society, and who was present at the organization of our Woman's Missionary Union in Richmond, Va., in 1888, was recognized.

"The Story of a Mountain School," by Miss Martha Sullinger of Fruitland Institute, Hendersonville, followed. Miss Sullinger came to North Carolina in response to a call from our Woman's Missionary Union for volunteer teachers for mountain schools.

A report of the Margaret Educational Fund was read by Mrs. R. N. Barber of Waynesville, for Mrs. T. M. Pittman. The report carried with it a recommendation that the support of this fund be turned over to the Junior Organizations, and was adopted.

REPORT OF THE MARGARET FUND

From a page of the February issue of Royal Service there smiles the sweet face of the mother for whom the Margaret Fund is named and in whose memory the original gift of $10,500.00 was made. We are familiar with the story of this fund. Given by Mrs. Frank Chambers of New York, it was first invested in a Home for Missionaries' Children. Later conditions made it wise to convert the Home into a Fund, the interest of which should be used for the higher education of missionaries' children.

So well was the re-investment of the money handled by the Woman's Missionary Union, and so gladly have additions been made during the years since 1904, that the fund now has interest-bearing investments amounting to $42,000.00. During these twenty-three years, the Union has contributed $108,981.76, first in support of the Home, and later for scholarships. Up to 1927, four hundred and seventy-seven scholarships had been granted. As the $200.00 proved inadequate, the scholarship has been raised to $300.00.

This year North Carolina has been assigned only three Margaret Fund students, but two other college students have a special claim on our affections. The three assigned us are Reba Lowe at Mars Hill, Alexander Herring at State College, and Edwin Dozier at Wake Forest. Edwin is the son of the first Sunbeam Missionary from North Carolina. The two college boys not under the Fund are: William Carey Newton, son of Dr. W. C. Newton of China; the other, Arthur Hayes, son of Dr. C. A. Hayes of China, so long the special North Carolina Sunbeam Missionary. Through the loving interest of Missionary Societies, boxes have been sent to these young people this year.

Contributions to the Margaret Fund have, for the past few years been made under the head of W. M. U. Specials. But this is not proving as satisfactory as the former plan of assigning it as the special work of the Young Peoples' Organizations. It is, therefore, recommended that this fund again be assigned to the Junior Societies.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. THOMAS M. PITTMAN, N. C. Member Margaret Fund Committee.

The chair recognized Rev. W. R. Beach, who spoke briefly for the Biblical Recorder.

A motion was made and carried that a telegram be sent to Mrs. Walter M. Gilmore, Recording Secretary, who was prevented from being present because of sickness. The Secretary was requested to send this telegram.

This closing the business of the afternoon session, we were dismissed with prayer by Rev. Walter M. Gilmore.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

The service opened with Mrs. Jones presiding. "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty," was sung.

The devotional was led by Miss Emma Leachman, who took as her topic John 18:4—"Jesus, therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth." Miss Leachman closed her devotional with prayer.

Special music by the choir—"I Heard the Voice of Jesus."

A motion was made to send a telegram to Dr. J. F. Love, Secretary of Foreign Missions, who is ill in a hospital in Richmond, Va.

Messages from our missionaries consumed the rest of the evening. As always these messages bring those of us in the homeland a new vision, and just at this time a sense of shame, since we have failed to hold our end of the rope. Those speaking were Mrs. D. W. Herring, Miss Alda Grayson, Mrs. S. E. Ayers, Miss Rose Marlowe, Mrs. M. L. Braun, Miss Naomi Schell, and Mrs. M. T. Rankin. Mrs. L. B. Olive and Mrs. V. P. Green, were not strong, both having recently been in the hospital. "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung by Mrs. M. L. Braun. Following the messages from the missionaries, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" was sung and we were dismissed by Dr. Charles E. Maddry.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 8

The morning service was opened by singing, "All the Way My Saviour Leads Me." Mrs. B. F. Bray, of Wadesboro, led the devotional. She read a part of the 15th chapter of John, "If ye abide in me," being the leading thought. Prayer in the Christian's life was emphasized. Prayer was offered by Mrs. H. M. Finch, of Rocky Mount.

Minutes were read and adopted. Reports of Divisional Superintendents followed. Mrs. A. E. Hampton, reported for the Asheville Division. Mrs. H. M. Finch, reported for the Elizabeth City Division. The Wilmington Division was reported by Miss Macy Cox. The Greensboro Division was reported by Mrs. C. L. Haywood, in the absence of Mrs. T. M. Pittman, Superintendent of the Division. The Charlotte Division was reported by Miss Alda Grayson, Mrs. T. B. Henry, Superintendent of the Division not being in the State at this time. These reports were adopted.

REPORT OF ASHEVILLE DIVISION

It is with a heart full of love and gratitude to Almighty God for the wonderful blessings He has bestowed upon us during the year 1927, that I bring this annual report to this Convention. All has not been accomplished that we had hoped for but through the faithful and loyal efforts of our splendid Associational Superintendents, we feel that we have gone forward along certain lines of our work. Some very splendid Associational meetings were held during the year and these were full of inspiration and information for the large number of our women who attended. It was a great joy to have with us at most of these meetings, Miss Emma Leachman, Field Worker of our Home Mission Board, and Mrs. Edna R. Harris, our beloved State Corresponding Secretary. Their messages were very inspiring and helpful.

The Divisional Meeting held at Brevard in May was largely attended by the women from the fifteen Associations comprising this Division. It was our pleasure to have with us for a fine address, Rev. Milton L. Braun, of China.

An incomplete report of the work done by the Division shows a marked increase in the number of subscriptions to our mission magazines and in the number of seals and awards given, which we are glad to report as 1,223; also, in the number of Seasons of Prayer held. It is very gratifying to note the increase in the number of new societies organized, both Woman's Missionary Societies and our Junior Organizations. This goes to show that a great number of our societies have heard "The Master's Call" to enlistment and organizing new societies during our Ruby Anniversary Year. May we all more fully realize that the call is to each one of us to do our very best in enlisting all our women and young people who are not in this great work of evangelizing the world. This step forward along all lines of our work should not satisfy us but be a great inspiration to press forward as never before with more zeal and determination for larger service during this year. Individual and Organized Personal Service is claiming the attention of our women to a greater degree and some of our Associations are doing some very splendid work along this line.

It is also a great joy to report an increase in the total contributions for the Division for 1927, which amount to $20,572.21.

Our Divisional Meeting will be held in Murphy this year and it is hoped that all who possibly can will attend.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. A. E. HAMPTON.

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

It's a very sacred privilege to me to even attempt to bring to this Convention something of the spirit, something of the work and something of the sacrifice of the women of this Division. The real work, the real spirit, the self denials are recorded up there and will only be reported when the seal is broken of the Lamb's Book of Life, and so I bring you greetings from the host of women that comprise our four Associations: Roanoke, with Mrs. E. B. Beasley as Superintendent; Neuse-Atlantic, Mrs. R. N. Scott, Superintendent; Chowan, Mrs. E. F. Aydlett, Superintendent; West Chowan, Miss Una White, Superintendent.

The work as reported by the various Superintendents is having a remarkable growth along all lines. Most of the counties are organized with efficient leaders, holding meetings from one to four times a year. These meetings are in vital touch with the local societies and are largely attended, some carrying their lunches so that the small and weak societies may have the helpful benefit of these meetings. Each county in the West Chowan Association gives a scholarship in Chowan College, supports a Bible woman, and the Association supports a missionary in China.

Chowan held an Associational Camp, July 18-23, on the Virginia Baptist Assembly grounds with an enrollment of 59 besides visitors, with Miss Dorothy Kellam in charge, assisted by Rev. Edward B. Willingham of Richmond. Seven classes were held daily; 38 certificates were awarded and 91 seals.

Roanoke reports an increase of 40 per cent of points on the Standard of Excellence with remarkable personal service work?—ministerial students helped through college, county homes, hospitals and jails visited. Roanoke made nine points on the Association Standard.

The Neuse-Atlantic is growing by leaps and bounds in many departments of the work. Three of the Associations met their financial goal—Neuse-Atlantic, Chowan, and West Chowan. More are giving their tenth to God, more are giving their lives in Personal Service, more are studying missions, more taking the periodicals, more observing the Seasons of Prayer and more are becoming efficient workers.

The growth has been marvelous in the training of leaders throughout the Division—68 new societies have been organized. God be praised for every individual member, for every neighborhood chairman, for every local president, for every county officer and for our consecrated Superintendents. Our Divisional Meeting will be held the early part of June with the Greenville Memorial Church, date to be announced later.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. M. FINCH.

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION

In bringing the report of the Wilmington Division, we say with the Psalmist—"Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: ff I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered." Through His wonderful power and blessings, this report is made possible.

Bladen Association, Mrs. W. O. Biggs, Superintendent, reports great improvement in observance of Seasons of Prayer, and reaching a higher standard in general work. Tar Heel Church in Bladen Association has five grades of W. M. U. work, all A-1 societies in 1927. The Association made 9 points on Standard of Excellence and reached financial aim.

Brunswick, with Mrs. B. R. Page, Superintendent, reports much personal service work, and has already gone above apportionment for new societies for Ruby Anniversary. Miss Ora Lee Parker, not a Brunswick girl, is at Training School on their Mary Ward scholarship. They made 7 points on Associational Standard, but did not reach aim.

Cape Fear-Columbus, Mrs. J. T. McKenzie, Superintendent, reached aim, made 8 points on Standard of Excellence, and reports work going forward in organizing new societies and Personal Service.

Eastern, Miss Macy Cox, Superintendent twenty years in January, 1928, reached aim, made 9 points on Standard of Excellence, leads the Division in number with seven churches having five grades W. M. U. work, and in members of societies 1,482, completed payment for furnishing room in Seminary, and supports one kindergarten school in China. One Vacation Bible School was held in Rose Hill Church. We held a rally meeting in January to make reports and plans for the year. We voted to have it annually.

Johnston, under the leadership of Mrs. B. A. Hocutt, made 10 points and are A-1, leads in mission study classes, seals and record cards. They report more intelligent interest in mission work and greater Personal Service than any previous year.

Little River, Miss Mattie Bain, Superintendent, made 8 points on Standard of Excellence, and reported progress in young people's work. Miss Foy O'Quinn is a student at the W. M. U. Training School, Louisville, on Mrs. Joel Layton's scholarship. They did not meet their financial aim.

New South River, Mrs. I. N. Kimbrough, Superintendent, made 8 points on Standard of Excellence, reports improvement in observance of Seasons of Prayer, mission study and personal service. Did not reach aim.

Robeson, Mrs. A. H. McLeod, Superintendent, reports Association well grouped, and doing constructive work. Leads in number societies, 102. Made 9 points on Standard of Excellence and met aim.

Wilmington, Mrs. H. F. Brinson, new Superintendent, reports much Personal Service work, 8 points on Standard, Association divided into groups, and leads the Division in tithers, 200. Did not meet aim.

The untiring faithful Superintendents and co-workers eagerly desire to go forward and reach the goal of the Ruby Anniversary.

It was my pleasure to attend the annual meeting of the Wilmington Association. We were fortunate to have our Stewardship Chairman, Mrs. Abbie Bonsteel of Buie's Creek, attend five Associational meetings, and conducted Stewardship Conference at Buie's Creek.

This Division has 336 churches, 180 W. M. S., 42 Y. W. A., 59 G. A., 46 R. A., 134 Sunbeam Bands; total, 470 societies, with membership of 6,290; 728 tithers; 134 mission study classes; total contributions for the year, $36,497.62.

Our women were enthusiastic in the Centennial Campaign. The Divisional meeting for the year was held in Dunn the last week in January.

May we realize that if we put "first things first" and give of our best to the Master, we can accomplish the great things we have undertaken for Him.

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX.

REPORT OF THE GREENSBORO DIVISION

The Greensboro Division held its annual meeting with the Watts Street Church, Durham, May 31, 1927. Though the meeting had to be hurriedly arranged, there was a good attendance, and a program of much interest carried out. The Ruby Anniversary plan had just been adopted by the General Union, and Mrs. W. N. Jones presented it to the Division and explained its purposes.

That Mrs. Jones' message had its effect may be seen from the work of the Associations of the Division. Most encouraging is the report from Division as shown in the figures from the Treasurer's book. The amount given last year was $76,067.83. This year, $80,697.46, a gain of $4,629.83, this amount also being above the apportionment.

Of the eight Associations of the Division, five made an increase in their contributions. The largest was from the Mt. Zion, $2,910.00; the second largest from the Central, $2,248.00; the third, the Piedmont, $937.00. The Beulah made a fine gain of $264.00; the Tar River, $217.00.

In standard societies there is growth also. The Division has 84 A-1 societies; 29 in class B; 38 in class C; and 35 in class D. The Piedmont has the largest number in the list, and also the largest number of A-1. The Mount Zion comes next with 20 A-1 societies, but the Tar River has more in all classes.

The greatest advance of the year has been made in the organization of societies. No doubt there are new ones that have not yet reported, but in the number reporting there is an increase of 84. These are from each of the eight Associations, which means that cultivation has not only been intensive but general as well. The report shows 28 more from the Tar River; 14 more from the Mount Zion and the same from the Flat River; 8 more from the Beulah and from the Piedmont; 7 from the Sandy Creek; 6 from the Raleigh; and 3 from the Central.

Reports have been made of 123 Mission Study Classes, and the seals awarded number 2,155.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. THOMAS M. PITTMAN.

REPORT OF CHARLOTTE DIVISION

As I watch the white-capped waves of the ocean, which bathe the shores of the Land of Flowers, and listen to the moaning of the sea, my thoughts speed away to the dearly beloved sisters of our W. M. U. of North Carolina now in session at Asheville, "in the Land of the Sky." My prayer for you is that your spiritual heights may far transcend your geographical elevation. The Charlotte Division held its annual session this year in the beautiful mountain city of Lenoir. We were blessed with four missionaries: Dr. H. H. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Ware, and our own Miss Grayson, who left us seven years ago to be a nurse in the Kathleen Mallory Hospital, China. Mrs. W. N. Jones also honored us with her presence and brought vividly before us our task. The Division unanimously pledged to undertake the year's work as presented and it gives us gratitude and pleasure to bring to this Convention the following report.

We have greatly increased in mission study this year receiving 2,498 seals. The Association leading was Pee Dee, which was awarded the W. A. Smith Memorial banner for mission study. Our young people of the Union Association, led by Mrs. F. F. Shore, received 633 mission study certificates. Total number of study classes, 187. Scholarships were given Wingate Junior College, Mountain View Institute, and aid given the South Mountain Industrial Institute.

No agency is doing more for the permanence and spread of the work of God on earth than our Christian schools. Again the Charlotte Division leads the State in contributions, giving this year to State, Home, and Foreign Missions, $89,119.08. The first week in June the Division will meet in Shelby, a city noted for its preachers, the Dixons; its judges, the Webbs; and missionaries, the Bostics. Come with us and we will do thee good.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. T. B. HENRY.

A motion was made by Mrs. R. L. Hardison, of Wadesboro, to send flowers to Dr. J. F. Love. Carried. "He Leadeth Me" was sung.

Mrs. Harris, after presenting the details of the Ruby Anniversary introduced Mrs. Carter Wright, of Roanoke, Ala., who is chairman of the Ruby Anniversary for the Woman's Missionary Union of the South, and who spoke on "If I Had Only Known." A motion to recognize this splendid address by standing was made by Mrs. H. M. Finch.

Mrs. P. C. Brantley gave us another beautiful solo, "Is He Satisfied With Me?"

REPORT OF RUBY ANNIVERSARY CHAIRMAN

Since the 1927 meeting of the Southern Union in Louisville last May you have been hearing, reading of and preparing for our Ruby Anniversary year. It is here and we are now entering upon the fortieth year of our organized W. M. U. work.

Enlistment has been sounded as the keynote of the year, and as a worthy effort in that line our aims are:

Forty per cent increase in the number of Woman's Missionary Societies:

Forty per cent increase in young people's organizations;

Forty thousand new members in existing organizations;

Four million dollars in gifts for 1928, for the whole Southern Union.

North Carolina's part in this great aim will be 938 new organizations of all grades, and 4,000 new members in societies already existing. We shall try to enlist every woman and child who is not in definite service for our Master. We are to try to organize missionary societies and young people's organizations where there are none. At first hearing our aims you may feel they are too high, but when you think of the 913 churches in North Carolina with no missionary organization and the 84,379 of unenlisted women and young people we must admit that the challenge is ours to change these figures as our Ruby Anniversary service.

There is given the legend of the golden ball. It is said there was let down from heaven, at noon each day, a golden ball, and the promise went forth that whoever touched the ball should receive a blessing. The people gathered from day to day, and each succeeding day the crowd grew larger. The ball was always just a little out of reach, and it was discovered that it was steadily ascending as the days went by. The people fought and strove to touch the ball, but to no avail. Finally, when the blessing was about to be lost a wise old saint cried, "If no one can reach the ball, let us build a human pyramid and lift a child and it shall touch the magic ball." This was done, and as the tiny finger touched the golden ball a thrill went through that pyramid of souls and all received the coveted blessing, because childhood had been lifted up.

The child would never have touched the golden ball nor the blessing been received had not human hands lifted him up. So our young people with us will miss the blessing of service if we fail to lift them up to see the "fields white unto the harvest." Lift in the Sunbeam Band, lift in the Girls' Auxiliary, lift in the Royal Ambassador Chapter, lift in the Young Woman's Auxiliary!

Our part of the financial goal is $401,600.00. It may seem high, and it is; but it is only North Carolina's proportionate part of the goal set by our W. M. U. of the South. We are more prepared to reach our aim than the other states because the effort to relieve our schools and colleges of debt has been put before most of our Associations and will soon be completed, and the gifts of our women to this Centennial Education Fund should be reported each quarter in the space provided on the report blanks. That amount, if the societies will report it, in addition to the 10 per cent increase in gifts to regular objects which we normally count on every society making, will go far towards reaching our $401,600.00 during 1928. As it is we never get any report from many societies and a great many who do report send in very incomplete reports. May I not urge every woman here to lend us her aid in securing full reports of all gifts made by our women and young people.

The smallest as well as the biggest movement ever started did not end in success unless some time and thought were put into it. Time and thought, labor and expense, have been put into the Centennial Campaign, and the W. M. U. is solidly standing behind the movement. Adapting Nelson's famous expression to this occasion we say "North Carolina W. M. U. expects every woman to do her duty" now.

The Ruby Anniversary program, which includes our Centennial Educational plans, should occupy a large place in the heart and life of every loyal W. M. U. worker. If we give this program right of way in all our meetings, and if we work diligently to reach the goals, then victory will be ours and the effect of the Ruby Anniversary will be felt not only throughout our State, and the Southland, but to the ends of the earth.

In our plans there is a place for every one, and we crave the help of those unable to share in the active work in church or society. For them, through the Intercessory Prayer League for Shut-ins, of which Mrs. J. H. Dew, Ridgecrest, is Chairman, there is an inestimable work and we urge every shut-in to join, and to feel that here is a definite work for our Union, and one upon which we depend for success—prayer.

Every one has so eagerly entered into the plans that we feel encouraged to say with Joshua of old, "We can go up and possess the land."

Each Association has been given its quota and may each one go home to do her part. Let there be no laggards in the Master's service.

EDNA R. HARRIS, Ruby Anniversary Chairman.

Report of Personal Service was made by Mrs. Charles E. Maddry, of Raleigh, who is chairman of Personal Service Committee. Her report showed more work done in an organized way. This report was adopted.

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT

Personal Service cannot be expressed in figures. A statistical report can hardly do more than indicate the trend of the work, and show how the efforts of the individual workers throughout the State, when counted together, reveal a far-reaching movement of helpfulness, of enlistment, and of soul-winning.

From year to year we see a growing urge to share means time and Christian experience with others, and we learn a little better how to be His witnesses.

This Ruby Anniversary year will see our women, girls and boys going out to bring in new members in large numbers, even out into the highways and hedges to find those who have never heeded the King's invitation to His feast. Along with the ministry to the suffering, the shut-ins, the needy, will be this concentrated effort to bring hundreds into our W. M. U. where they too shall hear the challenge—"The master is come and calleth for thee."

In addition, time fails to tell of the varied ministries to the sick, securing medical attention, providing medicine, hospital expenses, nurses; brightness brought to shut-in lives by song services, sunshine baskets, showers of every imaginable kind; young people directed in their social life; unnumbered ways of helping the local church situation; the widow and the orphan visited in their affliction, befriended, and encouraged; school and college attendance made possible for ambitious girls and boys; a more abundant life, physical, social, and spiritual brought to thousands throughout our State.

Dr. Charles E. Maddry gave us an address on the "Woman's Missionary Union and the Centennial Campaign." The address was based on "And Thou mayest add thereto."

After announcements Dr. Charles E. Maddry pronounced the benediction.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The service was opened by singing "Have Thine Own Way." The devotional was led by Mrs. L. L. Vann of Mars Hill. Prayer by Mrs. S. E. Ayers.

A report of the W. M. U. Training School was read by Mrs. T. E. Walters, of Rocky Mount, President of Alumnæ Association, for Mrs. R. N. Simms, Trustee of the Training School for North Carolina. The report was adopted.

REPORT OF BAPTIST WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION TRAINING SCHOOL

When making the report of our Training School last year, I told you that a new departure had been made—in that all recitations were to be in House Beautiful rather than at the Seminary, as had been the case before the Seminary moved out to its new home. This year I'm glad to be able to tell you that the school officers have found the plan most satisfactory. In smaller classes the girls do better work for they can have more individual attention. A great deal of time is saved by not having to dress for the street or walk to and from the Seminary, allowing more time for sleep in the morning and for study. The lack of the usual epidemic of colds and grippe is also attributed to the students not having to go out in all kinds of weather.

The new department of Christian Education provided by the Sunday School Board has been greatly appreciated, as has the thorough secretarial course started last year. The eighteen young women who took it found that the knowledge of stenography was quite a help to them in securing positions.

The splendid new building at the Good Will Center has enabled Miss Littlejohn and her assistants to do the very best work in the history of the school and has proven even more a blessing to the community.

On the occasion of the 20th anniversary of the school the Executive Committee, trustees, Margaret Fund chairmen and secretaries and Field Worker's Council gave lovely new china for all the tables in the dining room. On many occasions gifts of turkeys, chickens, hams, oysters, cakes, nuts, preserves, canned fruit, fresh fruit and vegetables have been sent from all over the South. These gifts not only help financially but gladden the hearts of the girls and faculty because of the love prompting them.

Delightful visitors to the school have been Mrs. W. J. Cox, Miss Mallory, Miss Mather, Miss Leachman, and Miss Annie Williams. They charmed the girls both with their messages and themselves. During commencement at Convention time, all were overjoyed to have Mrs. Eager and Mrs. McLure back, together with many of the trustees and alumnæ.

Last year I reported that North Carolina led all other states in the number of girls in attendance, and this year, I am glad to say, I can make the same report. The hearts of our women should rejoice that this is true.

In the face of the fact that our boards have not been able to send out missionaries, there were nineteen girls last summer who applied for entrance. This is evidence, my dear friends, that our W. M. U. work in our churches and colleges is touching the hearts and lives of our girls. Not all of the nineteen could go. Sickness prevented some and there was not enough money for all.

Already more applications are in for next year than we have any reasonable hope to send unless unlooked for contributions come in. What are we going to do about it?

We have always been proud of our Training School fund but this year we have a deficit. Surely we do not love our school any less, and I believe that when we go back home we will make it possible for our girls to have this wonderful training.

Our total contribution last year for the school amounted to $3,717.71, which left us a deficit of $980.00. In addition to the $980.00 we will need $3,400.00 for next year.

Let us bear this in mind and determine that we will wipe this debt out, and also send our usual contribution for those who wish to go next year.

A few days ago an application came from a girl who has spent six years preparing herself for medical mission work. She feels that a course at the Training School now is all she needs to make her ready for the foreign field.

Shall we have to say no to such a girl as this?

There are others like her—anxious and waiting to go.

Trusting that you will present this need to your societies and have a fine program and collection for your Training School.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS, North Carolina Trustee.

The Plan of Work was presented and after discussion adopted.

PLAN OF WORK

1. Realizing the importance of a unified Plan of Work and desiring to co-operate as fully as possible with the Woman's Missionary Union Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, we recommend that all societies follow the Plan of Work adopted by the Union and sent to each society in the Year Book.

2. Believing that the future of our mission work depends on relieving the indebtedness of our Convention, we would urge that all of our women enter most heartily into the plans of the Centennial Committee to pay off this large indebtedness by 1930, the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Convention. To this end we ask that all of our members contribute as largely as possible and aid in soliciting gifts from others.

3. That as this is the Ruby Anniversary of the organization of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, and plans have been made to celebrate this fortieth anniversary by an increase of 10 per cent in the membership of existing societies, by a 40 per cent increase in organizations and a gift of $4,000,000.00, we endeavor to reach our proportionate part of these aims; an increase in membership of 4,000, an increase in organizations of 928, and a gift of $401,600.00.

All money given by our women and young people to the Centennial Fund and reported to our W. M. U. Treasurer will count on our Ruby Anniversary gift.

- 4. That the Heck Memorial Fund be given to Meredith College.
- 5. That we urge Y. W. A. girls and leaders, also R. A.'s, to profit by the Southwide Camps at Ridgecrest, June 15-22, and that each Associational Young People's Leader make a special effort to reach all societies through special associational camps for G. A's. and R. A's.
- 6. That we accept our quota of the fund appropriated to the Woman's Missionary Union by the Sunday School Board at Nashville, Tennessee, for field work, plans for this work to be made by the Corresponding Secretary and the Divisional and Associational Superintendents in the territory in which the work is to be done. An amount equal to that appropriated by the Board is to be given in the locality requesting this aid or by the General Board.
- 7. That we continue to meet a part of our expenses by a gift from each society during the month of May, our aim for this fund the present year to be $2,000.00.
- 8. That we urge our societies to make their contributions according to the printed blanks for reports, the gifts each quarter to be for Co-operative Program, Centennial Fund and the Special Offerings for that quarter as specified on the blank; all Society, Associational and State reports to run according to the calendar year.

- 9. That we observe Monday, September 3, as a day of prayer for State Missions, and that a part of the program of the society for that day be given to our Educational Work. That the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering and the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions be observed the first week in December; the Week of Prayer for Home Missions with its special offering the first week in March; and that the first week in January be observed as a Week of Prayer for World-wide Missions, no offering to be taken at this time, no program sent out from W. M. U. Headquarters, but special effort being made to enlist as many as possible in an observance of a Week of Prayer.
- 10. That as all gifts for Woman's Missionary Union Training School at Louisville, Kentucky, Margaret Educational Fund for children of our missionaries, and Sunday School Board Bible Fund are reported by the W. M. Union of Southern Baptist Convention as W. M. U. Specials, we take as our apportionment for this fund:

To	Current Expenses, W. M. U. Training
	School at Louisville, Ky	$1,800.00
To	Margaret Educational Fund	650.00
To	Bible Fund Sunday School Board	250.00
To	Deficit W. M. U. Specials, 1927	980.00
	Total	2 680 00

That the scholarship fund for the W. M. U. Training School, including the Louis Castleberry Scholarship, be $1,600.00.

That this $5,280.00 be apportioned to the five Divisions as follows:

Asheville Division$	400.00
Charlotte Division	1,800.00
Greensboro Division	1,600.00
Elizabeth City Division	900.00
Wilmington Division	580.00
Total $	5,280,00

11. That we take as our goal for this Ruby Anniversary Year, 1928, $401,600.00:

First quarter, (January, February, March)	3100,000.00
Second quarter, (April, May, June)	95,000.00
Third quarter, (July, August, September)	90,600.00
Fourth quarter, (October, November, December)	116,000.00

This amount, which includes all gifts to the Co-operative Program, Special Offerings, Orphanage, and Centennial Fund, to be the goal which our Associational Superintendents shall set before their respective Associations.

The Memorial service was held at this time. The audience stood while Mrs. Edna R. Harris read the names of those of our number who had been called home during the past year, and Mrs. P. C. Brantley sang, "Sunset and Evening Star."

An address, "Harvesting in the Homeland," presenting the work of the Home Mission Board, was given by Miss Emma Leachman, Field Worker of our Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Ga. A motion to rise in recognition of Miss Leachman's address was carried.

Reports from the various committees followed. Miss Wynona Chaney, Chairman of the Time and Place Committee, submitted the following:

TIME AND PLACE

Your Committee on Time and Place unanimously recommend that we accept the most cordial invitation extended to the Woman's Missionary Union to meet with the churches of High Point, in their annual meeting, 1929.

The meetings are to be held in the beautiful new Green Street Church, and the time, March 5, 6, 7, 1929.

WYNONA CHANEY, Durham,
MRS. E. T. POE, Star,
MISS GERTRUDE STREET, Shelby,
MRS. J. G. MURRAY, Sylva,
MRS. R. C. MACON, Harrellsville,
MRS. M. M. GORDAN, Spencer,
MRS. S. M. COMBS, Columbia,
MRS. J. L. GRIFFIN, Sanford,
MRS. S. N. WATSON, Bladenboro,
MRS. J. G. JOHNSTON, Charlotte.

A telegram from the High Point Chamber of Commerce, and Civic Clubs, giving emphasis to the invitation to meet in their city in 1929, was read. Green Street Church, High Point, through its delegate, also brought an urgent invitation.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was presented by Mrs. J. Ben Eller, Statesville, Chairman of this Committee. On motion this report was adopted with a rising vote of thanks.

RESOLUTIONS

We, the delegates and visitors to the twenty-eighth annual meeting of the North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union wish to express our sincere appreciation for the gracious hospitality extended us by our Asheville friends.

Truly, we have come up into the mountain and been blessed with a feast of good things, both spiritual and material. To be specific, allow us to live over again, this moment, with you the stirring address of Dr. J. Clyde Turner on our "Expectant Christ" and we pray for power to win all "His Enemies." May a "Chance to Know" be the privilege of every woman in North Carolina W. M. U. because of God's womanly messenger, Mrs. Carter Wright, and may we share the common burden with her on our knees.

We thank Mrs. Chester Brown and her efficient co-laborers, whether of the First Church or of the community, for their untiring generosity and cordial courtesy. We feel that in Mrs. Hanby's response we recognize the golden thoughts of all of our hearts woven into a classic of truth and sweetness.

We have felt the uplifting power of the special music by the choir and by Mrs. P. C. Brantley. The devotionals have lodged in our hearts to spring up again in a bettered Christian experience. We appreciate the messages of Mrs. Taul White, Miss Martha Sullinger, Miss Emma Leachman, Miss Juliette Mather, and Dr. Charles Maddry, our distinguished visitors. Only eternity will reveal to them the fineness of their sowing in our varied hearts.

May we, also, mention our continued warm affection for our State officers and leaders and show our appreciation of their speeches and reports by going home and living up to our new vision of Christ, of men, and of things. We crave a more perfect growth in grace in all our endeavors whether we harvest in the Homeland or sow in Foreign Fields.

Our missionaries have humbled us by their stories of self-denial in contrast to our own shortcomings; yet they have lifted us up to hope for a greater cooperation on the part of our people to bring in the Kingdom with ceaseless prayers and labors. Our arms embrace in love and gratitude Mrs. D. W. Herring, Mrs. S. E. Ayers, Mrs. Valeria P. Green, Miss Rose Marlowe, Miss Naomi Schell, Miss Alda Grayson, Mrs. L. B. Olive, Mrs. M. T. Rankin, and Mrs. Milton Braun and we commit them to the Father's care for a sustained usefulness and the more loyal support of those whom they represent.

We pray the Lord to prosper our young people's work and leader and pray that as our children grow, the "Golden Chains" may hold them at safe anchorage in eternal joy.

We commend the exemplary endeavors of Mrs. John Wacaster of Kings Mountain and her fine Association in again taking the Banner for high standard in Christian service and call others to emulate their zeal for attainment.

Among the serving agencies, we especially thank the Press, Luncheon Committee, and the Chamber of Commerce for their necessary and efficient ministry. We record our appreciation for the soulful organ recital and courtesies shown us at Grove Park Inn, the sight-seeing trips, and especially the excursion to our much beloved Mars Hill College. The beauty of the hills and the changing mutations of the Heavens show forth the glory of our God.

Finally, we rejoice with this great congregation of God's workmen in their matchless and beautiful temple of worship and pray that in the years to come all offerings of self, time, and talent brought here and offered to our indulgent Heavenly Father be acceptable to Him and may the sweet smelling sacrifices be always pleasing to the King whom we delight to serve.

Therefore, be it resolved:

First, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of this organization; second, that a copy be given publicity in the papers of this city.

The session closed with a devotional hour led by Mrs. D. W. Herring, of Chengchow, China.

THURSDAY EVENING

The evening service opened with Miss Dorothy Kellam, Young People's Leader, presiding. Miss Kellam conducted the opening devotional, using as her subject, "Golden Chains." Mrs. W. J. Francis, Gastonia, led in prayer. "More Holiness Give Me" was sung by students from Mars Hill College. A demonstration, "The Window," was given by girls representing our colleges.

The Young People's Banner was won by the Mount Zion Association, being presented by Mrs. Jo. H. Weathers of Raleigh, and accepted by Mrs. G. E. Ross, of Durham.

The work of the camps was presented by Miss Linnie Maud Fuller, of Fruitland Institute.

Miss Juliette Mather, Secretary of Young People's Work for the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to Southern Baptist Convention, made the address of the evening, using as her theme, "And the Child Grew."

The President stated that unless there was objection, the minutes of the evening session would be referred to the Executive Committee for approval. Motion was made to adjourn, and after singing the Doxology, the benediction was pronounced and the President declared the thirty-eighth session of Woman's Missionary Union adjourned to meet in High Point, March 5-7, 1929.

MRS. WESLEY N. JONES,

President.

BLANCHE BARRUS NURSES' HOME

The Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home at Winston-Salem was dedicated on Friday, March 9, with Mrs. W. N. Jones, President of the Woman's Missionary Union, presiding.

The exercises were opened with a song by the nurses, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," and Dr. S. H. Templeman of Brown Memorial Church offered prayer. Rev. G. T. Lumpkin, Superintendent of the Baptist Hospital, made a brief talk on "Our Need for A Nurses' Home." Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Trustee of the Hospital, representing the Woman's Missionary Union, spoke on "The Woman's Missionary Union and the Nurses' Home." Mrs. Jones then presented Dr. R. T. Vann, Secretary of Department of Benevolence, Baptist State Convention, who made the dedication address and Dr. J. R. Jester, pastor First Church, Winston-Salem, offered the dedicatory prayer.

Copies of the addresses, a Bible, the Woman's Missionary Union Minutes, and local papers were placed in the corner stone, and the keys of the building were presented to Mr. E. L. Davis, chairman of the Board of Trustees, by Mrs. Jones. Resolutions of thanks by the trustees were read by Mr. Davis. The exercises were concluded by singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" and a benediction by Dr. Livingston Johnson, Editor of Biblical Recorder.

Constitution

PREAMBLE

We, the women of the Baptist churches of North Carolina, desirous of stimulating the missionary spirit and the grace of giving among the women and children of the churches, and of aiding in the collection of funds for missionary purposes to be disbursed by the State Mission Board and the Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention, adopt the following Constitution:

ARTICLE I

Name

This organization shall be known as the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention.

Object

The object shall be threefold: (1) To stimulate a broader religious development on the part of the Baptist women and girls of the State, to train the children in Christian work, and enlist all in active personal endeavor for the salvation of those in their own communities. (2) To receive and distribute missionary information, to stimulate effort to encourage the organization of Missionary Societies and Bands among the women, young people and children. (3) To encourage the earnest, systematic cooperation of women and children in contributing money for missions at home and abroad.

ARTICLE III

Officers

Section 1. The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents; one located at W. M. U. Headquarters and one from the State at large, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, a Recording Secretary, a Young People's Leader, a Mission Study Superintendent, and an Editor; who, together with sixteen ladies residing in or near Raleigh, shall form the Executive Committee.

Election

Sec. 2. These officers and sixteen ladies, who, together with them compose the Executive Committee, shall be annually elected on the last day of the Annual Session after nominations by a Nominating Committee, composed of ten members, two from each division; this committee being elected from the floor.

ARTICLE IV

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Union shall decide.

ARTICLE V

Representatives at Annual Meeting

Those entitled to membership in the Annual Meeting shall be the officers of the Union, Executive Committee, the Divisional Superintendents, the Associational Superintendents, five representatives from the entertaining society, with one representative from a society, provided no church has more than three delegates. Only such delegates as are personally present and duly accredited by the Union shall be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE VI

Conduct of Meeting

Every session of the Union shall be opened and closed with religious exercises.

ARTICLE VII

Program

The program shall be arranged by the Executive Committee in conference with the committee of the society with which the Annual Meeting is held.

ARTICLE VIII

Amendments

This Constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any Annual Meeting, one month's previous notice of proposed change having been given through the Executive Committee.

By-Laws

- 1. President—The President shall preside at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union and all meetings of the Executive Committee, shall appoint all committees not otherwise provided for, and shall be ex-officio member of all standing committees. She shall also be the State Vice-President of the Southern Woman's Missionary Union and shall endeavor to keep the State work in line with the plans of the General Union. She may, through the Recording Secretary, call special meetings of the Executive Committee when in her judgment needed, or at the request of five members of said Committee.
- 2. Vice-Presidents The First Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, preside at monthly meetings of Executive Committee, and at the Annual Meeting of the Union. In the event that the First Vice-President cannot assume these duties, they fall upon the Second Vice-President.
- 3. Corresponding Secretary The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Union, present reports of the condition of the work at the Annual Meeting, keep a record book as a source of information, organize societies, send out blanks for quarterly reports, conduct the W. M. U. Department of the State denominational paper, and attend to other business usual to the office.
- 4. Treasurer—It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to keep an accurate account of all money contributed to missions by societies to objects included in the annual program, when reported to her through receipts signed by the church treasurer, or sent direct to her. She shall make out a quarterly report at the close of each quarter, and an annual report to be submitted to the Woman's Missionary Union Annual Meetings. She shall keep an account of the receipts and disbursements of all money sent to her for special Woman's Missionary Union funds, and render quarterly and annual reports of same.
- 5. Recording Secretary—The Recording Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the annual and special meetings of the Woman's Missionary Union. She shall also notify officers of their election and committees of their appointment, and shall perform other duties usual to her office.
- 6. Young People's Leader—The Young People's Leader and College Correspondent shall have general oversight of the Junior organizations of the Woman's Missionary Union and with the cooperation of pastors, superintendents, and officers of societies, shall organize our young people for efficient, systematic mission work. She shall conduct a column relative to Young People's work in the State denominational paper.

- 7. Divisional Superintendents—The Divisional Superintendents shall have general supervision of the Associations in their respective Divisions, keeping in touch with the Associational Superintendents and aiding them in every way possible. They shall be members of the Executive Committee and shall hold an annual meeting in their Division, these Division meetings to be held preferably in the months following the State meeting.
- 8. Associational Superintendents—The Associational Superintendents shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Associational Union. They shall correspond with the President of the Executive Committee and the officers of all Woman's Missionary Societies and Junior Societies in all the churches of their Associations. They shall assist the societies in forming an Associational Union, which shall meet annually. They shall be ex-officio members of the Executive Committee, and shall as frequently as possible attend the monthly meetings of that committee. An annual meeting of the Superintendent and Executive Committee shall be held during the Annual Meeting.
- 9. Executive Committee The Executive Committee shall carry out the instructions of the Union, and transact all business between its sessions. It shall meet monthly, and oftener when necessary. Seven members shall constitute a quorum. When a vacancy occurs, the remaining members of the Executive Committee shall be empowered to fill the unexpired term. The committee shall report at the Annual Meeting and send an annual report to the State Convention through the State Board of Missions.
- 10. Representatives to Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention—These representatives shall be appointed by the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina at its annual session.
- 11. Expenses—In addition to the amount paid by the State Mission Board for printing, postage, and salaries, the expenses of the Woman's Missionary Union office, including traveling expenses of officers on Union business, shall be met by a yearly contribution of ten cents per member from each local society, said contributions to be made during the first quarter.

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

OF NORTH CAROLINA

THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL SESSION

High Point, N. C., March 5, 1929.

The thirty-ninth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, met with the Green Street Baptist Church of this city, March 5, 6, and 7.

The session opened Tuesday evening, 8:00 o'clock, with the singing of several hymns, led by Rev. J. D. Barnette, the assistant pastor, after which Dr. Lloyd T. Wilson read several verses of the tenth chapter of Hebrews and spoke on "A Closer Fellowship with God."

"I Am Thine, O Lord" was sung, and Pastor Herman T. Stevens, who presided over this session, extended a welcome to the delegates and visitors.

Dr. S. H. Templeman, of the Brown Memorial Church, Winston-Salem, read 1 Kings 18:22-39, after which Dr. J. Powell Tucker, of the First Baptist Church, Raleigh, preached the annual Convention sermon, using as texts, 1 Kings 18:39: "The Lord, he is the God," and Matthew 9:35-36: "And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd." His theme was, "Back to God's Program."

After singing "Rescue the Perishing," the Convention adjourned with prayer by Dr. G. A. Martin, Waynesville.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 6

The session was opened at 10:00 o'clock with Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, President, in the chair.

Song, "The Kingdom Is Coming." The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. Herman T. Stevens, High Point, who read some verses from the Lord's Prayer in the sixth chapter of Matthew, and spoke on "Bringing in the Kingdom Through Prayer." Following her message, Mrs. P. C. Brantley, Wendell, special soloist of the Convention sang, "My Desire."

On motion of Mrs. Edna R. Harris, Raleigh, the calling of the roll was dispensed with, and those whose registration cards had been turned in to the Secretary up to this time were recognized as constituting the organization, and that the secretaries be empowered to add to this list the cards that may subsequently be deposited.

On motion of Mrs. Tom E. Walters, Rocky Mount, the program as arranged and in the hands of the delegates was adopted as the order of business of this session.

The address of welcome was made by Mrs. C. E. Siceloff, High Point, to which Mrs. John Wacaster, Waco, responded, at the request of the President.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris presented her report as Corresponding Secretary as follows, after which, it was adopted, and, on motion of Mrs. R. L. Hardison, Wadesboro, a rising vote of thanks for the splendid report was given Mrs. Harris:

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

For three years I have come to this day with a real joy and a genuine fear. A joy that comes to all when we meet to sing praises for God's wonderful goodness to us since last we met—a joy to meet those interested in the Kingdom work and to get the inspiration of the splendid messages brought to us. A fear, yes a real fear, that I have failed to do my best with the grace God has given to me.

A story by Darling seems to fit our situation at this time. The father of a small family felt that he could not stay at home while his neighbors and friends were volunteering for the war. The boys agreed to take care of the place and help mother while father went to war. The boys' farming elicited the commendation of a passing gentleman to whom one of them said: "Yes, father's fighting, we are digging, and mother's praying." "Fighting, digging, praying" said the gentleman "that's the patriotism that will bring our country out of her distresses."

That spirit of cooperation in our great W. M. U. family would soon bring North Carolina, the South, and the world out of the distress of lost men and women, boys and girls and give to many new hope, new visions, new strength. "Fighting," yes, the fight is on and this year we've tried to enlist new workers from those who have known of the fight to win a lost world to Christ, but who were indifferent and felt no personal responsibility. We have endeavored to reach out through those, who have been the true and tried, and to whom we are ever grateful for holding the lines through the years, to train, and equip new recruits to help "carry on."

Eighteen changes have been made in Superintendents this year. In the ranks of those dropping out are those who have served well and to whom we are grateful for past services. Each new leader is eager to lead on her Association into greater things and to them we extend hearty welcome.

Fifty-one Associations had their W. M. U. meeting at a separate time from the general Association, and five have a place for W. M. U. work on the program of the General meeting.

As recruiting officers for the year we had one full-time field worker, Miss Mattison, for ten months, whose report will be given; and as summer field workers, Misses Bettie Tunstall in Tar River, Lois Miller in Liberty, Cora Lee Cannon in Pilot Mountain, and Della Huggins in Tennessee River, Western Carolina and West Liberty. The combined reports of summer workers show 453 homes and 206 churches visited, 232 talks, 559 letters, 72 study classes, 108 societies organized and revived, 4,679 miles traveled.

The joy that societies have found in our enlistment work has cheered our own hearts and we regret that every society did not organize and foster a new society. Edward Bok says: "A man's life is like the soil of the farm, the time comes when he must put into the soil what he has taken out, else it becomes barren and unproductive." Maybe that accounts for the dying of so many organizations—not enough effort was put forth in fostering the new and the weak societies.

It was the Red Queen who said to Alice: "It takes all the running you can do to keep in the same place." We did not run quite fast enough to stay where we were for we have to report 102 fewer organizations this year than last, or a total of 2,692.

"Digging"—yes, that is what many have written us—"digging away." Nothing worth while in all the universe keeps growing and developing without the "digging." It would not require much digging by any one if each of our 47,272 members would only keep her own little plot well dug, planting here and there at a seasonable time an invitation, or a seed thought for missions, and keep digging regularly. Many grow discouraged after one attempt because no marvelous results spring up, or because their places seem so commonplace—forgetting that "a commonplace sun in a commonplace sky makes up God's commonplace day."

Thoreau tells of seeing a delicate flower growing two feet tall between the horse's path and the wheel track, an inch more to right or left or an inch higher would have sealed its fate, and yet it lived to flower as much as if it had a thousand acres of untrodden space. It did not borrow trouble nor invite an evil fate by apprehending it, but did its best in its own place.

We've tried by letters, by programs, by talks, by conferences and through our Recorder page to encourage the leaders to dig out reports of their work each quarter, and get them to us on time. Because we had no report from many we had no reason to believe they were functioning as a missionary society and dropped them from our roll. Many are spasmodic in their digging and for that reason our reports never fully represent what has been accomplished.

On the Standard of Excellence we have 268 A-1 organizations; 150 in class B; 151 C; 156 D. Of the A1 92 were W. M. S. Thirty-five organizations of Piedmont reached the Standard, 20 being A-1; 47 of Mt. Zion, 26 being A-1; 44 of Chowan, 17 being A-1; 61 of Roanoke, 18 being A-1; 40 of West Chowan, 11 being A-1. One hundred twelve churches have full graded Unions and the following are A-1: Tar Heel, Bladen Association; French Broad, Asheville, Buncombe; Blackwell Memorial, Elizabeth City, Chowan; Mountain Creek, Flat River; Durham, First, Mt. Zion; Durham, Grace, Mt. Zion; Durham, Temple, Mt. Zion; Greensboro, First, Piedmont; Winston-Salem, First, Pilot Mountain; Franklinville, Piedmont.

Charlotte Division led in gifts; and of Associations, Piedmont stood first, Pilot Mountain second, Mt. Zion third, and Roanoke fourth.

On the Association Standard two made ten points; Liberty and Roanoke; eleven made nine, seven made eight and nine made seven points.

"Praying—yes, we've tried to stress prayer as one of our fundamentals, and are encouraged to believe that large numbers of our women know the need and value of prayer. Seven hundred fifty-seven organizations observed all the seasons of prayer for State Missions; eight hundred eighty-six for Foreign Missions, and seven hundred fifty-three for Home Missions. Would that every Christian woman could feel with Cook,

"Stir me oh! stir me Lord,
I care not how
But stir my heart in passion for the world!
Stir me to give, to go, but more to pray."

Field Work

Miss Mattison represented the Union at four Associations; Miss Beaman at three, Miss Hunter at one, Miss Kellam at four, Miss Katie Murray at three, and Mrs. Jones and the Corresponding Secretary at the others.

Mrs. Jones' report: meetings 16; talks 15; letters 189; miles 5,151. Your Secretary with Mrs. Jones attended the Mid-winter Conference in Birmingham, Ridgecrest Assembly, General State Convention, three divisional meetings, twenty-seven Associations, fifteen conferences. Talks 106, miles 10,830.

"The winding ways of our yesterdays
Were aglow with God's good cheer,
So we turn today with a smiling face
To the paths of another year."

Miss Dorothy Kellam read the following report as Young People's Leader which was adopted and, on motion of Mrs. H. M. Finch, Rocky Mount, a rising vote of thanks was extended Miss Kellam for her fine report:

REPORT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEADER

Christian hope makes every new year a thing of wonder. Moffatt translates Haggai 2:15: "But look ahead, from this day onward." What wonderful prospects for 1929!

Is not the old year like a queen who, after reigning well for twelve months, steps down for her jubilant young successor to ascend? Little 1929 has been on her throne only two months. Perhaps the crown of heavy responsibilities wearies her young head, and the scepter of light is heavy in the tiny hand. For her encouragement let us bring in the scroll of court records that she may read of the experiences, high ambitions, and success of Ruby Anniversary, the honored queen of 1928. Her goals were very high; her responsibilities heavy. But loyal subjects lifted the load by individually sharing in service.

1. First as we unroll the scroll, let us read how often an interested, active subject would beg: "A boon, O Queen! Give me the quest of a new society."

And this is the record of all those new societies for young people:

S. B	124
G. A	141
R. A	88
Y. W. A.	99
Total	452

The Ruby Anniversary goal for new young people's societies was 441 and that number was exceeded by 11. Our total number of young people's organizations now is 1,661; 176 of these were A-1. Those were divided this way: Y. W. A. 30, G. A. 51, R. A. 25, S. B. 68.

- 2. Read following that the story of mission study—of hundreds of young people learning the affairs of the Kingdom. There were 4,532 seals and 3,062 certificates awarded, besides 338 reading stamps and 207 reading cards.
- 3. Happy would be the little queen to learn of the companionable girls and boys who came trooping to the camps last summer. A paragraph in the record might read like this: Thirteen Associations fostered their young people by planning for their study and inspiration at 19 G. A., Y. W. A., and R. A., camps. They were: Bladen, Brunswick, Carolina, Chowan, Johnston, Pee Dee, Roanoke, Tar River, Wilmington; and Brushy Mountain, Stone Mountain, Rowan, and Pilot Mountain combined for a general camp at Mountain View. In various ways expenses were kept at a minimum so that it was possible for at least 559 girls and boys to attend one of them.

At the Southwide Y. W. A. camp at Ridgecrest, North Carolina again held the attendance record with 59 girls present. Splendid interest was shown by our boys in the Southwide R. A. camp. Three hundred and eighty young people completed mission study courses and received awards in all the camps.

- 4. Turn the scroll yet farther. Here is more proof of loyalty—the gifts! Y. W. A.'s gave $27,338.18; G. A.'s, $7,656.27; R. A.'s, $4,054.69; Sunbeams, $7,612.42. Total, $46,661.56. This is $5,403.92 more than was given during 1927.
- 5. Near the end of the scroll are words of commendation for young women in College Y. W. A.'s. In June, 1928, the close of the scholastic year, six of these organizations were A-1. They were in Boiling Springs High School, Campbell Junior College, Chowan College, Fruitland Institute, Mars Hill Junior College, and Meredith College.

Grateful for Ruby Anniversary achievements, the old queen of 1928, might sit with scroll in hand and a far-away look in her eyes as she pictures the thousands of young people in no missionary society, the hundreds of churches lacking even a Sunbeam Band. There must be another year to work! Nineteen hundred and twentynine must measure up to yet higher goals for the sake of the King of Kings to whom all the years pay tribute.

Personally, I am rolling up another scroll, intangible, but very real to me. It bears the story of the last five years as young people's leader, the story of the forming of treasured friendships in each section of the State, of the fellowship in service with women, boys, girls, and even tiny tots. In golden letters are inscribed memories of Miss Hunter, Miss Alford, Mrs. Jones, and Mrs. Harris, whose plans and hopes, fun, anxiety, and prayers have been shared with me. I shall keep all those records well guarded in my heart, and continue to be grateful for them throughout my life.

"Old year, farewell: Thou goest to yield thy place
To one who comes to us with smiling face,
To bear us onward toward much hoped for goals,
With lighter steps, and more determined souls.

New Year, thy profound hand we take; With thee, a great success to make. May God our efforts all attend, And keep us faithful to the end."

Respectfully submitted,

ELSIE K. HUNTER.

The following report of our W. M. U. Field Worker, Mrs. Gertrude Mattison Newman, Louisville, Ky., was read by Mrs. Edna R. Harris and adopted:

REPORT OF W. M. U. FIELD WORKER

With the following report, as W. M. U. Field Worker, I wish to send "greetings" to the women of the W. M. U. of North Carolina. Although I cannot be with you and give my report in person, my heart is with you and I am praying that this year's Convention may mean lives reconsecrated to the cause of Missions throughout our State and even to the uttermost parts of the earth.

It has indeed been a joy to serve as W. M. U. Field Worker for the past year and I trust that these efforts put forth have been sown in good ground and will bring forth new interest and enthusiasm in our W. M. U. work. This report, however, is for eight months only-from March to November, as my resignation took effect November 1st. During this time I worked in the following Associations: Bladen, Brunswick, Green River, Tuckaseigee and Transylvania. My plan of work was to visit as many of the churches in the Association as possible, helping the organizations in weak points, holding mission study classes and organizing new societies where it seemed best to do so. It was my privilege to work with the young people in most of the churches and instruct the leaders of the young people's societies. During the summer I was called to help in three Associational Young People's Camps—the Little River, Bladen, and Mountain View. Two weeks in June were spent in the W. M. U. office assisting in the work there, while most of the office force attended the Baptist World Alliance. In July it was my privilege to attend the North Carolina Baptist Assembly at Ridgecrest where I conducted a mission study class for Sunbeams.

I am giving also, the following statistical report:

Mrs. Edna R. Harris presented the W. M. U. banner offered the Associational Union doing the best all-round work during the year to the Liberty Association. It was accepted by Mrs. E. Norfleet Gardner, Thomasville, Superintendent of the Association. Mrs. R. N. Simms, Chairman of the Heck Memorial Committee, reported that the committee had used the special fund this year in erecting a fountain at Meredith College in honor of Miss Fannie E. S. Heck.

After the singing of "Jesus Shall Reign," Mrs. Wesley N. Jones gave her annual address as President, using as her theme, "Our Changing Horizon." Following the address Mrs. P. C. Brantley sang the prayer, "Just for Today."

OUR CHANGING HORIZON

Life presents to all a constantly changing horizon. To realize this we have only to look back to the days of childhood and recall the limited horizon of our early lives. The world began and ended almost at our own doorsteps, even our thoughts and fancies carried us only a few miles from our own homes. So far as we were concerned the world was made up with the people we knew and saw every day, the neighboring towns and villages played no part in our imaginations, life consisted in the things we saw, the people we knew, and the sun rose and set upon a world that centered within the narrow limits of our own knowledge. When the world of books was opened to us, there came a wider horizon, a horizon that has widened and broadened with each passing year. All the pages of history were opened to us, all the wonders of science, the marvelous revelations of the present age, and there came the gradual conception of a world that reaches from the Arctic to the Antarctic, of countries inhabited by unknown peoples, of vast and uncharted seas. Gradually the horizon of our lives extended to take in something of the wonder and the beauty of the world about us, and with the widening horizon there came a new interest and a new sympathy for the peoples of the world.

It is the widening of our missionary horizon that we want to think of today, the changes that have come in the period of our own activities and the changed conditions in our own lives and in our mission fields that we face at this time. Within our own recollections is the period when the interest and activities of women largely began and ended in their own homes. The majority of our people lived in the rural sections of our country, neighbors were few and far between. The little white church with its spire pointing heavenward was not so many miles away as we count miles today, but the rough, red clay road, worn into ruts by the winter travel made it a matter of hours to reach it. Preaching was usually but one Sunday in the month; a bountiful dinner must be provided and carried for the noon hour, for there would be an afternoon service. This was a part of the busy housewife's life, entertaining the preacher perhaps for a day or so afterward was a duty and a pleasure. There was no midweek prayer meeting, no Sunday Schools and no Woman's Missionary Societies. Church life began and ended in the services of the country church. The gospel of the Kingdom was preached, but the horizon of the hearers did not extend to the point where they could comprehend its meaning, much less realize their own responsibility.

There is no question but that the apostolic church was an intensely missionary church. So great was the spirit of those days, so filled with the power of the Holy Spirit were Paul and the other apostles that today their messages are the inspiration of our modern missionary activities. Paul lives in his epistles, and his life touches in a vital way the lives of people today.

It is an interesting story, the growth of the early church with its pages stained with the blood of those who were ready, even glad to give their lives for the faith within them. The message of a risen Saviour was carried all over the known world. Africa had the Gospel, and China and India were carried the message, according to tradition, by the Apostle Thomas. The conception of the Kingdom was world-wide, because it was the conception of our Lord and Master, and given by Him to the apostles and by the apostles to the early church. Then came the period of the dark ages when the light faltered and grew dim, and apparently there was no vision of a world-wide evangelization in the minds of the people.

The great missionary movement of modern times had its inception when William Carey went out to India. Missionary activity in the Baptist churches of America dates from Adoniram and Ann Haseltine Judson. Possibly next to the Bible the story of the Judsons written and published in 1851 has awakened more missionary interest and resulted in greater missionary activity than any book ever published. The question that has arisen in the mind and heart of every one as to why in the providence of God these things were permitted has been answered over and over again in the response in love, service and gifts that has come because of their suffering, their love and sacrifice.

Looking over the records of a church that has passed the milestone of its first century, we find that Luther Rice, on his travels through our Southern territory to awaken interest in the new work in India, visited the church on more than one occasion, and the awakened missionary spirit in this church is credited on these time-worn pages to these visits. That church is still a church in which this spirit predominates, and the missionary horizon has ever widened as the years passed by. We have one missionary society, perhaps others, that can trace its beginning directly to the visit of Luther Rice. A recent biography of this remarkable man credits him with being largely responsible for the establishment of many of our older denominational colleges—Richmond, Furman and Wake Forest being among the number.

Let us think of the widening of the missionary horizon in connection with the fields of our Convention. That our viewpoint was a narrow and restricted one at the time our Woman's Missionary Union was organized is proven by just two statements: First, that the North Carolina Baptist State Convention gave in 1886 to all objects just $28,493.98, second, that the entire Southern Baptist Convention gave in that same year to the great cause of Foreign Missions, $87,047.83. Last year these gifts amounted to $1,455,001.60.

China

China of all our fields has had first place in our interest and gifts because of the work of Dr. and Mrs. M. T. Yates, and because of the many missionaries from our State who have found on this field their place of service. Forty years ago Southern Baptists had thirteen missionaries, eleven stations and outstations on this great mission field. In addition to the missionaries a small number of native workers were employed. A few schools had been established, Bibles and tracts were scattered far and wide, and the missionaries were preaching not only at their stations but were giving a part of their time to trips into the interior and to the numberless villages round about them. Several native pastors had been ordained and chapels erected in Canton, Shanghai and in Tungchow. Between two hundred and two hundred and fifty converts had been baptized. Let us see how the horizon has widened to Southern Baptists in their work in China. Today there are twenty-eight main stations with 243 missionaries. We have well equipped schools and hospitals and publication societies as well as well organized Woman's Missionary Unions on all of our fields. There are 33,176 members in our 183 churches in China. It is variously estimated that there are between 400,000 and 500,000 Christians in China today, and that more than seven hundred thousand people are under Christian influence. Instead of hostility on the part of the natives, there is evidenced a desire on the part of the Chinese that the foreigners continue their work in this great country, not only by continued gifts but by sending workers to help them in the great work of evangelization that is before them. The National Christian Council of China, while advocating the control of mission work by the Chinese, urges the continued help of our missionaries. The new government is making many changes. We read in the papers that the capital is no longer Peking but Peping. It has cast out the communist, dismissed the Soviet advisors and has apparently established a stable government. There is much discussion in mission circles as to the registration laws requiring our schools to comply with the rules and restrictions of the new government, and it remains to be seen what the outcome will be. The native Christians have been true to their faith amid all the trying experiences of a civil war. Seven members of China's New Cabinet are Christians, and other Christians are having a voice in affairs. Truly we face in China a horizon that was not dreamed of in the early days of our mission work.

Africa

Our work in Africa is confined to one country, Nigeria. Looking back at old records we find that in 1880 there were three missionaries and seven native workers on this field with eighty converts. These old records give more than mere statistics, they relate a story of hardship and suffering even unto death that moves one to tears notwithstanding the passing of so many years. We have today in our African mission seven stations and thirty-one missionaries, 192 churches with a membership of more than fifteen thousand. Last year there were 1,838 baptisms in this mission. Prior to 1877 there were no reliable statistics as to African missions. Only sixty-two centers of work had been opened in the entire continent. At this present time there are 262 centers of work with six thousand missionaries from all Protestant denominations, 28,824 places of worship, and 2,699,000 church members. Sir Harry Johnson, the British administrator in Central Africa, confirms these significant words of W. T. Stead: "South Africa (and it is applicable to the entire continent) is the product of three forces-conquest, trade and missions, and of the three the first counts for the least and the last for the greatest factor in the expansion of civilization in Africa. Missionaries have been everywhere the pioneers of empire. The frontier has advanced on the stepping stones of missionary graves." Fifty years from today the light of the knowledge of Jesus Christ will illumine the darkest corners of the dark continent.

Japan

Forty years ago the leading paper in Japan stated that the spread of Christianity in that country was an astonishing thing. A German missionary gave the number as less than three thousand. Two years ago the number estimated was less than 150,000. Not an astonishing thing, we would say, yet we are told that "Within the first hundred years, the number of Christians in the mission fields was larger than the number of Christians in the whole world at the end of the first century of the Christian era." Southern Baptists have in Japan a membership of 12,000 according to our last statistics. In 1860 two missionaries, Rev. J. Q. A. Rohrer and wife, were sent to begin work in this country. They sailed on the Edwin Forest with two other missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bond, who were going to China. The fate of this ship has never been known. Thus ended our first effort in Japan. In 1888 the work was resumed, and four missionaries were sent out. Slowly but surely the horizon has widened until we have seven main stations and twenty-three missionaries. Our W. M. Union in this field is eight years old and follows all the lines of work of our own Union and has proven of great value to the mission. A veteran missionary who recently entered upon his reward said a short while before his death, "How glorious the contrast (between the beginning and the close of his own work). In thousands of churches tens of thousands of believers are free to worship God in their own tongue and way, while in the schools, churches and gatherings of young and old, their faces show an expression very different from that of five decades ago. It can best be described without an atom of exaggeration as the radiance of morning after night." Truly the morning light is breaking in Japan.

South America

Southern Baptist work in South America dates back to 1873 when a little church in Santa Barbara in the province of San Paulo requested the Foreign Mission Board to consider Brazil as a mission field. The mission was not begun until 1879. There are today in our South American missions—Brazil, Chile, Argentina—166 missionaries, 422 churches with a membership of 36,809. Last year they gave to the support of the work $220,000. We have two large colleges, a school for girls and a number of high schools. Some years ago one million copies of the New Testament were distributed in China. A movement by the same organization to distribute another million in South America is under way. Everywhere the Gospel message is heard gladly. An effort was made in Brazil a few years ago to revise the constitution and make the Catholic Church the State Church. It is significant that this measure failed in a Catholic country.

Mexico

In Mexico doors are practically closed to our missionaries, but notwithstanding this we have a wider horizon for our work in this country. Mexicans by the thousands are crossing the border into the states, and it is estimated that we have in Texas, Arizona, Colorado and California a Mexican population of 1,750,000 presenting to us a challenging opportunity.

Europe

Southern Baptist Missions in Europe forty years ago were confined to Italy. Today we have 640,000 Baptists in this country not including those in Russia where it is impossible to get statistics because of conditions. There are between one million and two millions in all probability. Dr. Mullins said in an address last year that there was a Baptist movement in Europe that had sprung up of its own accord and that Europe was a Baptist challenge because of this movement. Southern Baptists have work in Hungary, Roumania, Jugo-Slavia, Spain, and Italy. In Palestine we have a mission located at Jerusalem with three missionaries. Perhaps no one thing will bring to mind so clearly the widening of our world-wide missionary horizon as the simple statement that fifty years ago there were 21 foreign missionary organizations in the United States, now there are 122. There were 1,228 foreign missionaries, some of them workers among the Indians and would now be considered home missionaries. Today there are 13,000 American foreign missionaries. The total amount given to Foreign Missions in 1877 was $1,800,000. Last year $40,000,000 was given.

As we think of the wonderful changes the years have brought in our mission fields, the increasing opportunities and the enlarged activities that have come to us, we are reminded that there is a spiritual horizon that must also be considered. As a Woman's Missionary Union, as individuals, we should ask ourselves if the years of service, the daily experiences of the goodness and mercy of our God have brought to us a wider and fuller knowledge of Him, a clearer vision of His purposes and plans. Spiritual growth, like growth in the natural world is progressive. There must be development day by day, first the blade, then the ear and then the full corn in the ear.

A clearer vision of God cannot be ours unless we rise above the mists and clouds that so often envelop us in our every day lives and go with Him to the mountain-top and see the glory and the beauty of the valley below undimmed by tears and unmarred by sin and sorrow. A vision of the Christ will enable us to rise above the difficulties that so often perplex us, the hindrances that handicap us so greatly and see the God-given task of world evangelization in the light of His radiance, the glory of His purpose.

My message this morning is a challenge to new heights of spiritual experience, new revelations of God's will in our lives, new courage for old tasks as we go on to another year of service because of the Divine Companionship that is ours. Only in this way may we become "rooted and grounded in love and so be strong to apprehend the breadth and length and depth and height of the love of Christ which passeth knowledge and be filled with all the fullness of God."

May the spiritual horizon of our lives widen and broaden and deepen each year that we spend in His service and may the Christian's hope of an eternity spent in the glorious presence of the Divine Son of God grow brighter day by day until all of life is glorified because of the vision of the things that are eternal.

MRS. WESLEY N. JONES.

The report of the chairman of the Margart Educational Fund was read by Miss Dorothy Kellam, and after brief talks by Miss Oreon Bostick and Edwin B. Dozier it was adopted.

REPORT OF THE MARGARET FUND

How could any one resist the appeal of the Margaret Fund? In that W. M. U. section of our hearts, perhaps the softest of the soft spots is held by those sons and daughters of our missionaries beyond the seas. We delight to "mother" and educate them through the Margaret Fund. It has never been and never shall be a burden, but a happy chance to become their friends, and to make true the dreams of their unselfish parents by seeing to it that these young people have the education of which they are so worthy.

In one quarterly letter to the young people, the suggestion was made that some societies adopt these students and send boxes of surprises at the special holiday seasons. Little did I dream there would be such a wholesale response! Too bad we did not have a hundred students assigned to our State to foster! Many societies decided to send money to the fund itself instead of sending boxes. This money was most welcomed since the total number of Margaret Fund students in the South increased to 91 this year, and scholarships are $300.00 each. Five of these have been in North Carolina schools. Those of us who are personally acquainted with them covet for all the same privilege. Would you like to be introduced?

First meet Edwin Dozier, the son of Rev. and Mrs. C. K. Dozier, of Fukuoka, Japan. He is a senior this year at Wake Forest and has won friendship and respect from faculty and students. He is president of the State Student Volunteer Movement.

Two of the children of Rev. and Mrs. Wade D. Bostick of Pochow, China, are with us this year as well as Mrs. Bostick herself. The son, Wade Bostick, Jr., finishes this year his work at Wake Forest, and Oreon, the daughter, is the charming freshman member of the student government counsel at Meredith.

Mrs. W. H. Tipton of Shanghai, China, brought her son, Bryson, to Mars Hill this year.

Over in Durham is Nancy McDaniel, from Soochow, China. She is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. G. McDaniel, who are also on furlough. It is a happy situation to have so many parents in the homeland for the year.

The motto adopted by the Margaret Fund Committee last spring was "Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth." May He continue to speak to our hearts concerning this phase of His Kingdom service, and may we hear and respond in a larger way.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY KELLAM, North Carolina Member Margaret Fund Committee. The following returned missionaries were presented: Mrs. M. L. Braun, China; Mrs. W. H. Tipton, China; Miss Katie Murray, Cheng-Chow, China; and Mrs. W. D. Bostick, Pochow, China. On motion of Miss Laura Lazenby the Convention stood in their honor.

The following committees were named by the President:

Time and Place: Mrs. A. O. Moore, Salisbury; Mrs. Jessie Earnshaw, Wake Forest; Mrs. W. A. Pope, Durham; Mrs. C. T. Mount, New Bern; Miss Mary Winbourne, Como; Mrs. J. A. Hunnicutt, Mt. Gilead; Mrs. Addison Hewlett, Wilmington; Mrs. T. H. Plemmons, Fairmont; Mrs. S. A. DeHart, Bryson City; Mrs. J. R. Owen, Mars Hill.

Resolutions Committee: Mrs. J. C. Hough, Kinston; Miss Edna Earle Allen, Warrenton; Mrs. W. S. Richardson, Clarksville, Va.; Mrs. W. J. Griffin, Woodland; Mrs. J. H. Loftin, Mount Olive; Miss Emma Middleton, Warsaw; Mrs. E. V. Hudson, Cramerton; Miss Alice Witherspoon, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Fred McGuire, Andrews; Mrs. T. Dodsworth, Brevard.

The Nominating Committee was elected from the floor of the Convention as follows:

Nominating Committee

Elizabeth City Division: Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain; Mrs. I. A. Ward, Elizabeth City.

Greensboro Division: Mrs. C. L. Haywood and Mrs. J. M. Whitted, Durham.

Charlotte Division: Mrs. C. S. Cashwell, Statesville; Mrs. J. S. Slate, Winston-Salem.

Wilmington Division: Mrs. H. W. Baucom, Wilmington; Mrs. M. J. Herring, Clinton.

Adjourned with prayer by Mrs. Wesley N. Jones.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Union was called to order by the President at 2:00 o'clock. "The Morning Light is Breaking" was sung.

Devotional services were conducted by Mrs. W. D. Bostick, China, who read ten verses from the eleventh chapter of Deuteronomy, after which "Stand Up for Jesus" was sung.

Minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

Mrs. C. L. Greaves, Raleigh, read her report as Chairman of the Personal Service Committee as follows, which was adopted:

REPORT OF PERSONAL SERVICE

Personal Service is as old as the reign of God in the heart of man, but it was not thus named at first. The work is old, but the designation is modern. Personal Service has been a popular phase of Women's Missionary Society work for nineteen years, since it was incorporated into the Standard of Excellence. Since it is Christlike living with regard to those around us, every Christian is, or should be, a center of Personal Service. It is the Martha aspect of our work. The Marys of our W. M. S. would do all the praying and Bible reading, while the Marthas would do all the hospital, relief, and orphanage work if we did not realize that to be a well-rounded Christian we must emphasize both the Mary and Martha qualities as we grow.

We are told that our Saviour went about doing good, and as we study His matchless life, we know that He prayed, studied the Scriptures, healed the sick, comforted the sorrowing, blessed the children, fed the hungry, cleansed the temple, and led the wandering to repent. "The fool hath said in his heart, 'There is no God. Let us eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we die.' "But Christ has inspired His own to crown each day with good deeds, and to say, "I must do the works of Him that sent me while it is day, for the night cometh when no man can work."

We present the Personal Service report of the Baptist women of North Carolina, and yet the activities are so numerous and varied that no report blank is sufficient to tabulate all of them. This department of our work grows, and our community spirit and church life are sweetened and mellowed because we engage in this Christlike work.

MRS. C. L. GREAVES,
Chairman, Personal Service

Miss Clara I. Cox, High Point, delivered an address on, "The Opportunity at Our Door" or "Inter-racial Work in North Carolina." Solo, "Make Me a Channel of Blessing," by Mrs. M. L. Braun,

At the request of the President Dr. W. R. Cullom, Wake Forest, led in a special prayer in behalf of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention now in session in Nashville, Tenn., after which he made a statement about the Preachers' School to be held at Meredith College under the auspices of the General Board, June 3-13.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris read the following report as Chairman of the Ruby Anniversary, which was adopted:

REPORT OF RUBY ANNIVERSARY

The achievements of Ruby Anniversary year—the fortieth year of of Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to Southern Baptist Convention—are now history, and North Carolina's part is one of the eighteen chapters of that as we stretch forth to new aims and new purposes.

New Members

Though reports of membership are difficult to get and some societies will not send in their number, reports that were sent in showed we reached our part of new members.

Gifts

Four hundred one thousand, six hundred dollars was a high aim for gifts. We accepted with the other Southern States the aim of a 44% per cent increase in gifts, knowing that no State had truer, more loyal workers than North Carolina, and that "God our Father is standing by asking only that we try." To each Superintendent was sent her apportionment worked out on the above increase; she in turn was asked to send to each organization its Ruby Anniversary aim worked out on the 44% per cent increase.

The following Associations reached their financial goal: Avery, Brushy Mountain, Catawba River, Central, Liberty, South Yadkin, Yadkin, and Rowan.

Superintendents will give special recognition at Association meetings to organizations meeting their aims, and space will be given in our Book of Remembrance for them.

We failed to reach the aim set, thereby failing to be classed as one of the victorious states, yet with many organizations not reporting there was contributed through our W. M. U. $345,199.99—the magnificent increase of $67,114.39 over 1927 gifts and we will make melody in our hearts and give thanks unto God.

New Organizations

The forty per cent net increase in number of organizations proved to be a difficult point. At the beginning of 1927 we revised our roll and began our Ruby Anniversary enlistment period with 2,021 organizations on roll. To have been victorious we should have had a net gain of 840 or a total of 2,861 organizations by the close of 1928. We had 1,288 new organizations reported during our enlistment period of two years. That sounds like victory on that aim and what a glorious victory it would have been had we kept alive all that we had on roll and all of those new ones! When we revised our roll in January, alas! we found that 617 were required to replace those that were quitters, and that we had a net gain of only 671 or an enrollment of 2,692, falling short of our goal in organizations by 137.

The following Associations reached their quota of organizations: Ashe, Montgomery, Piedmont, Pilot Mountain, Sandy Run, Transylvania, Union.

The following met both number of organizations and financial goal: Mitchell, Green River, Haywood, Tennessee River, Three Forks, and Yancey.

You will note that but few of our large, well developed Associations met their financial goals and number of organizations. This is explained by the fact that their territory has been developing through the years, and that their quotas worked out on the same per cent was very high and those who have been carrying the load for years, and giving of time and money were called upon for still greater things. We are not unmindful nor unappreciative of the increased efforts of those well developed, deeply interested Associations upon whom we always depend and who respond to every call gladly, lovingly, prayerfully.

Did the burden we asked you to share seem heavy? Did we ask increased efforts? Did we ask for a gift too large? Let us think with Annie Johnson Flint:

When we have exhausted our store of endurance,
When our strength has failed ere the day is half done,
When we reach the end of our hoarded resources,
Our Father's full giving is only begun.

His love has no limit, His grace has no measure, His power no boundary known unto men; For out of his infinite riches in Jesus He giveth and giveth again.

> EDNA R. HARRIS, Ruby Anniversary Chairman.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris presented to the Convention the Associational Superintendents who reached their financial goal in the Ruby Anniversary, and those reaching their organization goal, and those reaching both objectives. At the request of Mrs. Harris quite a number of the Superintendents bore testimony to the great value of the Ruby Anniversary.

Mrs. Jones read a letter from Miss Pearl Johnson, a missionary in China.

Enrollment up to date: 516 delegates; 303 visitors. Total, 819.

On motion, adjourned with prayer by Mrs. J. R. Fizer, Charlotte.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, 8:00 O'CLOCK

After singing "Revive Us Again" and "There is a Fountain Filled with Blood," Dr. I. M. Mercer, Raleigh, conducted the devotional service, reading Romans, tenth chapter.

Pastor Herman T. Stevens presided. Special music was rendered by the quartette of the Green Street Church who sang, "Where We Never Grow Old."

Dr. I. M. Mercer introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. Francis Pendleton Gaines, President of Wake Forest College, who delivered an address on "A Generation of Seekers."

Hymn, "Take Time to be Holy."

Adjourned with prayer by Mr. Santford Martin, Winston-Salem.

THURSDAY MORNING, 10:00 O'CLOCK

After singing "O, Zion Haste," devotional services were conducted by Miss Katie Murray, Cheng-Chow, China, reading Romans 15:30-33. "Striving Together in Prayer" was her subject.

Hymn, "Come Women, Wide Proclaim."

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

The hour for the reports of the Divisional Superintendents having arrived, the reports were read as follows, after which they were adopted:

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

It is my privilege in behalf of the women of the Elizabeth City Division to report something of their part of the work for the year 1928 in the hastening of the coming of the King.

Our Superintendents have thoroughly organized their Associations into counties and groups, many counties holding their meetings quarterly; some carrying their lunches so that the very weakest society have the help and inspiration of these meetings, coming in vital touch, as they do, with the problems of the local societies.

The Neuse-Atlantic has six groups on account of the scattered condition of their churches. Mrs. Scott, the Superintendent, holds the honor certificate in Mission Study. Numbers of societies have been organized and the work is growing along all lines and they are looking forward to a great year's work.

The Roanoke with Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Superintendent, reports a remarkable growth in the number taking periodicals and doing organized personal service work. Twenty-nine W. M. U. and Junior Oragnizations are Victory Societies. A successful camp at Colerain Beach for the young people, was held during the summer, students are being helped at Mars Hill and Wake Forest Colleges, and they have the largest financial report in the history of the Association.

The year of 1928 has marked a great growth in the work of the Chowan Association under the leadership of Mrs. I. A. Ward—more societies organized, more making better reports, and more consecrated to the work of missions. Sixty-two boys and girls attended the annual camp at Virginia Beach, ninety-one seals and thirty-eight certificates were awarded on Mission Study and Methods.

Miss Una White reports for West Chowan that their County Unions support a Bible woman and six scholarships at Chowan College and the women of the Association support their missionary, Miss Pearl Johnson in China. This great Association only has one church without a W. M. S.

The loyalty and consecration of the individual member, the untiring efforts of the neighborhood or circle chairman, the vision and stick-to-itiveness of the local president, the officers of the county and group unions and our queenly women who are at the head of our Association, guided by the propelling power of the Holy Spirit, when He said, "Go Ye" and "I will be with you," have woven together the pattern for 1928. There are many dropped stitches but we hope to gather the ends and out of our great constituency, mold a more perfect pattern for 1929.

The Annual Meeting for the Division will be held in Kinston, Tuesday, May 7th.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. M. FINCH.

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION

With joy and gratitude to our Lord and Master who has kept us in His service, we bring you greetings from the nine Associations in the Wilmington Division, and report only in part, the work done by them, for only the books of Heaven have a record of all the noble work and sacrifices of these "Laborers Together with Him."

In this Division we have 332 churches, with W. M. U. societies in 196, leaving 136 with no societies. The membership in the societies is 13,580. Twenty-six churches have 5 grades, Robeson leading, with 10. One hundred six new societies were organized in 1928, 46 were lost, leaving a net gain of 60.

Bladen Association leads in number of new societies, 25. This Association had a Camp for R. A. and G. A. at White Lake last summer. The Y. W. A. of Bladenboro gave a shower to the graduating class at our Mills Home. Mrs. W. O. Biggs is the efficient Superintendent of Bladen Association.

Brunswick Association, led by Mrs. B. R. Page, has gone forward in many ways. They, too, had a camp at Holdens Beach for the R. A. and G. A. Miss Ora Parker of Monroe is using their Mary Ward scholarship at our Training School. This Association is helping to keep Olympia Flettis, from Spanish Honduras, in Mars Hill College. Mrs. C. S. Ward is the new Superintendent of Brunswick.

Cape Fear-Columbus, with Mrs. J. T. McKenzie, Superintendent, has largest percentage of membership for number of societies, and is second in largest number of new societies.

As I still have the happy privilege of leading the Eastern, I bring you my twentieth report. The Eastern has largest number of societies for number of churches, and leads in membership, 1,624. Kenansville R. A. are paying tuition of a native boy in a Mexican school. Magnolia Sunbeams give salary for kindergarten native teacher in China. Warsaw W. M. S. clothes one girl at our Mills Home.

Mrs. B. A. Hocutt still leads forward the Johnston Association. The W. M. S. at Clayton supports a native missionary and family in China. Johnston leads in mission study classes, 47. They held a camp at White Lake for G. A. and R. A.

Miss Mattie Bain faithfully leads in the Little River Association. Some of her societies are "mothering" some of our Margaret Fund students. Miss Claudia Franklin of Crossnore is using the Louis Castlebury Schoolarship at our Training School. Little River made largest increase in gifts, $724.58.

New South River, with Mrs. I. N. Kimbrough, Superintendent, has largest number of societies in the Ruby Anniversary Book of Remembrance, 3, and has 3 A-1 societies.

Robeson has been efficiently led by Mrs. A. H. McLeod, but resigned last year, and Mrs. L. J. Moore is the new Superintendent. Robeson has largest number of churches, 60; and largest number of societies, 107. Mrs. J. H. Johnson of Fairmont gave a memorial for Centennial Fund for her mother.

Wilmington Association has paid $200.00 for a scholarship in our W. M. U. Training School, but no one is using it yet. This Association leads in number of tithers, 200; and in gifts, $8,814.02. They held a camp for G. A. and R. A. at Wrightsville. Mrs. H. F. Brinson served as Superintendent nine months and moved from the Association. Mrs. J. W. Carroll is the new Superintendent.

Bladen and Johnston made 9 points on Association Standard of Excellence, Eastern, Robeson and Wilmington 8, Brunswick, Cape Fear-Columbus and New South River 7, Little River 6.

Number of Tithers in this Division, 662. There were held 144 mission study classes, an increase of only 10 over 1927. Seven societies are in the W. M. U. Book of Remembrance.

Miss Gertrude Mattison was a real benediction to the work in the Bladen and Brunswick Associations, teaching mission study classes, organizing societies, and helping the workers in a general way. It was the great pleasure of the Divisional Superintendent to lead the Annual Conference at Bladenboro, which was a real inspiration of unity and interest. She also attended the Associational meetings of Bladen, Cape Fear-Columbus, Robeson and Wilmington.

There has been a marked development and growth in Bladen and Brunswick in leadership and organizations.

Heavy rains, destruction of crops, and other misfortunes in this Division made it impossible to reach the high financial goal set for us, but we thank God for what he has wrought through us, and take courage for the New Year.

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX.

REPORT OF ASHEVILLE DIVISION

Realizing, as we have come to do in the few months in which we have been in more direct touch with the work of the Asheville Division, the efforts and faithful trust in God, of many of the Superintendents of the West and feeling so thankful to "The Good All Father" that He does not measure us and our deeds just as do men perhaps, always, by immediate results and figures, but seeing far into the future and giving time for the fruit to ripen and the seed to spring up and bring forth "first the blade and then the ear," we verily believe that though our figures are smaller in proportion to our numbers perhaps, He has placed His "Well done" on the reports of many of these Superintendents who have put into this Ruby Anniversary year their prayerful best, and His approval on their year's work equal, maybe to that of those who have had more fertile soils in which to plant and riper fields from which to garner.

Seven of our Associations, the Alleghany, the Avery, the Haywood, the Mitchell, the Tennessee River, the Three Forks and the Yancey met their Ruby Anniversary aims financially, as sent out from Raleigh. Two, the Ashe and Transylvania, met their aim in organizations; and four, the Mitchell, the Haywood, the Tennessee River and the Yancey, made the Ruby Anniversary aims on both points.

Some few Associations still have not their separate W. M. U. meetings but we are gaining in this line and are praying that some points gained along financial and other lines will encourage these to go forward in this matter also, during 1929.

There were organized eighty-nine new societies last year and if we can keep these up we much prefer the few than a number more new ones which we could not foster.

An encouraging growth in the number of subscriptions to our mission magazines and to the Biblical Recorder is noted but we have far to go in these, and especially in Recorder subscriptions.

Our increase in Mission Study Classes held, and observance of Special Seasons of Prayer is still slow but evident. Tithing and Personal Service done in His name as taught in God's Word, we are seeking to know more about this year from a renewed study of the Bible for the purpose of finding just His plans for such service.

An outstanding feature in the Asheville Division this year has been the field work done by Miss Della Huggins in the French Broad, the Tennessee River, the Western North Carolina and the West Liberty Associations, organizing the latter into W. M. U. work with Mrs. T. T. Johnson as Superintendent, with ten missionary societies of different grades. Miss Huggins, truly in His name, taught one hundred and twenty-five Mission Study Classes, organized twenty-four new societies, secured sixty-six subscriptions to mission magazines, several subscriptions to the Biblical Recorder, distributed hundreds of tracts, visited in many homes and attended association and other meetings. In the West Liberty Association there were three hundred enrolled in four of her Mission Study Classes. These Associations paid one-half of Miss Huggins' salary and the Sunday School Board, through the Woman's Missionary Union, the other half.

Our Annual Divisional meeting was held with the Murphy Church, May 24-25, 1928. Mrs. Hampton of Brevard, who at this time retired as Superintendent of the Division, had prepared a splendid program. Mrs. M. L. Braun of China and Asheville and Mr. J. C. Powell of Africa brought messages from their respective fields of labor, inspirational and uplifting, spiritually. The French Broad, the Haywood, the Tennessee River, the Transylvania, the Tuckaseigee, the Western North Carolina and the Macon sent splendid representations to this meeting. Mrs. Edna Harris rendered valuable aid in the meeting in bringing fresh tidings from the Woman's Missionary Union and the Southern Baptist Convention, she only being on her return trip to her office after attending meetings of same in Chattanooga.

The Superintendent attended a number of the Associational meetings, rendering any aid possible and getting to know the Associational Superintendents and their valuable women better. In the meeting of the Tuckaseigee, Miss Naomi Schell, then preparing to return to her field in Japan, and in the French Broad Miss Joy Beaman were most helpful in their services to the Superintendents. Mrs. J. M. Dawson of Texas, made a great address to the Buncombe women at their Associational meeting.

Many of the Superintendents are finding it possible to increase their visits to societies as the conditions of travel improve, which is a great help to the societies. Some societies owing to bad roads, are still isolated for several months in the year.

We find that the Centennial Campaign has been quite an aid to our work in the West. Not only has the splendid plan of organization encouraged, but our gifts to same helped to swell our funds toward the Ruby Anniversary aims. Then, the mere fact that we reached such financial heights has heartened some of our leaders and given confidence to our members. Rather than take from our gifts to missions, we are trusting that it is to inspire us to undertake greater things for God. One Superintendent said she believed her Association would soon be like other Associations in interest toward the Cooperative Program. Another expressing it, "And we are paying our pledges."

Some Young People's Conferences held in the Carolina Association have been uplifting and encouraging, as have the quarterly meetings plan as tried out in some of the Associations.

Mrs. L. T. Freeman, the Young People's Leader for the Asheville Division, has rendered valuable service in visiting Associational meetings and writing letters to Associational Young People's Leaders.

"We are bound to give thanks always to God for you." 2 Thess. 1:3.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. R. MORGAN.

REPORT OF GREENSBORO DIVISION

In presenting the annual report of the Greensboro Division, I feel sure that every woman who took part in our Ruby Anniversary, felt a thrill of joy and inspiration in being able to do something for our Saviour and Lord, who has done so much for us. Of course there were regrets over what we failed to do.

Our Divisional meeting was held with Hayes-Barton Church, Raleigh, November 8, with Mrs. T. M. Pittman, Superintendent, presiding. The Superintendents of the eight Associations were present, making good reports, and expressing a determination to try and reach their Ruby Anniversary goal.

The three points of the Ruby Anniversary were discussed as follows: "New Members," by Miss Bettie Tunstall, Tar River Association; "New Societies," by Mrs. J. C. Canipe, Sandy Creek Association; "Gifts," by Mrs. J. Clyde Turner, Piedmont Association. The work of our young women and girls was presented by Mrs. R. L. Wilburn, Beulah Association. "Our Boys" work was presented by Mrs. J. R. Cantrell, Raleigh Association; "Sunbeams," by Mrs. Elliott Earnshaw, Central Association; "Ways and Means," of raising our Christmas Offering by Mrs. J. G. Tingen, Mount Zion Association.

The keynote of the meeting was Service. This was doubly stressed by the lives and talks of two missionaries, Mrs. D. W. Herring of Cheng Chow, China, and Mrs. W. D. Bostick, of Pochow, China. May the inspiration of these talks be far-reaching in our Division.

Two new officers were elected by our Nominating Committee. Mrs. J. C. Canipe, Siler City, was appointed Young People's Leader, and Mrs. D. A. Kearns, Greensboro, Mission Study Leader. We feel that this is a forward movement that will greatly help in our work along these lines.

The resignation of our beloved and efficient Superintendent, Mrs. T. M. Pittman, was accepted with deep regret. We thank her for her most capable and untiring efforts.

We are thankful that six churches in our Division reached the A-1 Standard graded Union in 1928: Mountain Creek, Flat River Association; Greensboro, First, and Franklinville, Piedmont Association; Durham, First, Temple and Grace, Mount Zion Association. May they continue to be A-1 Standard Graded Unions and may many more be added to this number.

Our statistical reports are in the Minutes.

May we as "Laborers together with God," "Enlarge—spare not—lengthen and strengthen" our stakes, going forward in greater service for our Master.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. M. WHITTED.

REPORT OF CHARLOTTE DIVISION

There is an up-to-dateness in the report of our Charlotte Division which spells action. Our Associational Superintendents are officers who show their faith by "their works," and their co-workers are united in the one great aim of bringing this world to our Lord and His Christ. We are very grateful to our Heavenly Father for another year of service and we thank Him for the privilege of being a co-worker with Him.

The annual session of the Charlotte Division was held at Shelby, May 24, 25, where more than four hundred delegates and visitors registered. Miss Ruth Pettigrew and Dr. McMillan were our missionaries and Dr. Zeno Wall and Rev. S. T. Hensley of the State Mission Board added much to the spiritual uplift of this session. The Daily Vacation Bible School was ably conducted by Rev. J. O. Reynolds.

It is the custom of the Charlotte Division to enlist in some special service over and above our regular apportionment, and this year we are supporting Mr. Day who is the assistant pastor and secretary of Dr. McMillan in Soochow, China. The W. M. S. of First Church, Statesville, gave money to get Dr. McMillan a typewriter. We have contributed $200.00 on Mr. Day's salary. His salary is $25.00 per month and it began October 1, 1928.

The Kings Mountain Association has a scholarship at Boiling Springs Junior College; Union Association, at Wingate; Mrs. W. J. Francis of Gaston Association had three scholarships, one at Fruitland and two at Mars Hill. The Gaston Association sent a carload of chickens and fruit to South Mountain Institute for Thanksgiving, and at Christmas a truck load of hams, chickens, cakes and other goodies. Liberty Association spent $54.00 for a worker for one month in the Association, and Pilot Mountain $100.00 for Association worker. South Yadkin gave $15.00 to Rev. J. A. Abernathy to pay fare of his new gift car across to China.

This year there were 2,954 seals and 1,503 record cards and certificates making a total of 3,457 awards for mission study. The W. A. Smith mission study banner was won by the Pee Dee Association.

We rejoice to report that we still lead the State in gifts. Our contributions this year were $110,822.79.

The Charlotte Division will hold the next annual session at our Mills Home, Thomasville, the first week in June.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. L. L. HENRY.

(In the absence of Mrs. L. L. Henry, Wadesboro, the Superintendent of this Division, on account of sickness, she requested Miss Laura Lazenby of Statesville to read her report.)

By request, Mrs. John Wacaster, of the Kings Mountain Association, told of the annual meeting and achievements of this Division.

Solo, "Nothing Between My Soul and the Saviour," by Mrs. Beeler Moore, Gastonia.

Mrs. Z. M. Caveness, Raleigh, read the following report of White Cross Work which was adopted:

REPORT OF WHITE CROSS WORK

Because of unsettled and uncertain conditions governing the mailing of supplies to the Kathleen Mallory Hospital in China—this year again we asked the women over the State who wished to make contributions to a Hospital to make and send the things to our Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem.

Miss Alda Grayson has returned to Laichow-Fu, China—and we are hoping that we will be able to send more supplies there this year. Miss Grayson is happy in her work there, and I know the women over North Carolina will constantly remember her as well as the others there in the Hospital in prayer.

The following is a list of the White Cross Gifts to the Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem:

48 pairs of curtains for Nurses' Home.

60 bed shirts.

18 draperies for cribs.

16 aprons.

6 table cloths.

3 silence cloths.

4 curtains for wards.

3 flower boxes for Nurses' Home.

1 electric carpet sweeper.

1 handsome secretary.

1 console table and mirror.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. Z. M. CAVENESS.

The following report of the Baptist Hospital and the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home, Winston-Salem, was read by Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Winston-Salem, a trustee of that institution, and after discussion by Mrs. Roddick was adopted:

REPORT OF BAPTIST HOSPITAL

It is with feelings of gratitude and thanksgiving that we are able to present to you the report of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital for the year 1928. For only time and eternity can reveal the blessings this year's work has brought our people. The achievements were beyond our fondest dreams. Perhaps a few remain who will say that the Hospital is not needed, but the vast majority of our Baptists of North Carolina will thank the Master for the wonderful things that have been wrought in these few years. Just five and one-half years of service and more than 11,000 patients have received treatment—several thousands of this number were charity or partpay patients. We have spent over $100,000.00 for charity work since we began our ministry.

Many of our people would have died, and a larger number would have suffered on, as invalids, if we had not been able to offer relief through the charity extended to many who were not financially able to enter the Hospital. During the past year we registered 2,425 patients, of this number only 28 died, or the very small average of 11 2/10 per cent to the thousand which is the lowest death rate we have on record. More than 1,345 patients were admitted in our charity wards during the past year. Some were able to make part payment, others were treated as full charity patients. The cost of free treatments for the past year amounted to $42,000.00, or a little more than $30.00 for each person helped, but no estimate can be placed on the lives saved, the suffering relieved, the health restored, and the happiness in unbroken homes saved by this ministry. Our Mother's Day offerings and other contributions for charity amounted to about $15,000.00, and we received $7,500.00 from the Duke endowment fund. The Hospital paid the other $19,000.00 out of its operating account. We all feel grateful when we realize that this ministry of $19,500.00 has been given by this—our youngest institution—in one year for the relief of our suffering brothers and sisters.

The average stay in the Hospital was six days for pay patients and eleven days for free patients. This is also the lowest on record. The work of skilled physicians, the faithful nurses, and our constant prayers together with the hopeful uplifting ministry of Christian workers have brought this about: and we feel that this is only a forecast of the larger things we hope to accomplish within the next ten years. Our Hospital has no greater recommendations than the facts of its quiet faithful ministry and the desire to serve in love, and the presence of the Great Physician. This should be the strongest appeal for the Support of our Hospital: One of the outstanding events of the year was the dedication of the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home, in March, 1928, for it marked the completion of the task of the women in raising more than the $21,300.00 they had pledged for the building as a memorial to one who had offered her life in service for the Master. In addition to this, more than $3,000.00 has been contributed through the women for the complete furnishings for the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home. After the years of toil and sacrifice on the part of our Union, it was a real joy to the executive board and trustees of the Hospital to have our beloved President of the Union and its officers to conduct the dedicatory exercises, which were beautiful and impressive. The wonderful loyalty of our Woman's Missionary Union has made the great work of service for our sick possible. They have not only contributed so greatly in raising the fine Mother's Day offering, but from the time the walls of our Hospital began to be erected they have been our most loyal supporters, and we feel that it has been largely due to the efforts of our women that we are able to report, not only the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home paid for in full, but that it is due to your prayers and service rendered that we have been enabled to catch a vision of the larger task that awaits us in the ministry of healing.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. J. RODDICK,

Trustee.

Hymn for the year, "The Kingdom Is Coming" was sung, after which Mrs. W. J. Cox, Memphis, Tenn., President of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, gave an address on "A World Eye-View of Missions."

Mrs. P. C. Brantley, Wendell, sang "Why Should He Love Me So?"

Benediction by Rev. Walter M. Gilmore, Raleigh.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 2:00 O'CLOCK

The afternoon session was presided over by Mrs. R. N. Simms, Raleigh.

"Lead on, O King Eternal" was sung. The devotional services were conducted by Mrs. E. Gibson Davis, Raleigh, reading the 13th chapter of First Corinthians, and speaking on "The Greatest of These Is Love."

Minutes of morning session were read and approved.

The following report of the W. M. U. Training School at Louisville, Ky., was read by Mrs. R. N. Simms, North Carolina trustee of that institution and was adopted:

REPORT OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

As I begin to write my report of our dearly beloved Training School this year I wish more than ever that I could take each one of our North Carolina women with me on a visit to House Beautiful that we might see for ourselves just what is being done there. What a joy it would be to enter those blessed doors and be greeted by Mrs. Bose, the Little Mother; to ascend the Frost Memorial stairway and see our own group of North Carolina girls, to meet those from other states, to go with them to class and enjoy their fine professors; to slip into their beautiful dining room; how many would yearn to go out to the Good Will Center and see and hear the great work there; and before we leave to slip into the beautiful Heck Memorial Chapel and there breathe a prayer of thanksgiving for her life, for this school, and of reconsecration of ourselves. However, though that desire cannot be realized, we are to have the next thing to it this year in that we are to have the dear principal with us and see through her eyes and hear with her voice. We are indeed fortunate.

The Spring Term of 1928, which constitutes the first part of the year for this report, was a very successful one in every way with the school. The health of the students was good, the work well done and commencement time found thirty-seven happy graduates ready for work all over our Southland and in foreign fields, if possible.

There were two students completing the three-year master's course, thirty-three the regular two-year bachelor's course, and forty the one for a year. One-fourth of the school's enrollment volunteered for foreign service. How can we fail to make it possible for them to go!

The school secretary, Miss Connor, was busy, as usual, during the summer, completing the registration of students and many other duties incident to the opening of school in October.

Mrs. Bose was most grateful for some delightful weeks of refreshment during the hot months. After attending the Baptist World Alliance in Toronto, she studied six weeks at Columbia, taking a course helpful in her school work, and then had two weeks house-keeping with her son in Asheville, N. C.

During the fall term there were one hundred twenty-three students enrolled, making six more in the boarding school than last year.

Many splendid courtesies were shown the girls by various friends and churches in Louisville and a fine spirit prevailed among them in the home.

Especially are the praise services, led by students enjoyed, all being well attended.

At Thanksgiving time gifts poured in from all over the South, rejoicing the hearts of all.

Christmas was a happy time for every one also. There was a most successful Christmas party, an unusually fine pageant, and a Christmas day filled with joy. Again generous gifts were received from all the states, turkey, oysters, cakes, grapefruit, and many other good things gracing the Christmas table. The thing that brought most joy, however, was the wonderful love gift made by the girls and faculty—$1,000.00, the price of a perfect ruby. The total of $1,092.00 was finally reached. The whole school was saddened by the illness and passing away of Dr. Mullins, for so long a greatly beloved friend and counselor. The Training School Faculty and Staff, with Mrs. Woody, from the Board, joined the Seminary faculty, trustees, etc., in the procession at the funeral service.

Both faculty and students have greatly enjoyed the visits from a number of missionaries and also from Mrs. Cox, Miss Mallory, Miss Leachman, Miss Mather, Miss Bucy, and Mrs. White.

All have regretted to lose Miss Hannah Reynolds, the splendid teacher of W. M. U. methods, and Miss Ada Combs, for eighteen years the faithful and efficient nurse. Their places have been filled by Misses Elsie Ragsdale and Miss Velma Dillman.

The Good Will center report is always a most interesting one. This year the work has been carried on in the same fine way with a record of 21,602 for total attendance. Several new activities have been started, namely, a splendidly conducted choral club, enabling the girls to take part in two large city-wide affairs; a millinery class for women which was most popular and wanted again. Another popular development was the Boy Scout troup looked after by the Big Brother Committee. So many interesting things could be told, if time permitted. I must mention the fact that all the special seasons were observed and contributions made. This may put some of us to shame.

As formerly, North Carolina has had a splendid group of girls at the Training School, a larger number than any other State again this year.

Our women have contributed $3,638.79 for the Training School during the past year. The allotment from the Cooperative Program was $1,763.91, a bequest from Mrs. J. M. Heck of $500.00 and returned Loan Funds of $1,050.00, making a total of $7,352.70.

Already a number of girls are applying for aid for next year. Last year we had to refuse some for lack of funds. May we not make it possible for each one to go this year? Let us be certain to have a good Training School program in each society and ask for a fine offering. Let us determine now that each society will help wipe out our deficit. Then it will be done.

Surely, if our girls can give their lives for Christ, we can give the small gift of money to train them. And furthermore let us give unceasingly of our prayers that our Heavenly Father may richly bless and use them to His glory and the coming of His Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS, Trustee.

After presenting a large group of Training School Alumnæ, and reading a letter of greetings from the North Carolina girls now at the Training School, Mrs. Simms presented Miss Alva Lawrence, Thomasville, who spoke words of appreciation of that institution.

Mrs. Janie Cree Bose, Louisville, Ky., Principal of the Training School, addressed the Convention on "The Love of Christ Constraineth Us," 2 Cor. 5:14, after which Mrs. Jo H. Weathers, Raleigh, led in prayer.

The hour for the Memorial Service having arrived, Mrs. Edna R. Harris read the names of the members of the Union who had died since the last Convention. Mrs. J. J. Roddick spoke briefly of the work of Miss Della Woodhouse, Superintendent of the Yadkin Association for thirteen years. The audience standing while Mrs. P. C. Brantley sang, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus."

The following report of Missien Study was read by Mrs. Edna R. Harris, after which it was adopted:

MISSION STUDY REPORT

Why study missions? J. Lovell Murrey answers this question more fully than I can. He says "The study of missions keeps one in contact with the momentous issues of the times. It helps one to be a true internationalist in spirit. It is profitable for the culture of one's spiritual life. It is the supremely unselfish undertaking of the ages. It carries its influence to the deepest places of religious life. It quickens and expands the sympathies. It pushes back the horizon of prayer. It evokes a more loyal attachment to the church as God's chief agent for the spread of His Kingdom."

An outstanding mission study book came out this year—"The Life of Lottie Moon"; that and the new books "Yoruba Life," and "Baptist Missions in Nigeria," on our Southern Baptist work, have deepened our interest in China and Africa. "Pioneer Women" will fill a long felt need for more about the veterans of the cross in the homeland and we recommend those, with a book on Stewardship, as a fine course for 1929.

Our report of mission study will indicate that some of our members, interested in learning of the needs of the world, are thereby broadening their vision and deepening their spiritual lives. The largest number of classes, one hundred forty, was reported by Piedmont. Chowan reported one hundred nineteen; Mt. Zion one hundred fourteen; and Roanoke one hundred twelve. The largest number of awards went to Mt. Zion; the largest number of official seals to Roanoke. During the year the Advanced Study Course was completed by Mrs. Jerome Triplett and Miss Ella Dickens of Lenoir.

The following Plan of Work was read by Mrs. Wesley N. Jones section by section, and on motion of Mrs. H. T. Stevens, after discussion by Dr. I. M. Mercer of the item concerning the Centennial Campaign, and Mrs. R. C. Smith, Cliffside, and Mrs. J. S. Farmer, Raleigh, in reference to the use of the Heck Memorial Fund next year by the church at Shimonseki, Japan, was adopted:

PLAN OF WORK

Believing it is to our advantage as a State, and to the work of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to our Southern Baptist Convention, to have a unified Plan of Work as far as possible, we recommend:

- I. That the North Carolina W. M. U. adopt the Plan of Work accepted at the annual session of the Woman's Missionary Union and presented to the societies in the minutes and in the Year Book of the Union.
- II. The year 1930 marks the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the State Convention; and as the Convention has inaugurated a movement to raise by that date a fund of $1,500,000 to relieve all the indebtedness on our schools and colleges, we recommend that that effort be given an important place in our aims and efforts the coming year; and that we endeavor to collect not only the pledges made by the members of our missionary societies to this Centennial Fund, but to help in collecting all pledges made by the churches, this being in accordance with the plan of our Corresponding Secretary, Dr. Charles E. Maddry.

III. That the Heck Memorial Fund this year be appropriated to the building of a church in Shimonoseki, Japan. IV. That in view of the indebtedness on our boards, we employ no general field worker this year, but we recommend to each Association the formulation of plans by which all churches with no societies may be enlisted in our work, and that the stronger societies may foster the new and weaker societies. That our definite aim for each Association may be:

- 1. A W. M. S. and Young People's organization in each church.
- 2. Each society sending in a report each quarter to W. M. U. Office, Recorder Building, Raleigh, N. C.
- 3. Each society fostering some other organization, either in the home church or in the Association.
- 4. Emphasis in all associational and society meetings on the duty and privilege of tithing.

V. Realizing that our hope for the future of our W. M. Union lies in our Young People's organization, we recommend the election of Young People's Leaders in all of our Associations, that all Woman's Missionary Societies recognize their responsibility to the young people's organizations in their churches; that our Y. W. A. girls and leaders attend the South-wide Camp at Ridgecrest June 18-27.

VI. That we continue to meet a part of the expenses of our Woman's Missionary Union by a contribution from each society during the month of May, the aim this year to be $2,000.

VII. That we urge our societies to make their contributions according to the printed blanks for reports; the gifts each quarter to be for Cooperative Program, Centennial Fund, and the special offering for that quarter as specified on the blank; all Society, Associational, and State reports to run according to the calendar year; reports of gifts to be signed by both the treasurer of the society and the church treasurer.

VIII. That we observe the Weeks of Prayer and Special Offerings as follows:

Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions and Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, December 2-6.

Week of Prayer for Home Missions and Thank Offering, March 3-7.

Day of Prayer and Special Offering for State Missions, September 2.

IX. That the Executive Committee be authorized to appoint a State Stewardship Chairman to cooperate in all plans with the Stewardship Chairman of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention.

X. That as all gifts for Woman's Missionary Union Training School at Louisville, Ky., Margaret Educational Fund for children of our missionaries, and Sunday School Board Bible Fund, are reported by the W. M. U. of Southern Baptist Convention as W. M. U. Specials, we take as our apportionment for this fund:

To Current Expenses, W. M. U. Training School$	1,800.00
To Margaret Educational Fund	900.00
To Bible Fund Sunday School Board	250.00
*	2,950.00

That the scholarship fund for the W. M. U. Training School, including the Louis Castlebury Scholarship, be $1,600.

That this $4,550 be apportioned to the five divisions as follows:

Wilmington Division$	400.00
Elizabeth City Division	600.00
Asheville Division	350.00
Charlotte Division	1,700.00
Greensboro Division	1,500.00
•	4 550 00

XI. That we take as our goal for the year 1929, $300,000.00:

First	Quarter	(January,	February,
M	arch)			75,000.00
Second	l Quarter	(April, Ma	y, June)	75,000.00
Third	Quarter (July, Augu	st, Septem-
b	er)			75,000.00
Fourtl	n Quarter	(October,	November,
D	ecember)			75,000.00
				$300,000.00

This amount, which includes all gifts to the Cooperative Program, Special Offerings, Orphanage, and Centennial Fund, to be the goal which our Associational Superintendents shall set before their respective Associations.

On motion of Mrs. C. L. Haywood, a telegram of love and appreciation for the beautiful flowers sent to the Union was sent to Mrs. Livingston Johnson, Raleigh; and one to Mrs. F. D. Lethco, Charlotte, second vice-president, who could not be present at this session.

The following report of the Committee on Time and Place was read by Mrs. A. O. Moore, Salisbury, which was adopted:

TIME AND PLACE

We, the Committee on Time and Place recommend to the Union that we gratefully accept the invitation extended by First Baptist Church of Elizabeth City to meet with them in the annual session of 1930.

That the time be changed to second week in March—March 11-13, to avoid conflict with Week of Prayer for Home Missions.

Respectfully submitted,

The report on Resolutions was read by Mrs. J. C. Hough, Kinston, and adopted with a rising vote as follows:

RESOLUTIONS

We, the delegates and visitors to the twenty-ninth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union, wish to express our sincere appreciation for the gracious hospitality extended us by our High Point friends.

We thank Mrs. C. E. Siceloff, and her efficient co-laborers, not only of Green Street Church, but of all denominations in the entire city, for their untiring efforts in extending their cordial hospitality. Quoting Mrs. John Wacaster, in her unique response, "We have truly reached the High Point geographically, financially and spiritually."

The Program Committee reached a "High Point" when they selected Dr. J. Powell Tucker for the sermon, Dr. F. P. Gaines for the address, and Mrs. P. C. Brantley to further impress the messages through her beautiful songs. Dr. Tucker, in his soul-stirring message on "The Lord, He is God," presented a challenge to the highest and best in us all. May we solve the problem as set forth by Dr. Gaines in his appeal to us to build a program that will absorb the energies of our young people. A rare and exalted privilege is ours in having our beloved South-wide leader, Mrs. W. J. Cox with us. For the vision of World needs and world opportunities which were so wonderfully brought to us by her, we are most grateful. Any message from the Training School touches our hearts in a tender way, but to have the Principal and mother of our Training School girls, Mrs. Janie Cree Bose, with us, is really a wonderful treat. As women, we covet her opportunity of mothering and directing the lives of this young womanhood, who are so peculiarly our responsibility. We wish to thank Miss Clara I. Cox for the wonderfully helpful and inspiring message on "Inter-racial work in North Carolina." The devotional periods have been a source of inspiration and information to us, and we feel that the seeds which have been sown will bring forth abundant fruit in the days to come.

And to our State officers who have served us so faithfully and tirelessly another year, we extend our deep gratitude and warm affection. Their speeches and reports are an incentive to "Carry on" in a greater way than ever before. The strength, fortitude and Christian character of our noble President, during this past year, which has been so trying to her, has touched our hearts, and made us to know how real is the presence of her Master in her life.

With grateful hearts we wish to express our deep appreciation for the marvelous service of our Young People's Leader, Miss Dorothy Kellam. During the past five years she has won the esteem and admiration of thousands of young people through whom the influence of her personality will live through the years. She will soon lay down her work here for another to take up, but the place she has found in our hearts shall never be occupied by another. We shall miss the personal letters from the office and her charming personality at our Conventions. The program of Young People's Evening "Carrying the Thought," "Clasping Children's Hands," will ever live with us, and remind us of her love for the little ones. North Carolina's loss is another's gain.

To our missionaries, Mrs. Bostick, Mrs. Braun, Miss Katie Murray, Mrs. R. C. Smith, and Mrs. W. H. Tipton, who spoke to us and gave us such an insight into the foreign mission work, and who showed us their souls in words and song, we want to express our sincere appreciation of their help in making this Convention more inspiring and making us more determined to give our brothers and sisters the Gospel, which we are enjoying.

We would not forget Oreon Bostick, and Edwin Dozier, who touched the mother heart, as they expressed in such a beautiful way their appreciation for what the Margaret Fund had done for them, and was doing for all Margaret Fund students over the Southland.

We commend Mrs. E. N. Gardner, of the Liberty Association, and Mrs. J. S. Slate of the Pilot Mountain and their fine Associations, in taking the banners for high standard in Christian service.

We especially thank the Press; Luncheon Committee at Green Street; those who arranged the wonderful Superintendents' luncheon at First Baptist Church, Tuesday; Mr. J. D. Barnette, his co-laborers and all others who furnished music; the Chamber of Commerce for their efficient work; and the police force of the city for their assistance and protection. To the Chamber of Commerce, C. C. & F. Motor Co., Southern Supply Co., City Fuel Co., Thomas Mills, Cecil Drug Co., Commercial Bank and Baptist Book Shop, we extend our thanks for the favors. And to the florists of the city who helped to make the building more beautiful, we wish to say "thank you."

Finally, we rejoice with the great number of followers in this church, who, under the leadership of Herman T. and Mary Warren Stevens, are laboring towards the bringing in of the Kingdom. May their untiring efforts continue to inspire others in spreading the Gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth.

Therefore, be it resolved:

First, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of this organization; second, that a copy be given publicity in the papers of this city.

Mrs. W. N. Jones presented the newly elected Young People's Leader, Miss Alva Lawrence, who spoke briefly.

The closing devotional service was led by Mrs. J. H. Dew, Ridgecrest, reading Psalms 116:1-2, and speaking on "The Encouragements to Pray."

Final enrollment was announced: 550 delegates; 500 visitors. Total, 1.050.

After prayer by Dr. I. M. Mercer adjourned.

THURSDAY EVENING, 8:00 O'CLOCK

This evening's session was devoted to young people's work, and was presided over by Miss Dorothy Kellam, Young People's Leader for the past five years.

After prayer by Mrs. B. K. Mason, Greensboro, "Come Women, Wide Proclaim" was sung. The devotional service was led by Miss Madeline Elliott, student worker at Meredith College, reading Mark 10:13, 14, 15, and sounding the keynote of the evening "Come, Clasping Children's Hands."

Mrs. J. C. Canipe, Siler City, awarded the young people's banner for the greatest improvement to the Pilot Mountain Association, which was accepted by Mrs. J. S. Slate, Young People's Leader for that Association.

The following program was rendered, the general theme being "Clasping Children's Hands":

- 1. In the Church-Miss Inabelle Coleman, Greensboro.
- 2. In the Association—Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain and Mrs. F. F. Shores, Monroe.
 - 3. By Program Building-Mrs. R. L. Wilburn, Roxboro.
- 4. Through World Comrades—A Demonstration presented by Miss Vera Ruth, Burlington and a group of young people.
- 5. In the Southwide Camps—Miss Alice Witherspoon, Winston-Salem.
- 6. Mrs. W. N. Jones spoke on "A Work of Faith, a Labor of Love, a Hope for Coming Years," after which Miss Joy Beaman, Boone, gave a challenge for a larger and finer service during the coming year.

The reading of the minutes was dispensed with and they were referred to the Executive Committee for approval.

On motion, the Convention adjourned to meet in Elizabeth City the second week in March, 1930, after the benediction by Rev. Walter M. Gilmore.

MRS. WESLEY N. JONES, President.
MRS. WALTER M. GILMORE, Recording Secretary.

Constitution

PREAMBLE

We, the women of the Baptist churches of North Carolina, desirous of stimulating the missionary spirit and the grace of giving among the women and children of the churches, and of aiding in the collection of funds for missionary purposes to be disbursed by the State Mission Board and the Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention, adopt the following Constitution:

ARTICLE I

Name

This organization shall be known as the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention.

Object

The object shall be threefold: (1) To stimulate a broader religious development on the part of the Baptist women and girls of the State, to train the children in Christian work, and enlist all in active personal endeavor for the salvation of those in their own communities. (2) To receive and distribute missionary information, to stimulate effort to encourage the organization of Missionary Societies and Bands among the women, young people and children. (3) To encourage the earnest, systematic cooperation of women and children in contributing money for missions at home and abroad.

ARTICLE III

Officers

Section 1. The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents; one located at W. M. U. Headquarters and one from the State at large, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, a Recording Secretary, a Young People's Leader, a Mission Study Superintendent, and an Editor; who, together with sixteen ladies residing in or near Raleigh, shall form the Executive Committee.

Election

Sec. 2. These officers and sixteen ladies, who, together with them compose the Executive Committee, shall be annually elected on the last day of the Annual Session after nominations by a Nominating Committee, composed of ten members, two from each division; this committee being elected from the floor.

ARTICLE IV

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Union shall decide.

ARTICLE V

Representatives at Annual Meeting

Those entitled to membership in the Annual Meeting shall be the officers of the Union, Executive Committee, the Division Superintendents, the Associational Superintendents, five representatives from the entertaining society, with one representative from a society, provided no church has more than three delegates. Only such delegates as are personally present and duly accredited by the Union shall be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE VI

Conduct of Meeting

Every session of the Union shall be opened and closed with religious exercises.

ARTICLE VII

Program

The program shall be arranged by the Executive Committee in conference with the committee of the society with which the Annual Meeting is held.

ARTICLE VIII

Amendments

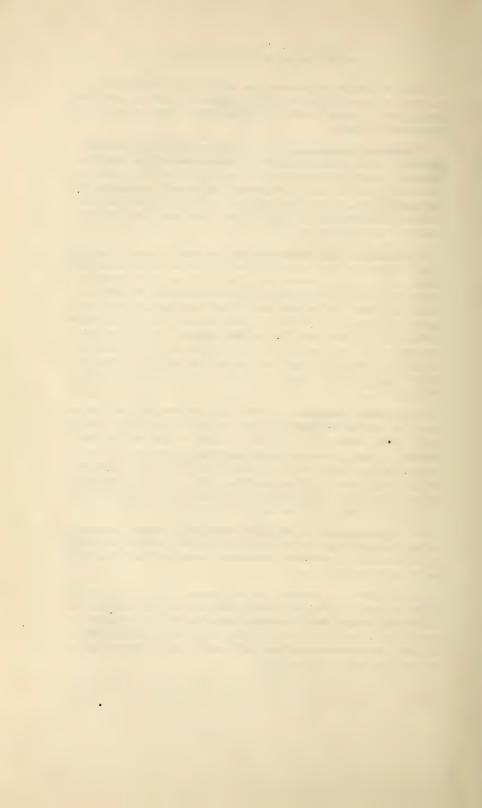

This Constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any Annual Meeting, one month's previous notice of proposed change having been given through the Executive Committee.

By-Laws

- 1. President—The President shall preside at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union and all meetings of the Executive Committee, shall appoint all committees not otherwise provided for, and shall be ex-officio member of all standing committees. She shall also be the State Vice-President of the Southern Woman's Missionary Union and shall endeavor to keep the State work in line with the plans of the General Union. She may, through the Recording Secretary, call special meetings of the Executive Committee when in her judgment needed, or at the request of five members of said Committee.
- 2. Vice-Presidents The First Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, preside at monthly meetings of Executive Committee, and at the Annual Meeting of the Union. In the event that the First Vice-President cannot assume these duties, they fall upon the Second Vice-President.
- 3. Corresponding Secretary The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Union, present reports of the condition of the work at the Annual Meeting, keep a record book as a source of information, organize societies, send out blanks for quarterly reports, conduct the W. M. U. Department of the State denominational paper, and attend to other business usual to, the office.
- 4. Treasurer—It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to keep an accurate account of all money contributed to missions by societies to objects included in the annual program, when reported to her through receipts signed by the church treasurer, or sent direct to her. She shall make out a quarterly report at the close of each quarter, and an annual report to be submitted to the Woman's Missionary Union Annual Meetings. She shall keep an account of the receipts and disbursements of all money sent to her for special Woman's Missionary Union funds, and render quarterly and annual reports of same.
- 5. Recording Secretary—The Recording Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the annual and special meetings of the Woman's Missionary Union. She shall also notify officers of their election and committees of their appointment, and shall perform other duties usual to her office.
- 6. Young People's Leader—The Young People's Leader and College Correspondent shall have general oversight of the Junior organizations of the Woman's Missionary Union and with the cooperation of pastors, superintendents, and officers of societies, shall organize our young people for efficient, systematic mission work. She shall conduct a column relative to Young People's work in the State denominational paper.

- 7. Divisional Superintendents—The Divisional Superintendents shall have general supervision of the Associations in their respective Divisions, keeping in touch with the Associational Superintendents and aiding them in every way possible. They shall be members of the Executive Committee and shall hold an annual meeting in their Division, these Division meetings to be held preferably in the months following the State meeting.
- 8. Associational Superintendents—The Associational Superintendents shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Associational Union. They shall correspond with the President of the Executive Committee and the officers of all Woman's Missionary Societies and Junior Societies in all the churches of their Associations. They shall assist the societies in forming an Associational Union, which shall meet annually. They shall be ex-officio members of the Executive Committee, and shall as frequently as possible attend the monthly meetings of that committee. An annual meeting of the Superintendent and Executive Committee shall be held during the Annual Meeting.
- 9. Executive Committee The Executive Committee shall carry out the instructions of the Union, and transact all business between its sessions. It shall meet monthly, and oftener when necessary. Seven members shall constitute a quorum. When a vacancy occurs, the remaining members of the Executive Committee shall be empowered to fill the unexpired term. The committee shall report at the Annual Meeting and send an annual report to the State Convention through the State Board of Missions.
- 10. Representatives to Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention—These representatives shall be appointed by the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina at its annual session.
- 11. Expenses—In addition to the amount paid by the State Mission Board for printing, postage, and salaries, the expenses of the Woman's Missionary Union office, including traveling expenses of officers on Union business, shall be met by a yearly contribution of ten cents per member from each local society, said contributions to be made during the first quarter.

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

OF NORTH CAROLINA

FORTIETH ANNUAL SESSION

Elizabeth City, N. C., March 11, 1930.

The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, held its fortieth annual session in the First Baptist Church of this city, March 11, 12, 13.

The opening session began Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock, Dr. Gerald H. Payne, the pastor, presiding, with the singing of "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow." Invocation by Rev. J. F. Colston, pastor of the Riverside Church.

After an anthem by the choir, and a hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King," Pastor Payne spoke words of welcome, and presented Rev. R. W. Prevost, pastor of the Corinth Church, who conducted the devotional service, reading the fifteenth chapter of John. Prayer by Dr. J. A. Easley, Wake Forest, after which "Faith of Our Fathers" was sung. Solo by Mrs. Foreman, of the First Methodist Church of this city, followed by silent prayer, Dr. Payne closing.

The annual Convention sermon was then preached by Dr. Ira D. S. Knight, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Durham, using as his text, "Ye serve the Lord Christ," Colossians 3:24, his theme being, "The Servants of Christ."

After prayer by Dr. Knight and singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," the Convention adjourned.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 12

The session was opened at 10:00 o'clock with Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, Raleigh, presiding.

"Faith of Our Fathers" was sung, and the two watchwords were given: "Be ye steadfast," 1 Cor. 15:58, and "For ye serve the Lord Christ," Col. 3:24.

The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. J. L. Carrick, Elizabeth City, who read 1 Kings 19:1-9, and spoke on "What Doest Thou Here?"

On motion of Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Winston-Salem, the calling of the roll was dispensed with, and those whose registration cards have been turned in to the Secretary up to this time were recognized as constituting the organization, and the Secretaries were empowered to add to the list the cards that subsequently may be deposited.

On motion of Mrs. J. W. Carroll, Wallace, the program as arranged, and in the hands of the delegates, was adopted as the order of business of this session.

The address of welcome was made by Pastor Gerald H. Payne, instead of Mrs. I. A. Ward, the General Chairman, because of serious sickness in her home.

Mrs. Herman T. Stevens, High Point, responded to the address.

Mrs. Livingston Johnson, Raleigh, sent the Convention a vase of beautiful carnations, with the following message, read by Mrs. W. N. Jones: "For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ," Col. 2:5. On motion of Mrs. G. T. Lumpkin, Winston-Salem, the Secretary was instructed to send a message of love and sympathy to Dr. and Mrs. Johnson, Dr. Johnson being reported sick.

The following visitors were recognized: Mrs. G. R. Martin, Norfolk, Va., Stewardship Chairman W. M. U. Southern Baptist Convention; Miss Blanche Sydnor White, Richmond, Corresponding Secretary W. M. U. of Virginia; Mrs. Weston Bruner, Portsmouth, Va., a former member of the Executive Committee of North Carolina, who spoke to the Convention.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris presented her report as Corresponding Secretary. On motion of Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain, it was adopted.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

An old grammar defined "verbs as words signifying "to do" "to be" or "to suffer." Our missionary organizations have been left "to do" the work of missions, "to be" the force for disseminating missionary information; and from the beginning "to suffer" at the hands of the brethren. How like verbs they are!

Let your thoughts go back to that time when you were learning the different kinds and forms of verbs—the tense, the mode, the voice, and the meaning of each form. Those regular, irregular, weak, strong, active, passive, direct, indirect, and so on. What a puzzle it was! Some were alike in the present tense, but differed widely in other forms. Only by drill, and the oft repeated "how" and "what" and "why" did we learn to place them properly.

In somewhat the same way, yet from quite a different viewpoint we come to sum up our year's work, for the irregular, the regular, the weak, the strong, the active, the passive organizations are with us. I am asking "why" the irregular, "hit or miss," spasmodic organization does not change form and become regular? We had 1,168 organizations that reported on time every quarter. Just one extra effort and 462 that reported three-quarters could have been in the column of "regular." "To stimulate an interest in missions" for the winning of a lost world was the purpose of our organization. To study, to pray, to give for that purpose only one-quarter in the year will not keep up interest. The fact that after 1900 years there are 1600 million people who do not yet know Jesus should challenge the constant service of all.

There are about 900 who report once or twice during the year—choosing to be regularly irregular. The verb in the active voice is easily handled, but the passive gives the trouble. Many organizations fit into this classification. We are very lenient—classifying any organization that sends us just one report in the year as active, and it is retained on our list, though passive for most of the time. The activities of those that did not once report we considered so in the past that we dropped them from our mailing list. Our strong and weak societies conform to much the same definition as verbs. Our strong societies are those not always big in number but those that stand firm to their purpose and work—to be a missionary organization—while undergoing many changes within from year to year. The weak ones, often big in numbers, take on all kinds of work which the church as a whole should do, and so change, often, that like the participles they are hybrids, difficult to place or use, and sometimes cease to be missionary at all. There is the dependent society, capable of tremendous force but must have some support and encouragement to show its true worth. Just here is where the fostering by a strong organization can count for so much—and it should be counted all joy "to lift and lend a hand" until leaders are developed. Let's not live in the atmosphere of the subjunctive mode, doubting if we can, wishing we could, pretending we cannot, but move out into the positive assertive air of the indicative and go forward conquering and to conquer the indifference to the great opportunities that are ours in 1930. Green, the historian says: "The world is moved forward not by mighty shoves of great heroes, but by the aggregate of the tiny pushes of each honest worker." Let's encourage the tiny pushes of each one, and keep alive every honest purpose for advancing the Kingdom.

Some changes have been made in Associations, Green River dividing into two, Green River and Blue Ridge, the former remaining in Charlotte Division and the latter identifying itself with the Asheville Division. Mrs. J. L. Morgan is the Superintendent of the Blue Ridge, and Mrs. Rollins remains in charge of Green River. Neuse-Atlantic has been made two; the Neuse, with Mrs. J. C. Hough, Kinston, Superintendent and the Atlantic with Mrs. R. N. Scott, remaining as Superintendent. Pilot Mountain was the only Association to employ a field worker. They had Miss Cora Lee Cannon for two months.

The two days' conference at Ridgecrest last July when seventyfive women came together with their "whys and hows" proved a delightful and profitable occasion. July 20-26, 1930, will be North Carolina week at Ridgecrest and we hope to have there many of our women and young people for conferences and study classes.

We eagerly lay hold of new verbs coined each year to express new ideas and new activities, but never think of discarding the old ones. If we were only just as careful to keep the old organization each year as well as add new ones we would enlarge our mission work as we do our vocabulary. Last year we had 414 new organizations, but let so many die that we did not even "hold own own," having at the close of the year 2,530 active organizations. For 1930 let the slogan be "keep everyone." The verb "won" is but the adverb "now" turned around, so let's put to work this modifier, and keep so constantly working with it that one year hence it will with a beaming face be "W O N."

In our "parsing days" we all were so happy to come to a regular verb, for the rules and regulations so easily applied meant a fine mark for that lesson. We have many organizations regular enough to send in Standard of Excellence reports; and of those, 705 were on the Standard—118 class D; 168 C; 173 B; and 246 were A-1. They were regular all the year through, in meetings, in gifts, in reports, in periodicals, in mission study, in Seasons of Prayer, in personal service, in fostering the organizations for young people. How such organizations help out Miss Hunter's books! How we rely on these to bring up a good mark for North Carolina.

Of the 126 churches having full graded Unions nine were A-1: Boiling Springs; Durham, First; Durham, Grace; Durham, Temple; Elizabeth City, First; Elizabeth City, Blackwell Memorial; Greensboro, First; Winston-Salem, East Fourth Street; Badin. These will be sent a purple banner from Southern W. M. U. Headquarters this year instead of presenting them at the annual meeting of Southern W. M. U. and this is the last year these banners will be presented, because it interested so few churches, that it did not justify the expense.

Mount Zion Association had 64 societies reaching the Standard of Excellence; 38 being A-1; Roanoke 57, 17 being A-1; West Chowan 48, 13 being A-1; Chowan 45, 17 being A-1; Pilot Mountain 37, 24 being A-1.

Some verbs in their very name carry tremendous force, such an one is "throb." As we present statistics we would not have you see cold figures, but great warm hearts throbbing with love for our Master's work. Charlotte Division again led in gifts; and the Associations stood, Piedmont first in gifts, Pilot Mountain second, Mount Zion third, in the same rank as last year. The following Associations met their apportionment: Avery, Brushy Mountain, Carolina, Catawba River, Central, Flat River, French Broad, Gaston, Green River, Haywood, Piedmont, Pilot Mountain, Rowan, South Fork, South Yadkin, Stanly, Tennessee River, Three Forks, and Yadkin.

Some one has said: "The temperature of a church is registered by its gifts, but its pulse can be taken only at the prayer meeting." In like manner W. M. U. registers her temperature by her gifts, but to feel her hearts throb we must turn to her prayer-life. We had 146 more organizations observing the regular Seasons of Prayer than in 1928, and the daily prayer calendar brings many "around one common mercy seat" each morning.

In our efforts to further the Kingdom work through Woman's Missionary Union of fifty-six Associations Mrs. Jones reports meetings attended, 34; talks, 19; letters written, 193; miles traveled, 5,470. Your Corresponding Secretary: Associational meetings, 29; other meetings, 22; talks, 76; conferences, 14; study classes, 5; miles traveled, 10,186.

Time IS, thou hast; employ the portion small;

Time FUTURE, is not, and may never be;

Having given the above statistical report I would express my appreciation of the painstaking and untiring service of Misses Elsie Hunter and Ora Alford as they kept the files replenished, and selected, wrapped, and mailed the above.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. EDNA R. HARRIS.

Miss Alva Lawrence, Young People's Leader, read her report, which, on motion, was adopted.

REPORT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEADER

Mary Schauffler Platt, in the introduction of her book "A Straight Way Toward Tomorrow," tells us very effectively of her dream as she slept on the sands of the seashore. "Behold, I saw in my dreams One who was so strong and wonderful and beautiful to look upon that I could not take my eyes from His face, until I heard a sound of countless feet approaching. Thereupon I turned, and saw that many, many people were coming toward Him from the east and west, from north and south. They came singly and in twos and threes, then in larger groups and in great processions. And as each set came before Him they seemed to me to be rendering to Him some report and to listen anxiously, eagerly, some sadly, some rejoicingly, to what he said unto them.

"Finally I saw in my dream a large gathering of earnest women of many races and varying garb, but walking gladly together under a banner on which was written in large letters: THE CHRISTIAN WOMEN OF THE WORLD. As they came earnestly and humb'y to stand before the Master, I heard Him ask them 'and what have you to tell me of the task I entrusted to you?'

"'Master,' they said 'we have tried to tell the news of Thy Kingdom. We have earnestly endeavored to teach these who do not know Thee and to lead them hither to Thy feet. But, O Master, we feel that in so many ways we have failed. The task is so great and our eyes are ofttimes blinded by self-satisfaction or weariness or discouragement.'

"The Master looked upon them with love and not with chiding, though well they knew, and He knew that in the task assigned they had many times lagged. . . The Master said in His kindly tones: 'How are the children, my little ones, whom I fain would gather in my arms and carry in my bosom? Are they all cared for and taught and loved? Are their minds and hearts trained with great care, that they may be ready in their own time to take up wisely the work of the world?'"

This question we must face. What of the children of your own church and of neighboring churches? Are they cared for and taught and loved and trained to take up wisely the work of the world?

There were organized in 1929 the following new young people's societies: 49 Y. W. A.'s; 95 G. A.'s; 65 R. A.'s; and 110 S. B., total new societies, 319.

The number of A-1 societies for the young people are 165, as follows: Y. W. A., 29; G. A., 57; R. A., 27; Sunbeam, 50.

Many of our women have done well in teaching the purpose of the missionary organizations, for the gifts of the young people are a proof of their teaching. The Sunbeams have given for 1929, $6,666.34. The G. A.'s increased their gifts both over the 1927 and 1928 record by giving $7,717.18. The R. A.'s also increased their gifts over the two previous years' contribution—$4,146.90. The Y. W. A. fell a bit under their gifts of 1928, the Ruby Anniversary year, but exceeded 1927 gifts by a healthy ten per cent increase, which takes them over the top with $22,524.19.

A second proof of the good work of our women in teaching the real, vital things of W. M. U. is shown in mission study awards. Two thousand four hundred and thirty certificates, 4,004 seals, 199 reading cards and 344 reading stamps is the statistical report but results in this great work cannot be measured in numbers.

Just because Miss Kellam was not here to keep behind the folks and I was too new to see the need there was a decided falling off in the number of G. A. and R. A. camps. According to our records, Roanoke, Chowan, West Chowan, Tar River, Wilmington, and Carolina were the only Associations that fostered camps for the young people. Your Young People's Leader, who attended four of these in person, can testify to the fine spirit of the boys and girls and of the worthwhileness of the camps. Two hundred seven certificates and 350 seals were given to boys and girls who went back to their churches with proof that all play and no work is not the slogan of our W. M. U. Young People's camps.

Ridgecrest Camp has its page to add to the annals of 1929. North Carolina continues to hold the attendance record for the South. There were 41 girls from different sections of our State convening with the girlhood of the Southland. The camp was a success in every sense of the word.

The interest, earnestness and intelligence of the college Y. W. A. is needed to complete the activities of the Young People's work. Six of our Baptist colleges and schools reported A-1 Y. W. A.'s for the year—Boiling Springs High School, Campbell Junior College, Chowan College, Mars Hill Junior College, Meredith College, and Wingate Junior College are on the honor roll for the year 1929. North Carolina College for Women, Mars Hill, Meredith, Wingate, Campbell, and Appalachian State Teachers' College have each had a week of mission study. (Appalachian State Teachers' College at Boone is our newest college Y. W. A.) The study classes in each case were largely attended, 287 Y. W. A. certificates and 421 seals having been awarded students in our colleges.

Our new Y. W. A. magazine, The Window, has met with a hearty response in our State. For the last quarter of 1929 our quota was 340 and the number of subscriptions sent in was 560.

World Comrades failed to reach its high water mark by some 200 subscriptions, although 1,641 subscriptions were sent in for the State.

Miss Juliette Mather, Young People's Secretary of the W. M. U. of the South, gave two weeks to our college mission study work spending a week each in North Carolina College for Women and Mars Hill respectively.

Miss Pearle Bourne, Associate Young People's Leader of the Southern W. M. U., spent a week with us at Meredith in a Y. W. A. study course. North Carolina appreciates the valuable service of these earnest, consecrated workers.

Jesus told the rich young ruler to "come follow." Are we inviting the young people and children of our State to "come follow" as we lead them into an enlarged missionary enterprise by fostering all our W. M. U. young people's societies?

Already we are started well into 1930. What shall be our report to the wonderful One? Shall we be able to say that we have done our best to train them to carry on the work He has for them to do? "O that each in the day

Of His coming may say,

I have fought my way through;

I have finished the work Thou didst give me to do."

Mrs. Edna R. Harris presented her report as Chairman of Mission Study, which was adopted.

MISSION STUDY REPORT

From our records we find fewer record cards, but a thousand more silver seals than in 1928 which shows that many are continuing their study, and a large increase in second official seals and Home and Foreign Certificates means that many "keep on keeping on." The largest number of awards went to Mt. Zion Association. During the past year many of our Associational Mission Study Chairmen have taken their office seriously and to them we are grateful indeed for the help given and for the general interest awakened. The blank sent out for reports on mission study proved most helpful the first year, and we expect greater results this year. Some chairmen are accumulating mission study libraries; the Association buying a few sets of books each year and asking strong societies to donate books used by classes. In this way, by paying postage only, one set of books may be used by a number of societies.

In cooperation with the pastor we urge every society to plan for a school of missions during the year. Once one is held you will want to have one annually.

Two completed the advanced course during the year, Mrs. John Mayo, Jr., and Mrs. W. W. Taylor of Bethel, N. C.

Henceforth two mission study classes must be held each year in order to reach point seven on the Standard of Excellence.

Edwin Burke said: "A great empire and little minds go ill together. We ought to elevate our minds to the greatness of that trust to which the order of Providence has called us." Truly we could say we have a great empire in the work we are called to do—"Laborers together with God;" and truly are little minded in our knowledge of a lost world.

"Missions," Dr. Carver says, "means telling the good news where it is news" and the millions who have no knowledge of our Christ compose our empire. How may we know about the conditions, and needs of this empire unless we study all the time? So vast is it with its hundreds of millions of lost men and women that we must continue to enlarge our vision by study, or we grow dwarfed, selfish minds.

"God came down from Heaven
To teach me how to live;
God came down from Heaven
To teach me how to give;
God came down from Heaven
To teach me how to die;
God came down from Heaven
To lift my dreams on High;
O, I am big, nor poor, nor small
Since He has thought me worth it all."

McLean, Wilson; Mrs. W. R. Tyner, Lowe; Mrs. J. D. Turner, Wallace; Mrs. E. Clyde Johnson, Durham; Mrs. Ira E. D. Andrews, Clayton.

Resolutions—Mrs. W. R. Stephens, Colerain; Mrs. Leslie Newman, Stantonsburg; Mrs. O. G. Tillman, Asheboro; Mrs. J. M. Cates, Raleigh; Mrs. I. T. Newton, Chadbourn; Mrs. M. O. Summerlin, Mount Olive; Mrs. Isabella Parris, Asheville; Mrs. Charles Thomasson, Canton; Mrs. Claud Gore, Rockingham; Miss Lucile Wright, Ellenboro.

The following reports of the Divisional Superintendents were presented and adopted:

REPORT OF ASHEVILLE DIVISION

With the coming again of the time for the enumerating of our blessings for the past year, we find ourselves almost overcome with joy and thanksgiving. In spite of all handicaps and problems so many of our women have labored faithfully and well in the Asheville Division.

The tone of the annual reports are of various colors when looking over the past, but all display an optimism for the future which when viewed with the same glasses look to a goal which by God's help can only be to His Glory.

Leadership on the part of some of our superintendents and workers in the mountain associations must be heroic, self-sacrificing and God-inspired, to keep on, year after year, tilling and watering, in sections which to the present eye seem remote and irresponsive. Yet, many of these laborers spend themselves, again and again, and time that would seem more fruitfully spent elsewhere, persisting in gaining and trying to nurture W. M. U. organizations. Only God knows what harvest may some day result from seed sown by these faithful women, many of whom are willing to do, as best they may and by His help, that of which they feel incapable, in lieu of consecrated greater efficiency in leadership. We are so grateful that Christ called men and taught them and for II Timothy, 2:15.

A few of our Associations reached their apportionment in gifts this year, but we dare say not one is satisfied, though all are most grateful for the year's achievements under God. Indeed, we are all penitent and humiliated at our failures.

The Haywood, the Avery, the Tuckaseigee, Tennessee River, French Broad, and the Western North Carolina met their financial apportionments, but did not pass these sufficiently to make up the Division's deficit.

The group plan and quarterly meetings have helped a part of our Associations very much.

There is still a great lack of literature and the study of the same in the Associations, but the greatest lack along this line is in the reading of the State denominational paper. The superintendents are endeavoring to create a realization of the need in the churches for information such as is only disseminated by the Biblical Recorder. We think it well-worth our time to pause for this very thing.

In the Asheville Division (and shall I call it antiquated) there is still the problem of getting things which have been accomplished, reported. Under the same principle many of the women who read mission study books are satisfied with the information received and do not apply for credits. Nevertheless, we are improving along both lines, as we are in the number of cooperative denominational pastors in the churches. The Buncombe superintendent reports: "Our pastors in this Association are really Missionary." We report with deep gratitude:

W. M. S. awards—724 silver seals, with 52 classes taught—26 of these being in the Buncombe. Y. W. A. gold seals, 275, with 17 classes taught. The Three Forks leading in awards. G. A. seals, 98 with 15 classes taught. The Buncombe led again, with Tuckaseigee second. R. A. seals, 35 with 7 classes taught and the Buncombe coming first. Sunbeam, seals 106, with 4 classes taught; the French Broad leading with 60 seals.

Many of our societies have done a creditable amount of Personal Service which we feel never detracts from any other part of the work when executed solely in His name, the Carolina fostered a Girl's Camp. Many have made extra gifts, provided scholarships, etc. Our poor record in soul winning, we pray, is due to modesty in reporting rather than to lack of exhaustive effort, since herein lies the real reason for our existence in organization. The Division Superintendent recommends our Associations always centering on the Cooperative Program and special offerings to Home, Foreign and State Missions and to W. M. U. Specials, believing that this will have a tendency toward the uplift of conditions existing in the bounds of our Convention, at present.

Our annual Divisional meeting was held with Burnsville Church in May, very gratifying was the attendance and participation on program.

We welcome with open arms a new Association—the Blue Ridge—with Mrs. J. L. Morgan of Marion as Superintendent. Coming from the ever victorious Charlotte Division we trust them to bring us a glorious example of excellency in service and gifts.

We think we can say with Tiny Tim, "We love everybody."
Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. R. MORGAN, Division Superintendent.

REPORT OF CHARLOTTE DIVISION

(Presented by Mrs. J. J. Roddick)

Through faith in our Father and His promised blessings we present to our W. M. U. Convention the annual report of the Charlotte Division for the year 1929. In June our annual Division meeting was held in Thomasville, a place beloved by all the Baptists of our State. The Liberty Association cordially welcomed us and generously entertained the large assembly of women who attended this meeting. The Charlotte Division desiring to give "sweets to the sweet" arranged through the Superintendent to present the orphans of the Mills Home, a cake shower. Pound cakes, layer cakes, and cakes of all descriptions, with a generous supply of ice cream, were donated by the delegates and showered upon the children of the Mills Home.

Dr. W. D. Bostick and Mrs. Bostick of Shelby, returned missionaries from China, were on our program, also Dr. Kesler and Mr. Johnson, editor of Charity and Children and Dr. Lumpkin. Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Stevens (formerly Miss Mary Warren) were also on the program. Mrs. E. N. Gardner, Mission Study Superintendent, awarded the W. A. Smith Memorial banner to the Pilot Mountain Association. Our seals this year were double that of 1928, Charlotte Division received 6,002 mission study awards and 212 study classes were held. Mrs. Gardner geographically left us and Mrs. S. J. Beeker succeeded her as Mission Study Superintendent.

Our special work over and above our pledges, is the support of Mr. Day, a native worker assisting Dr. H. H. McMillan of Soochow, China. Miss Lazenby, the Division Treasurer, through the voluntary gifts of the Superintendents and their respective Associations, reports Mr. Day's salary paid up to date, which is $25.00 dollars per month. Our personal service gifts were linen showers to the Baptist Hospital.

Again the Charlotte Division leads the State in gifts, contributing to Cooperative Program $96,144.73. Our next annual meeting will be held at Rutherfordton the first week in June.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. L. L. HENRY, Superintendent.

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

In behalf of the members of the Elizabeth City Division, I take pleasure in submitting the following report:

Our women have rendered a glad service during the year 1929, the final results of which will only be known in eternity.

The Chowan Association under the leadership of Mrs. I. J. Ward, and whose guests we are today, has 132 societies, 91 doing organized personal service; 52 having mission study classes; 776 periodicals subscribed for; the annual camp at Virginia Beach, with Miss Lawrence in charge, had 65 young people in attendance, each taking two mission study books. This Association reports four church schools of missions with the men enlisted. They have five county unions with efficient leaders.

. The Neuse-Atlantic Association with Mrs. R. N. Scott directing the work has 43 societies with increased number of tithers, more periodicals taken, a greater number having mission study classes, more observing seasons of prayer and six new organizations. Mrs. Scott has help in this great Association, for with the beginning of the year, it was divided into the two Associations, the Neuse and the Atlantic; the Neuse, under the leadership of Mrs. J. C. Hough, of Kinston. By the manner in which she has taken up the work, we prophesy great things for the Neuse, as well as the Atlantic.

The West Chowan, with our faithful Superintendent, Miss Una White at the helm, carrying on as it does from year to year, aside from its regular offerings through its county unions, has given four scholarships for Chowan College, one county giving two. Two counties are supporting two Bible Women and the Association as a whole supports a missionary in China. One of these counties has a circulating library. Miss Harris, Director of the Young People's Work, held an encampment at Chowan College which proved a great help and inspiration to those attending. This Association made nine points on the standard and but two churches have no organization. Our Divisional meeting will be held at Severn, the home of our Superintendent, on April 23.

Mrs. E. B. Beasley at the head of the great Roanoke Association has more societies reporting regularly—87 out of 156 made as many as four points on the Standard of Excellence; over four hundred tithers are reported; 82 societies have mission study classes; 43 observing seasons of prayer; 12 new societies organized and 1,068 periodical subscriptions reported. One G. A. camp was held; the G. A. and R. A. (Brother and Sister) support a Bible woman and one of our county unions is assisting Rev. Mr. Ayers in his medical course. In spite of financial conditions, they lack but a few hundred dollars of reaching their apportionment. They made nine points on the standard.

The County Unions in our Association are becoming more and more a vital part of our work, many of them meeting quarterly, some carrying their lunches, making it possible to reach the isolated societies and churches with information and inspiration, and with the intensely practical programs and quarterly reports made of their work, keep one in close touch with the local society. So many key women are found in this way, and it means so much to grasp the hand of the individual woman that after all is back of all our work.

We are looking forward to the greatest of all years in the history of our Division in all departments of our work. There is a yearning on the part of our women to be filled with the same Spirit that filled the lives and hearts of those that gathered in that upper room nineteen centuries ago and sent them forth with the same message, to enlist the unenlisted.

They that turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars forever and ever. God help the women of our Division to turn the world to God through our gifts and service, and that glittering jewels shall be gathered in 1930 to lay at His feet and We'll Crown Him Lord of All.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. H. M. FINCH, Superintendent.

REPORT OF GREENSBORO DIVISION

The Greensboro Division held its annual meeting in the Baptist Church at Warrenton, June 7, 1929. The attendance was excellent, and great interest was shown in the meeting.

We are indebted to our State Young People's Leader, Miss Alva Lawrence, for the message she brought us from God's Word and to the young people about their work. Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Hurley, missionaries from Bucharest, Roumania, were with us, and were of help and inspiration to our women.

The reports of our Superintendents showed active interest in the work of our eight Associations. Mrs. Jno. O. Gough, Superintendent of Central Association, presented the Minnie Marshall Buck Memorial Mission Study Banner to the Division. This was a gift from the family of the late Mrs. M. W. Buck. For two years Mrs. Buck was our Divisional Superintendent and gave most loyal service in every way for her Saviour and Lord.

Our annual Associational meetings are held at a separate time and place from the general Associations. It was my pleasure and privilege to attend four of these meetings last year, to render any aid possible and to know better the Superintendents and their co-workers; there were good programs, reports, sometimes with regret that more had not been accomplished. But they expressed a determination to do more the coming year. A deep spiritual atmosphere was through it all. Improvements in ways of traveling have been of great help in reaching our rural societies.

In the annual reports from our Superintendents I find that 2,546 miles have been traveled by them the past year. Mount Zion Association, Mrs. J. L. Gates, Superintendent, leads with 1,483, every W. M. S. (43) sent an annual report for 1929, the first time in the history of the Association. Three of our Associations met their apportionment, Central, Flat River, and Piedmont.

Just a few gifts outside of our regular gifts. To the Nurses' Home at our Hospital, Winston-Salem, a sewing machine was given by the Raleigh Association, Mrs. John D. Berry, Superintendent.

The Chapel Hill W. M. S., Mount Zion Association is contributing to the salary of nine Bible women in China. The Yates W. M. S., same Association, is contributing to the salary of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Olive, missionaries in Chinkiang, China, also sent them a Christmas box.

Piedmont Association, Mrs. Nettie Hoge, Superintendent, has a circulating library of mission study books. There are two new Superintendents in our Division—Mrs. R. L. Wilburn, of Roxboro, for Beulah Association and Mrs. N. W. Weldon, Oxford, for Flat River Association.

Mrs. J. C. Canipe, Young People's Leader for the Division, reports one G. A. camp, Tar River Association; one cheer all club, Sandy Creek Association; one G. A. "Queen," Miss Shirley Stallings, Angier Avenue Church, Mrs. D. E. Ward counselor, Mount Zion Association, the first in our Division and second in the State.

Mrs. D. E. Kearns, Greensboro, Mission Study Leader for the Division reports number enrolled in classes 2,635, number of awards 2,532.

To our Heavenly Father we give thanks for His guidance and blessings on us the past year. We thank our loyal and faithful Superintendents for their work of love, may they have courage to go forward as "laborers together with God" and "the toils of the way will seem nothing, when we get to the end of the road."

The Greensboro Division will hold its next annual meeting with the First Baptist Church, Burlington, May 8, 1930.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. M. WHITTED, Superintendent.

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION

As we review the work of the Wilmington Division, we say with the Psalmist, "O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together."

Even though the heavy rains in many sections have been disastrous to crops, and caused a falling off in gifts, yet under the shadows of disappointment, we see the sun still shining, and rejoice that we feel the great guiding hand of our Master leading us on to still undertake great things for Him.

We have four new Superintendents—Mrs. B. R. Page, in Brunswick Association; Mrs. Paul Bradley, Little River; Mrs. J. L. Olive, New South River; and Mrs. F. S. Teague, Robeson, to whom we extend welcome, and express sincere gratitude to each retiring Superintendent, especially to Miss Mattie Bain, who so long and faithfully served Little River Association.

Our Divisional Conference met in Dunn, Little River Association, in April and the attendance and interest surpassed any meeting previously held. Mrs. Edna R. Harris brought a great message, and Miss Katie Murray, returned missionary from China, thrilled every heart with her message. Five women, leaders of the five grades of W. M. U. societies stood with her, holding lighted candles, then while the choir sang, "Send the Light," the candles were passed from one to another 'till every one present had passed it on, and Miss Murray prayed that we who hold the light of God in our hands shall pass it on 'till the whole world shall see. She attended and gave messages in five Associational meetings in the Wilmington Division and taught several mission study classes.

Bladen Association went forward in a mission study campaign and made nine points on Standard of Excellence.

In Brunswick Association, money was given to a young man entering college and needing aid. They are raising money for a Training School Scholarship.

Whiteville Church in Cape Fear-Columbus Association celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the W. M. S. in August and at the close of a great sermon by Dr. J. M. Kester, they made offering of $203.50 for foreign missions. This society was organized with three charter members, of which only one survives, Mrs. Livingston Johnson of Raleigh. A birthday cake with fifty candles on it was presented to Mrs. J. L. Memory, the oldest member of the society, and for many years the beloved Superintendent of the Association.

The Eastern has a new-found joy in supporting Miss Katie Murray in China. Miss Murray is from Kenansville and the W. M. U. annual meeting was held there in August, when the union pledged their support and she left for China that night. They raised her entire salary with their Christmas Offering, besides making the largest report for other objects of any quarter during the year. Magnolia Sunbeams continued the support of a Kindergarten School in China, also had a beautiful Christmas tree in August and presented the gifts to Miss Murray to take to China. The gifts were put on a tree, Christmas in Chengchow, Honan, for Miss Olive Lawton's Sunbeams.

Johnston Association supports three native workers in China, and Johnston and Wilmington each had 28 mission study classes.

Little River and New South River had a stewardship rally and Little River continues Training School Scholarships.

Robeson gave showers to two returning missionaries, and won the Divisional banner for having the largest number of churches with five grades of societies.

Wilmington has two girls at Training School on their own scholarships. Miss Mary Taylor of Burgaw is using 1928 scholarship, and Miss Rena Rich of Rocky Point is using scholarship given in 1929. A Y. W. A. member of Winter Park in the Wilmington gave $350.00 for Miss Katie Murray's transportation back to China. A Camp for G. A.'s was held at Wrightsville. They lead in number of tithers.

In the Wilmington Division much personal service work is being done for prisoners, county homes, and hospitals, boxes sent to frontier missionaries, canned goods to Training School, white shower to Baptist Hospital.

In the 331 churches, we have 478 societies, of which 284 are young people's, and 21 churches have five grades.

No Association in the Division quite reached our financial aim, and we believe that this failure will grip us with a stronger determination to greater success this year, and more earnest prayer for God's blessings and guidance.

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX, Superintendent.

Mrs. C. K. Dozier, Fukuoka, Japan, Vice-President of the W. M. U. of Japan, was presented and spoke words of greetings from her adopted country.

Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, Raleigh, delivered her annual message as President as follows:

"BE YE STEADFAST"

In an address to the Woman's Missionary Union in Memphis last May, the President of the Southern Baptist Convention, on the occasion of the Ruby Anniversary, said that the growth of the Union brought to his mind two texts—"A little one has become a thousand," and "The handful of corn upon the mountain has become a harvest." This phenomenal growth is due to the fact that in the beginning of our organization there was the realization of a divinely appointed task, and, as expressed in the watchword chosen the first year, we were "Laborers Together with God" in this task.

The achievements of the years have been marked by steadfastness, and it is fitting that the watchword chosen for the beginning of the last decade of a half century of service is the one that is our subject for today—"Be Ye Steadfast." What is it to be steadfast? The dictionary says it is to be constant, unswerving in purpose, unchangeableness. Isn't that true of the host of women who make up our organization? Dr. A. T. Robertson gives the translation as "keep on becoming firm," and says "It is a continuous process that will never cease. The elements of unstability are always present that tend to unsettle those who ought to have firm foundations for their faith."

As we study the history of great movements, of the mighty achievements of the past, we see that only those who have been strong and steady in purpose have been able to bring things to pass. It is not to those of brilliant attainments to whom we owe the marvellous discoveries of the age, as much as to those who have had faith and courage and dominant persistence. Certainly this is true to a marked degree in spiritual things. Judson toiled six years and baptized one convert. His faith never failed amidst circumstances that would have crushed most men, and now in Burmah "That lone believer has become a multitude." One of the notable events in missionary annals the past year was the Ko Tha Byu Karen Centenary. This man Ko Tha Byu, the first Karen convert was a murderer and a bandit chief. He came under the influence of Dr. Judson at Moulmain and was baptized at Tavoy by Dr. George Dana Boardman one hundred years ago. Under the power of the Holy Spirit he led thousands of his people to Christ and today there are more than two hundred thousand Christian Karens in Burmah. Only the ages can tell the whole story, "Be Ye Steadfast."

Our growth has been so marked that today we face a situation undreamed of by the women who in the eighties gathered their feeble forces together and sought for recognition from our various conventions. It is not a matter for congratulation that so much of the gifts to missions in our Southern Baptist Convention come from the women of our churches. Speaking to the General Association of Virginia at Winchester last November, Dr. Rufus Weaver, a former secretary of the Education Board, said "Were it not for the gifts of our Baptist women we would be denominationally bankrupt. In 1916 they reported $416,843 given to denominational causes, in 1929 $4,624,957, or 62 per cent of all our reported gifts to missions, education and benevolences. Nearly all of this came from the 311,255 women who belong to the Woman's Missionary Union. Thirteen years ago the Woman's Missionary Union was expected to raise only about 30 per cent of the money raised by the Convention." The purpose of our organization was never to monopolize or absorb the gifts of the church to missions. It was to stimulate the entire church in its missionary thought and activity as well as to train the women and young people. It is time to ask ourselves if we are failing in this purpose while we are leading our women to heights of sacrificial giving. Steadfast in our aims and purposes but these aims and purposes must follow the Divine leading.

Steadfast in Mind

Steadfastness involves a steadfast mind. "Steadfastness," says Dr. McLaren in one of his sermons, "must cover the whole ground of the whole man, mind, will, heart, practical effort, understanding. With one purpose, one mind, we must cleave to God. There are various forms of resistance to contend with in the continuous forces of our daily lives," and then relates the story of the Sphinx, a face so hard that it would resist the sculptor's chisel yet is worn away by the tiny particles of desert sand blown constantly against it. "The little things that are always at work upon us have most power to sweep us away from Jesus Christ." Is it not a fact that many of us are turned away from steadfastness of mind by the charm and attractiveness of the many claims that constantly present themselves to us? It is easy to turn aside and center one's activities in worth while causes, forgetting that only by giving Christ to the world can we meet its deep need and remedy the evils that these causes would help. There is only one way that we can keep our minds steadfast in the perplexities of modern life. It is by keeping them fixed on Christ. By viewing all matters in the light of His knowledge and His presence.

Steadfast in Faith

Many things in our day tend to hinder that faith in God that brings power to his servants. So many know not what they believeso many are living without a vital connection with the risen Lord that the tendency is to drift with the times. Few can say with Paul "I know in whom I have believed and am pursuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day," or with the sublime faith of Job, say, "For I know that my Redeemer liveth and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth." We find this lack of faith not only in the secular literature of the day but in our religious literature. The radio brings into our homes that we would so carefully shield from danger, the messages of charming and brilliant speakers who question the divinity of our Lord. When Jesus healed the blind man at the pool of Siloam that Sabbath morning, and the Pharisees and the people wondering at the miracle, and angry at His healing on the Sabbath day, and fearing the Jewish leaders, questioned his parents, they answered, "He is of age, ask him," and the man replied "Whether he be a sinner or not, I know not, one thing I know whereas I was blind, now I see." That is the highest testimony of faith, our own experience with God, our personal knowledge of His son and His saving and keeping power. He needs our witness today in the midst of a perverse and an untoward generation. We grieve over the debts that hamper our work, the limitations that mar our service, forgetting that all things are possible with God and that His direct word to us today is "Have faith in God." A writer in the Watchword and Examiner says "Fitz James Stephens describes this present generation after this fashion 'We stand on a mountain pass in the midst of whirling snow and blinding mist through which we get glimpses now and then of paths that may be deceptive. If all stand still we shall be frozen to death. If we take the wrong path we shall be dashed to pieces. We do not certainly know whether there will be any right one. What must we do? Be strong and of good courage. Act for the best, hope for the best and take what comes." How hopeless the pictures here presented! Amid this number standing on the summit of this cold mountain enveloped by the mist and snow, and bitten by the cold north wind, are many Christians who see approaching them the Man of Galilee, who tenderly says to them "I am the way, the truth and the life." Gently He admonishes, "Take up your cross and follow me." Following Him it is not hard to be strong and of good courage, for does He not say "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." Is it not our duty to witness to a cheerless generation, whose souls are groping in the fogs of agnosticism, concerning Him who knows all the pathways and who will gently guide us to a haven of safety?" The greatest service that any of us can render in this our day and generation is to show to the world a triumphant faith in our Divine Lord. "And this is the victory, even your faith."

Steadfast in Service

Steadfast in service to Christ and in His name to our fellow man. Always in keeping with our service to Him will be our service for others. We cannot love Him without loving the world for which He died. How steadfast we have been in our Woman's Missionary Union work is shown by the marvellous record of our ministry of relief through the years, and this record shows only a small part of what has been done. There is a story told by Dr. Horace Hewitt of a little girl in the slums of London who was a hopeless cripple. Her mother also was a cripple and her father, their sole support, a drunkard. Friends who came in contact with the child, saw that she needed to get out of the slums into the clean fresh air and sunshine of the country, but when all the arrangements had been made to give her this change, she refused to go. At first she would make no explanation, but when pressed, she said "My father drinks and when he comes home bad with drink he pitches into mother and I gets in between." That is an illustration of what Jesus has done for us. He got in between us and sin and sorrow, and that is what as His followers we must do-stand in between the deep need of the world, the darkness of heathenism, the hopelessness of sin, the bitterness of poverty and the depths of despair. We must be steadfast in our purpose to stand in between.

Steadfast in Training Our Young People

No age has had so much to say about training its young people. Never was there so much effort to this end and never was there such an apparent lack of training in the home, in the school and in the church as today. Some say leave the young people alone, they will come out all right after a while. Can we follow a policy like that when we can hardly pick up a paper without seeing some story of suicide or waywardness that is heartbreaking? Let us be steadfast in training our young people, beginning in our homes. Let us bring back the day when the busy mother felt that her paramount duty was to teach her children the things of God. Let us pass on to others the blessings that have come to us from early training in the things that are eternal and give our children the precious heritage of a Christian home. We must place more emphasis on our work with our young people. Encourage the most talented, the most faithful of the members of your church to undertake this service. Its possibilities are boundless, its rewards far greater than we realize. One of the most beautiful pictures in our Lord's brief ministry is the picture of His blessing little children. There can be no higher service than gathering the little ones in His name and leading them to His fold. No life is lived in vain that has led a little child to Him. The children are not in the fold, there are many of them out in the darkness of the night. Let us be steadfast in our effort to bring them in.

Steadfast in Love

The apostle John tells us that "He that loveth not knoweth not God, for God is love and His love is perfected in us." Dr. Van Dyke, in one of his poems says "For love is life and they who do not love are not alive, But every soul that loves, lives in the heart of God and hears Him speak." The apostle Paul says, "The love of Christ constraineth us," and no one will question that the motive under all our missionary work, our Christian activity, is love to God. Our service is in proportion to our love. Little love, little service. Great love, great service. We must be rooted and grounded in love, then our lives will develop into that perfection that is God's plan for us. "He looked upon the multitude and had compassion upon them." Only as we comprehend something of His love will we be able to look upon the world in its sin and suffering and be willing to spend ourselves to meet its need. Still the multitudes wander as sheep without a shepherd. Only the Divine love coming into our hearts and lives will enable us to gather them into the fold of His love and mercy. If we fail to be steadfast in love we will not be steadfast in other things, because love is our motive power.

Steadfast in Effort

Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery said in an address some time ago that she believed that when we reached heaven we would be amazed at the power of prayer and the lack of prayer in our lives notwithstanding the marvellous opportunities it opened up to us. Is it not probable that we will be amazed not only at our prayerless lives, but at the failure to realize the marvellous possibilities of laboring together with God. Do we realize the honor, the privilege of being entrusted with His message? Are we putting the best into the work we do for Him? Are we steadfast, unfaltering in our efforts, or do we give Him only our second best? Are there women in your missionary society who are careless and indifferent as to the responsibilities that they have assumed as officers and leaders? Are the programs well prepared? We are told that "whatsoever we do we must do it heartily as unto the Lord and not unto men." Even the most secular duty must be done well. How much more when we undertake a definite service for the glory of God and the coming of His kingdom must we realize that only our very best is acceptable to Him. The problem of our uninterested women, our careless and indifferent members would be solved if we could only bring to them the realization that the Master hath need of them in His great plan, and that they were sharing with Him in His efforts to bring the world out of darkness into His Light. Habakkuk wrote centuries ago "Behold ye among the nations and look and wonder marvellously: for I am working a work in your days which ye will not believe though it be told you." This prophecy is being literally fulfilled today. Dr. Mott, on his return from a visit to the mission fields of the world, visiting sixty nationalities, said recently "I have never seen the influence of Jesus Christ so penetrating, so wide opened, so transforming as I found it in Asia on this recent trip. I found ten million pairs of eyes looking Christward as compared with one million a few years ago. I could not say a more stupendous thing here this morning. We have come into the greatest day we have ever known in our faith. In the light of our marvellous opportunities, let us be steadfast in our work."

"Worlds are changing, heaven beholding
Thou has but an hour to fight
Now the blazoned cross unfolding
On, right onward, for the right,
On, let all the soul within you
For the truth's sake go abroad
Strike let every nerve and sinew
Tell on ages, tell for God."

Steadfast in Prayer

The Woman's Missionary Union has always recognized that the source of power, the source of strength was in God. The passing years have deepened this conviction.

"We kneel how weak, we rise how full of power,
Why therefore should we do ourselves this wrong
Or others, that we are not always strong.
That we are ever borne with care
That we should ever weak or heartless be Anxious or troubled, when with us is prayer
And joy and courage and strength are with Thee."

Only as we bring our lives into harmony with God, only as we are led and directed by Him shall we be able to accomplish the things committed to us. Steadfast in prayer has been an underlying principle in our work. John on Patmos saw the King in His glory opening the book of life and the beasts and the four and twenty elders falling before Him, having every one of them harps and golden vials full of odors which are the prayers of the saints.

In some way according to His plan the blessings we need are dependent on our prayers. We limit the power of God by our failure to ask. In this new decade on which we are entering let us determine that we will let God have His way with our lives, that we will be steadfast in prayer not only for ourselves but for others. That we will remember our stated seasons of prayer, our nine o'clock prayer hour, our missionaries as never before and that His prayer "Thy Kingdom Come" shall ever be on our hearts and lips.

Example of Steadfastness

In the life of our Lord we find not only the perfect pattern of service, but the perfect example of steadfastness. Quoting Dr. McLaren again, "Christ's life was characterized by gentleness, but the gentleness of strength, an inflexible fixedness of purpose, steadfastly setting His face toward Jerusalem and the cross. We can be steadfast because of the steadfast Saviour, the steadfastness of our belief in Him in a day when many question His divinity. Not only is He the example of steadfastness, but only His power can enable us to be steadfast. We must be kept by Him, amid all the changing scenes, the sudden tempest that comes to us in our earthly lives. It is the indwelling Christ, the spirit of God that will hold us firm and true to Him.

The passage of scripture from which the words "Be Ye Steadfast" is taken was written by Paul to the Christians at Corinth. The church seemed to be troubled and confused as to the doctrine of the resurrection. Paul writes to them the marvellous words that have brought joy and comfort beside every open grave through the centuries, words that will bring a message as long as time shall last and concludes with the words "Be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord for as much as ye know your labor in the Lord is not in vain." In the summer of 1928 there was perhaps the most notable meeting that has been held since these words were written. On the Mount of Olives, hallowed by its association with the life of our Lord, there gathered a body of His followers from fifty nations to witness to His resurrection power and to plan for the advancement of the great missionary task that with His last words He committed to His disciples. Two thousand years have passed since He spoke His final words to those who had believed on Him. "Go ye into all the world." His followers have should have not been as obedient to that great command as they been, but what a message of cheer and encouragement it brings to think of these men and women from the nations of the earth gathered together in Christian fellowship to plan for larger undertakings and greater achievements in His name. May we not determine that we will unite our prayers with the leaders of Christianity among the nations of the earth in their determination to pray.

"1. For a Missionary Spirit: That the church may see the whole world's need of Christ and may be ready for any sacrifice in order to make Him known to all mankind.

"2. For a Spirit of Prayer: That Christian people may learn to pray as Christ prayed and taught His disciples to pray.

"3. For a Spirit of Sacrifice: That the church may be willing at whatever cost to follow and to bear witness to the way of Christ as she learns it.

"4. For a Spirit of Unity: That the whole church may desire and experience a new unity in Christ.

"5. For the Gift of Interpretation: That the church may learn to preach the eternal gospel by word and by life in terms that the men and women of this age will understand.

"6. For Courageous Witness in Moral Questions: That the witness of the church in the moral questions of our day may truly reflect the mind of God and may be known and felt throughout the world.

"7. For a Spirit of Service: That a great number of men and women may offer themselves unreservedly to do Christ's work at home and abroad in our generation.

"8. For the Completion of Our Own Conversion: For the removal of all hindrances in our own lives to the manifestation of God's redeeming love and power."

May something of the spirit of those men and women gathered on the Mount of Olives come to each of us. May we catch the vision of the ascending Lord and hear again that last word speaking to our hearts and lives, and may we be filled with the blessed assurance that He is coming again.

MRS. WESLEY N. JONES.

Following Mrs. Jones' address, Mrs. W. C. Twiddy and Mrs. T. S. Johnson, Raleigh, sang a duet, "Seal Us, O Holy Spirit."

Miss Blanche Sydnor White, Corresponding Secretary W. M. U. of Virginia, closed the morning session with a devotional address on "Measuring Our Love."

Prayer by Dr. Weston Bruner, Portsmouth, Va.

The Secretary announced that there were present 374 delegates and 163 visitors. Total, 537.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 12

The session was called to order by the President at 2:00 c'clock.

Singing: "Hark Ten Thousand Harps and Voices."

Devotional service led by Miss Una White, Severn, who spoke on "Steadfastness."

The minutes of the previous sessions were read and approved. The following Nominating Committee was named:

Nominating Committee—Greensboro Division: Mrs. N. H. McLeod, Raleigh; Mrs. John O. Gough, Wake Forest; Elizabeth City Division: Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain; Mrs. C. W. Blanchard, New Bern; Wilmington Division: Mrs. J. W. Carroll, Wallace; Mrs. T. H. Plemmons, Fairmont; Charlotte Division: Mrs. B. F. Bray, Wadesboro; Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Winston-Salem; Asheville Division: Mrs. I. H. Powell, Sylva; Mrs. C. F. Owen, Canton.

The President read the following greetings from Badin, N. C.: "Extend best wishes and prayers for success of our meeting," Mrs. M. W. Small, President Woman's Missionary Society.

Mrs. Jones also read a letter from Mrs. H. B. Moore, Gastonia, inviting the Woman's Missionary Union to meet in Gastonia a year hence.

Rev. W. R. Beach, Clinton, representing the Biblical Recorder, was recognized.

The Stewardship report was read by Mrs. Charles E. Maddry, in the absence of Mrs. J. G. Boomhour, Stewardship Chairman, who was detained on account of sickness in her family. Report adopted.

STEWARDSHIP REPORT

Through the years many of our women and young people have learned more of the mind of our Master concerning the stewardship of life and possessions in the work of our missionary societies. The number of tithers has grown from year to year and many have been led to lay their lives on the altar of service. Yet there is much to be done.

This year marks the beginning of a definite organized effort to bring about a stewardship consciousness among the women and especially the young people of our junior organizations.

This small beginning, we trust under the guidance of our Heavenly Father, may grow into a mighty force in promoting Kingdom work and bring blessings to many in enlarged vision and consecrated gifts and service.

The aim of our stewardship work is to reach the inactive members of our churches and relate them to our missionary enterprises and to stimulate tithing and the consecration of life and possessions for the Master's service.

May we strive together to this end during the coming year, remembering the words of Paul—"But first they gave themselves to the Lord."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. G. BOOMHOUR.

Mrs. Maddry introduced Mrs. G. R. Martin, Norfolk, Va., Southwide Stewardship Chairman, who spoke on, "The Stewardship of Life."

Solo by Mrs. Milton Braun, Chapel Hill.

The report of the Training School Trustee was read by Mrs. H. T. Stevens, High Point, in the absence of Mrs. R. N. Simms. Adopted.

REPORT OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

In the annual report of the Board of Managers of the Training School last year to the Southern W. M. U., the statement was made that the past year was a most marvellous one, the student body interpreting the Spirit of the Master in a wonderful way. Especially was an earnest missionary spirit manifest in the very beginning, as, led by Mrs. Bose, all began to plan and pray for their gift to amount to a "perfect ruby." Their splendid gift of $1,093.00 was sent in honor of Mrs. Bose with a beautiful tribute in verse for the Kentucky Memory Book.

There was a larger number of girls attending last year than for several years, 85 in the house and 54 day students, making a total of 139. All of these girls were happy in taking an active part in the various activities of the school. A "campaign of prayer for the lost" was most successful, over 500 being definitely prayed for and a number of these being won to Christ.

Another splendid endeavor participated in by the students was the City Student Volunteer movement. Divided into groups, the members put on an evening Missionary program in each Protestant Church, thereby arousing a great renewal of interest in missions throughout the city and leading many young people to dedicate their lives for Christian service.

Several departments have been enlarged and all are going forward in a splendid way.

All were made happy by the three large gifts which were made to the School. The $500.00 from Mrs. Heck, of North Carolina, will be used in fittingly decorating the Heck Memorial Chapel. Five hundred fifteen dollars and seventy-one cents from Miss Martha Stamps, of North Carolina, was left for the endowment fund, and the third gift was $1,000.00 left by the will of Mrs. George Wending, of Tennessee.

This past fall has been one full of blessings and growth. The fine spirit of the girls continues and all seem unusually happy in their work. They have been fortunate in having Miss Helen McBride in splendid lectures on church music, Dr. F. F. Gibson to the Personal Evangelism Class, Miss Ethel McConnell, from the Baptist Student Work, and Miss Annie Williams for the week of prayer. All were most interesting speakers and altogether helpful and uplifting.

Delightful social events have been a party for Training School girls and Seminary students given by Walnut Street Church, the Faculty Dinner, at which the faculties of both the Training School and Seminary dine together, Missionaries' Dinner, at which 23 foreign missionaries or their children were present—China, South America, Japan and Mexico being represented—and the married students' reception.

Christmas and Thanksgiving were joyful seasons as usual with lovely turkeys for both times and many other wonderful gifts from the women from all over the Southland. Chief among their Christmas joys, however, said Mrs. Bose, was the joy of having more than $1,000.00 as their love offering for China.

The students have recently pledged $25,000 a month for the next four months of school, to help Mr. and Mrs. Allen, of Brazil, keep a car for their work. So, constantly, are these girls expressing through such acts of sacrifice and generosity, their love for Christ and His cause.

Letters from our own North Carolina girls are full of appreciation for the kindness and generosity of the women of our North Carolina W. M. U. They long to be worthy of your goodness to them in making it possible for them to study there. Let us remember to send them gifts of food and fruits, etc., and best of all, remember to pray for them and for all others connected with the school, that our Heavenly Father may continue to let His favor and blessing be upon this part of our work, so dear to our hearts.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS, North Carolina Trustee.

A letter of greetings from the North Carolina girls now at the Training School in Louisville was read by Mrs. Stevens.

The report of the Chairman of the Margaret Fund was made by Miss Alva Lawrence, Chairman, and after greetings from Miss Nancy McDaniel, Soochow, China, Margaret Fund student at Meredith College, was adopted.

REPORT OF MARGARET FUND

One bright day in a beautiful Roman garden two brothers played among the flowers. Cornelia, their mother, called to them and said "a friend is to dine with us today, and she will show us her jewels." After a simple meal a servant brought in a large and beautiful casket of jewels. How eagerly the boys gazed at those sparkling jewels of pearls, rubies, sapphires, and diamonds. The younger boy whispered, "I wish our mother had beautiful jewels too!"

Later when the boys had gone to play, the friend said, "Is it true that you have no jewels?" "Oh, no" said Cornelia, "I have jewels more precious than yours."

"Oh let me see them, where are they?"

"If you care to see them I will bring them to you." Cornelia called her boys from their play. "These are my jewels, are they not more precious than your gems?"

The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina surely claims our Margaret Fund students as its jewels. Increased interest and joy have come as a result of mothering these missionaries' children.

A little playlet to be used for the Margaret Fund program was sent out in the Recorder in July which introduced each of the North Carolina Margaret Fund students and told where they were attending school and the kind of work they were doing. Their records have been enviable. Where could money have been placed that would have yielded more gratifying results?

In addition to this a beautiful playlet entitled "Love Provides," written by our Southern Margaret Fund Chairman, Mrs. Frank Burney of Georgia, has been sent out in large numbers. These playlets and special letters to individual societies in answer to inquiries failed to produce the desired effect, altogether, for the societies did not send in all the amount recommended for our State, but the fund was supplemented by the office which left no deficit. May we not make a special effort in 1930 to do our full duty toward our students?

Our Margaret Fund which provided scholarships is a measure of our love in numbers. In addition to this, throughout the year small gifts and remembrances have surely made the heart of the giver glad as well as cheered the days of the students who are far from their loved ones.

This year we have four students to mother and have taken a personal pride in doing so. These are Oreon Bostick and Nancy McDaniel of Meredith College, Bryson Tipton of Duke University, Durham, and Edwin Dozier of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky.

The motto adopted by the Margaret Fund Committee for the year 1929 was—"Thou, Lord, seest me."

With His eyes upon us may we continue to do our part toward those who labor for us beyond the seas.

Respectfully submitted,

ALVA LAWRENCE,

North Carolina Member Margaret Fund Committee.

The following returned missionaries were presented: Mrs. M. L. Braun, Miss Attie Bostick, Mrs. P. E. White, Mrs. O. G. Tillman, Mrs. L. V. Coggins.

Dr. J. A. Easley, Wake Forest, was recognized and called attention to the Preachers' School to be held at Meredith College, June 9-19.

Mrs. John O. Gough, Wake Forest, one-time Superintendent of Women at the Baptist Bible Institute, New Orleans, made a brief talk with reference to the value and needs of that institution. The women were asked to send an offering to the treasurer, Miss Elsie K. Hunter, to help bear North Carolina's part in paying the salary of a teacher in the Chair of Missions in this school.

Greetings were read from Mrs. Virginia Rodwell Walters, Macon, N. C.

Enrollment to date announced: 398 delegates; 196 visitors. Total, 594.

Hymn, "He Leadeth Me."

Prayer by Miss Kathleen Mallory.

Adjourned.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, 8:00 O'CLOCK

Dr. Charles E. Maddry, Raleigh, presided over the Wednesday evening session, which was opened by singing, "He Leadeth Me."

Prayer by Dr. S. H. Templeman, Winston-Salem.

Dr. J. L. Carrick, pastor Blackwell Memorial Church, Elizabeth City, conducted the devotional service, reading Matthew 28:18; Acts 1:6-8; Romans 10:13.

Special music was rendered by the choir.

Dr. Maddry read Deut. 32:7, and gave a brief historical background of our organized Baptist work in this State.

The general topic of the evening was, "Our Centennial Campaign."

Mrs. D. P. Harris, Seaboard, a former teacher in Chowan College, spoke in behalf of that institution, giving its history and telling of its achievements through the years.

Miss Madaline Elliott, student secretary at Meredith College, represented that institution.

Solo, "The Old Rugged Cross," by Mrs. Milton Braun.

Rev. Herman T. Stevens, Associate Director of the Centennial Campaign, delivered an address on "Our Task," in which he showed the need of our closing the Centennial Campaign this year in a worthy way by freeing our schools of debt.

After prayer by Rev. Walter M. Gilmore, Raleigh, adjourned.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 12

The session was called to order by the President at 10:00 o'clock.

Hymn, "Hail to the Brightness of Zion's Glad Morning."

Devotional service was led by Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain, who read Exodus 40:1-10.

The minutes were read and approved.

Hymn, "I Need Thee Every Hour."

"Be Ye—Be Ye Not" was the theme of an inspirational address by Miss Kathleen Mallory, Birmingham, Ala., at this time.

Solo by Mrs. T. S. Johnson, Raleigh.

The following greetings were read from Mrs. R. N. Simms, Raleigh: "Greetings and love. May our heavenly Father bless and direct you."

The congregation rose to greet the next speaker, Mrs. C. K. Dozier, Fukuoka, Japan, who spoke on, "Woman's Missionary Union Work in the Sunrise Kingdom."

On motion of Mrs. J. J. Roddick, flowers were sent Mrs. I. A. Ward, General Chairman of Arrangements for the Convention in Elizabeth City, whose husband is in the hospital, as an expression of the love and sympathy of this body.

Duet, "In the Beautiful Garden of Prayer," by Mrs. T. S. Johnson and Mrs. W. C. Twiddy.

Miss Blanche Sydnor White closed the morning session with another devotional address, "Watch Yourselves," 2 John 8.

Enrollment to date, 420 delegates; 288 visitors. Total, 708. Adjourned.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 2:00 O'CLOCK

The session opened at 2:00 o'clock, the President presiding. Song, "Lead On, O King Eternal."

Devotional service led by Mrs. R. N. Scott, New Bern, reading Luke 2:24, and speaking on "Others."

Minutes of previous session read and approved.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris read the Plan of Work section by section, and after discussion by the following ladies, it was adopted:

"On Completing the Centennial"—Mrs. S. J. Everett, Greenville; "On Enlistment"—Mrs. J. C. Hough, Kinston; "Prayer"—Mrs. S. L. Morgan, Smithfield, and Miss Attie Bostick, China; "Young People's Work"—Mrs. E. N. Gardner, Dunn; "Personal Service"—Mrs. C. L. Greaves, Raleigh; "Mission Literature"—Mrs. B. F. Bray, Wadesboro; "Standards of Excellence"—Mrs. E. A. Huggins, Rich Square.

Hymn, "I Love Thy Kingdom Lord."

The following section was added to the Plan of Work:

That $3,000 of the Christmas offering from North Carolina be given to the sending out and support of two new missionaries to Japan, and that this amount be over the amount given to this offering this present year.

Mrs. Haight, of Virginia, a former Superintendent of the Chowan Association, led in special prayer for Miss Naomi Schell and her work in Japan, and also for Miss Ola Lea, in China, who was reported to be sick.

PLAN OF WORK

The Executive Committee of the Woman's Missionary Union recommend the following Plan of Work for the year 1930:

- I. Centennial Fund. Whereas, during the present year it is hoped to complete the Centennial Fund to clear the indebtedness of our Convention, the Executive Committee recommends that this vital matter be given paramount importance in all our plans for the remainder of the year; that we urge all societies to endeavor to secure the full payment of all pledges made not only by their members, but by the members of their churches, and to secure new gifts wherever possible.
- II. Enlistment. As it is evident that notwithstanding the special efforts of the Ruby Anniversary year, there are many women in our churches who are not having any part in the work of world evangelization, and who are not active members of any of our organizations, we recommend as early as possible a canvass of all our churches to enlist our women in the work of the Woman's Missionary Union.

III. Prayer. That in view of the urgent need of all our mission fields, and the heavy indebtedness on our State and Southern Baptist Convention Boards and institutions, we would urge an even greater emphasis on prayer, recognizing that only the power of God is sufficient for these things. All societies are urged to observe the seasons of prayer for Home, Foreign, and State Missions, and each member the daily prayer hour at 9 a.m. Seasons of Prayer are as follows:

Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions and Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, December 1-6.

Week of Prayer for Home Missions and Thank Offering, March 2-6.

Day of Prayer and Special Offering for State Missions, September 8.

- IV. Mission Study. Believing that there can be no deepening of the interest in the work of the Kingdom without definite knowledge as to its growth and progress, we recommend increased effort to get our women to study missions and that each society take as its aim for the year two mission study classes, using one Home Mission book and one Foreign Mission book.
- V. Missionary Literature. Notwithstanding the large number of subscriptions to our missionary magazines, there are many who do not subscribe to any of the publications; therefore, we would urge that plans be made at once to secure an increased number of subscriptions in all of our societies. We ask that each missionary society subscribe to the Biblical Recorder, Home and Foreign Fields, and Royal Service; each Y. W. A., to the Window; and each Junior organization to World Comrades. Endeavor to circulate these periodicals among your membership as largely as possible.
- VI. Young People's Work. We recommend persistent and increased effort to train the young people in our homes and churches along the lines of Christian responsibility and missionary activity, for to them we must look for the future of all Kingdom work, and their training is a trust committed to us.
- VII. Personal Service. That we faithfully minister to those in our communities who have need of our help, keeping always before us that the aim of all personal service is soul winning, and that we do not lose sight of this in our efforts to meet material needs.
- VIII. Standards of Excellence. Believing that the Standards of Excellence presented by our W. M. U. are most helpful in maintaining and increasing the efficiency of the local society, we recommend that they be kept before our members constantly and that we endeavor to secure more Standard societies this year.

IX. Contributions. That we urge our societies to make their contributions according to the printed blanks for reports; the gifts each quarter to be for Co-operative Program, Centennial Fund, and the special offering for that quarter as specified on the blank; all society, Associational, and State reports to run according to the calendar year; reports of gifts to be signed by both the treasurer of the society and the church treasurer.

X. That the Heck Memorial Fund be given this year to Good Will Center Work in Tobata, Japan.

XI. That we continue to meet a part of the expenses of our Woman's Missionary Union by a contribution from each society during the month of May, the objective this year to be $2,000.00.

XII. That we take as our aim for our gifts for the Woman's Missionary Union Training School at Louisville, Ky., and to the Margaret Educational Fund, $2,000.00.

To W. M. U. Specials_____$2,000.00

To Scholarship Loan Funds (including the Louis Castlebury Memorial Scholarship) _______1,800.00

Total ______$3,800.00

The percentage from Co-operative Program to be applied to Current Expenses, W. M. U. Training School.

XIII. That we take as our goal for the year 1930, $300,-000.00. This amount, which includes all gifts to the Co-operative Program, Special Offerings, Orphanage, and Centennial Fund, to be the objective which our Associational Superintendents shall set before their respective Associations.

XIV. That $3,000.00 of the Christmas Offering from North Carolina be given to the sending out and support of two new missionaries to Japan, and that this amount be over and above the amount given to this offering for 1929.

XV. Plan of Work, W. M. U. of S. B. C. That we heartily endorse the Plan of Work presented by the Executive Committee of the W. M. Union, auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, and presented in full in the Year Book. That the valuable information given in this Year Book be brought before the missionary society at some stated time during the year.

Mrs. C. L. Greaves presented her report as Chairman of the Personal Service Committee, which was adopted.

REPORT OF PERSONAL SERVICE

The organized Personal Service work of our Women's Missionary Union starting at first as a small stream has grown to be a mighty river, carrying aged, sick, distressed, needy, and sorrowing people untold comfort, cheer, and blessing. If your Missionary Society has not a Personal Service Chairman or Committee, will you not take this further step this year and place this work in your midst upon a more efficient basis? Our Southwide Personal Service Chairman is Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence. As a Home Board field worker, she acquired a great knowledge of conditions in our Southland, and with rare ability for giving this information to others, we feel sure she will be of inestimable value to Personal Service Work in every state.

The financial depression and consequent unemployment has placed in the midst of almost every community unusual demand for substantial assistance. Surely we want to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and provide warmth and shelter. But let us go about this in a careful way, trying to investigate the cases so that the worthy ones may have the benefit of our generosity. We do not want to shun work in public or private institutions of mercy, but generally these have their necessities provided for. So what we do in these can be in the way of cheer and encouragement, seeking to avoid overlapping of work by other churches and organizations and leaving our money to meet cases of real need, for there are many of them.

One new phase of Personal Service which is brought to your loving consideration this year is that of Mothers' Aid cases. Other agencies are working in this field, but they are unable to meet the demand. The Mills Home has hundreds of applications on file which they cannot help. Write to them asking for a case near you in your Association. The reflex blessing on you will equal that you give.

We changed our report blank the past year, and a study of it makes it self-explanatory. The simplifying of the reports is gratifying to all who have to prepare them. We no longer report to headquarters the number of visits, garments, etc., but simply report the activities or lines of work in which we engage. It is interesting and stimulating for societies to make a detailed report of Personal Service in their own meetings, and this is encouraged.

"Lift up your eyes, and behold the fields, they are white unto harvest—the laborers are few." Be up and doing for the night cometh when no man can work. Remember the aim of Personal Service is to win souls, and "He that winneth souls is wise."

Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Winston-Salem, Trustee of Baptist Hospital, made her report, which was adopted, and to which she spoke.

REPORT OF NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOSPITAL

As one year succeeds another, we are forcibly reminded of the flight of time, with its blessings and its perplexities. As we cross the threshold of the year 1930, the greatest in all history, we realize that we live in a new day of unparalleled blessings of material prosperity such as the world has never witnessed. And yet with it comes the unuttered cry for the personal touch of the living

Saviour. It is the deepest longing of the human soul, and today we face the spirit of unrest in all the world that only this touch of the Master can satisfy. So it is with gratitude that we present to you the Great Physician's program in ministering to the needs of suffering humanity. For in our Hospital in the silent watches of the night, we would ask that the Divine Healer's presence should be so felt as to give that touch between the body and spirit.

After six and one-half years of service of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital to our suffering brothers and sisters, we rejoice to report this last year the best in the history of our work. We had more patients, helped a larger number of needy ones, and spent more on our charity work than in any preceding year. Five thousand three hundred twenty-five came to us from every part of our State, afflicted with many diseases. We gave them the best service we could render in medical skill, Christian nurses and wholesome environments. In return we received many expressions of gratitude and many prayers are being sent up that our work may be enlarged to care for the growing demands that we face during the coming years. Sixteen hundred patients came to us who were unable to pay for their care, 1,109 were part pay patients only, leaving 491 who were all charity patients. We had only twenty-five deaths of the entire number who came to us for treatment. The others returned to their homes improved or cured.

The denomination spent $45,000.00 for charity work done during the year. It is well for us to pause here and think of the large amount that has been spent for our needy suffering brothers and sisters. Of this amount, the Sunday Schools and churches contributed through the Mother's Day offering $15,500.00. We received from the Duke Foundation $8,500.00 which left $21,000.00 to be paid from the operating expenses of the Hospital. But in making this large contribution for charity work, it has been necessary to use the utmost economy and to postpone purchasing much of the equipment we need in our Hospital since the 4 per cent given in the Cooperative Program must be applied for the retirement of the bonds on our building. As that did not reach the necessary amount this year, the trustees were compelled to use more than $3,000.00 again from the operating account. One of the large factors in helping the Hospital to keep out of debt has been the love and loyalty expressed in so many ways by the women of our denomination. You have loved much and served well by your gifts to this part of the Master's work. But let us remember the amount of charity that we will be able to do next year. Sisters, we will depend largely on the individual effort of every woman here today in stressing the importance of the offering on Mother's Day. It is impossible for you to estimate the value of your service to some sick child on this day. Time and eternity alone will reveal what has been accomplished for the Master through your faithfulness in the past. As we view the past with its great achievements, the future beckons us to larger undertakings in His name. May we have a comprehensive vision of that last Great Day, when the Judge of all nations shall sit upon the throne, when He shall say unto us "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of these my brothers, ye have done it unto me. Enter into the joys of thy Lord."

Shall we not say then,

"More love to thee, O Christ,
More love to Thee,
Hear Thou the prayer I make on bended knee,
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee."

For love faileth not.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. J. RODDICK,

Trustee Baptist Hospital.

Mrs. Z. M. Caveness, Raleigh, read the following report on White Cross Work:

REPORT OF WHITE CROSS WORK

Again this year we have not sent any supplies to the Kathleen Mallory Hospital in China, because of the very high rate of tariff. The money sent direct to Mr. McMillan from the Charlotte Division for his helper has been most graciously received. And, in the near future we may be able to again send something to Miss Alda Grayson for the Hospital at Laichow Fu.

The women over the State have contributed the following to our own Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem:

Two pair leggins for operating room; 4 covers for hot water bottles; 41 ward curtains ready for hanging; 14 draw sheets ready for use; 27 small gowns for children; 85 bed jackets for patients; 365 bed sheets; 248 pillow cases; 27 bed spreads; 250 towels; 27 table cloths; 25 wash cloths; fruit for all charity patients at Thanksgiving amounting to $14.00; fruit for all charity patients at Chrismas amounting to $25.00; a Christmas present for each nurse amounting to $54.00; $1.00 for purchase of linen.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. Z. M. CAVENESS, Chairman White Cross. The hour for the Memorial service having arrived, Mrs. Edna R. Harris read the names of the members of the Union who had died since the last Convention. The audience arose and stood while Mrs. T. S. Johnson and Mrs. W. C. Twiddy sang "Beautiful Home."

Fitting tribute was paid by Mrs. John Wacaster, Superintendent of the Kings Mountain Association, to Mrs. A. L. Grayson, who for 27 years was Superintendent of the Green River Association, and who was the mother of Miss Alda Grayson, missionary in China.

Miss Sadie Parham, Oxford, reported for the Time and Place Committee, recommending Gastonia as the next place of meeting and the second week in March, 1931, as the time. Adopted.

Mrs. W. R. Stevens presented the following report as Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, which was adopted by a rising vote:

RESOLUTIONS

We, the delegates and visitors of the fortieth annual session of the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, want to thank the people of Elizabeth City for opening wide their gates that we might come in to receive the blessings brought through this assembly.

Gracious hospitality has been manifested in innumerable ways. We are grateful for the wise planning and careful consideration of Mrs. I. A. Ward, General Chairman, and wish to extend sympathy in the illness of her husband. We want because of the appreciation in our hearts to make special mention of the faithfulness and untiring efforts of Mrs. George Williamson and Mrs. R. T. Venters, Hospitality Committee, and to thank each hostess for the cordial welcome. We express gratitude to Mrs. E. F. Aydlett, Sr., and her committee, for the efficient registration and to Mrs. J. H. Aydlett, Chairman of the Transportation Committee, and to each one who has so graciously used her car for our convenience. We express gratitude to Mrs. S. G. Scott and co-workers for the delicious luncheons; to Mrs. E. N. Ferebee and co-workers for the lovely flowers; to Mrs. John Cartwright and other musicians for the inspiring music; and we also express gratitude to the Chamber of Commerce, the merchants, the bus, the railroad officials and the traffic cops.

We owe especial thanks to the splendid group of young ladies who as ushers and pages, did our every bidding during the meeting. To Rev. G. H. Payne, pastor of the First Baptist Church and the other local pastors, we express our hearty appreciation for their many kindnesses. To all denominations do we extend gratitude for their courtesy and consideration.

For the wonderfully helpful and deeply inspirational program, we are truly grateful. May we be able, because of the message of Dr. Ira D. S. Knight of Durham, to become more faithful servants of the Lord Jesus. Through the message of Rev. Herman T. Stevens may we be more completely enlisted in the Master's cause.

We express sincere appreciation to each of the officers of the North Carolina W. M. U. for the closer view of steadfastness in service. As we listened to the plea for steadfastness by Mrs. Jones, our beloved President, we trust that our hearts were sealed anew to His service.

Because of the message of Mrs. G. R. Martin, Stewardship Chairman of the W. M. U. of the Southern Baptist Convention, we hope to better interpret Christ to others by full surrender of our lives.

We count it a happy privilege to have had present Miss Blanche Sydnor White of Richmond, and we express heartfelt gratitude for the devotionals given by her.

We have experienced great joy in having had with us Miss Kathleen Mallory, who by her radiant life and presentation of world-wide needs, leads us further in Kingdom work.

To the missionaries, Mrs. C. K. Dozier, who brought us such an affecting message from our sister W. M. U. in Japan; Miss Attie Bostick; and the returned missionaries, Mrs. M. L. Braun, Mrs. Phil White and Mrs. O. G. Tilman, and also to Miss Nancy McDaniel, Margaret Fund student of Meredith College, do we give thanksgiving for their messages of power and love.

Finally, we rejoice because we can be "laborers together with God," and pray that as His children we may be entirely yielded to the Holy Spirit.

Therefore, be it resolved:

First, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this organization;

Second, that a copy be given publicity in the papers of this city.

Mrs. G. T. Lumpkin presented the following report on the Centennial, which was adopted:

REPORT OF CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE

Realizing the acute situation regarding our Baptist Schools in North Carolina, and realizing, too, the sacredness of the pledges made by our great Baptist people for the Centennial Campaign, we, your Committee, suggest the following:

- 1. That we pray earnestly for a successful completion of the Campaign.
- 2. That we do all in our power to give publicity in our churches, helping the pastor in every way we can, to get the matter on the hearts of our people.
- 3. That we pay our own pledges, and make new ones wherever it is possible to do so.
- 4. That we have confidence in our leaders, and give them our best support in every effort they make in collecting the pledges, remembering the responsibility is our own and that our Baptist honor is at stake.

A rising vote of thanks was given to the officers of the Convention for their faithful services during the past year.

Final enrollment, 431 delegates; 293 visitors. Total, 724. Prayer by Rev. Walter M. Gilmore. Adjourned.

THURSDAY EVENING SESSION, 8:00 O'CLOCK

Miss Alva Lawrence presided over this session.

On motion, the minutes of the afternoon and night sessions were referred for approval to the Executive Committee.

The following resolution was read by Mrs. Jones, and on motion of Mrs. J. J. Roddick, was adopted by a unanimous vote:

RESOLVED, that the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina hereby declares that it is whole-heartedly and unreservedly in sympathy with the aims and purposes of Meredith College and hereby commits itself to the perpetual maintenance and support of Meredith College as a separate institution for Christian education for women under the auspices of the Baptist State Convention; and hereby pledges its loyalty and support to that institution.

Mrs. L. V. Coggins, Semora, led the devotional service, reading from the 14th chapter of Exodus and speaking on "Go Forward."

Prayer by Mrs. Herman T. Stevens, and a solo, "Living for Jesus."

Miss Lawrence announced that the banner given to the Association showing the greatest gains in new young people's societies and in A-1 societies, was awarded to the Stanly Association.

She announced that Frances Elder, from the First Church, Greensboro, Piedmont Association, had won in the Tithing story contest among the Y. W. A.'s; Virginia May Griffin, New Friendship Church, Liberty Association, among the G. A.'s; and David R. Morgan, Smithfield, Johnston Association, among the R. A.'s.

The young people from the First and Blackwell Memorial churches of Elizabeth City presented a pageant, "The Quest."

The closing address was made by Miss Blanche Sydnor White, using as her theme, "Mirrors."

The Convention adjourned to meet in Gastonia the second week in March, 1931, after prayer by Miss Blanche Sydnor White.

MRS. WESLEY N. JONES, President.

MRS. WALTER M. GILMORE, Recording Secretary.

Constitution

PREAMBLE

We, the women of the Baptist churches of North Carolina, desirous of stimulating the missionary spirit and the grace of giving among the women and children of the churches, and of aiding in the collection of funds for missionary purposes to be disbursed by the State Mission Board and the Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention, adopt the following Constitution:

ARTICLE I

Name

This organization shall be known as the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention.

Object

The object shall be threefold: (1) To stimulate a broader religious development on the part of the Baptist women and girls of the State. to train the children in Christian work, and enlist all in active personal endeavor for the salvation of those in their own communities. (2) To receive and distribute missionary information, to stimulate effort to encourage the organization of Missionary Societies and Bands among the women, young people and children. (3) To encourage the earnest, systematic cooperation of women and children in contributing money for missions at home and abroad.

ARTICLE III

Officers

Section 1. The officers shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents; one located at W. M. U. Headquarters and one from the State at large, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, a Recording Secretary, a Young People's Leader, a Missión Study Superintendent, and an Editor; who, together with sixteen ladies residing in or near Raleigh, shall form the Executive Committee.

Election

Sec. 2. These officers and sixteen ladies, who, together with them compose the Executive Committee, shall be annually elected on the last day of the Annual Session after nominations by a Nominating Committee composed of ten members, two from each division; this Committee being elected from the floor.

ARTICLE IV

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Union shall decide.

ARTICLE V

Representatives at Annual Meeting

Those entitled to membership in the Annual Meeting shall be the officers of the Union, Executive Committee, the Division Superintendents, the Associational Superintendents, five representatives from the entertaining society, with one representative from a society, provided no church has more than three delegates. Only such delegates as are personally present and duly accredited by the Union shall be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE VI

Conduct of Meeting

Every session of the Union shall be opened and closed with religious exercises.

ARTICLE VII

Program

The program shall be arranged by the Executive Committee in conference with the committee of the society with which the Annual Meeting is held.

ARTICLE VIII

Amendments

This Constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any Annual Meeting, one month's previous notice of proposed change having been given through the Executive Committee.

By-Laws

- 1. President—The President shall preside at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union and all meetings of the Executive Committee, shall appoint all committees not otherwise provided for, and shall be ex-officio member of all standing committees. She shall also be the State Vice-President of the Southern Woman's Missionary Union and shall endeavor to keep the State work in line with the plans of the General Union. She may, through the Recording Secretary, call special meetings of the Executive Committee when in her judgment needed, or at the request of five members of said Committee.
- 2. Vice-Presidents The First Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, preside at monthly meetings of Executive Committee, and at the Annual Meeting of the Union. In the event that the First Vice-President cannot assume these duties, they fall upon the Second Vice-President.
- 3. Corresponding Secretary The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Union, present reports of the condition of the work at the Annual Meeting, keep a record book as a source of information, organize societies, send out blanks for quarterly reports, conduct the W. M. U. Department of the State denominational paper, and attend to other business usual to the office.
- 4. Treasurer—It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to keep an accurate account of all money contributed to missions by societies to objects included in the annual program, when reported to her through receipts signed by the church treasurer, or sent direct to her. She shall make out a quarterly report at the close of each quarter, and an annual report to be submitted to the Woman's Missionary Union Annual Meetings. She shall keep an account of the receipts and disbursements of all money sent to her for special Woman's Missionary Union funds, and render quarterly and annual reports of same.
- 5. Recording Secretary—The Recording Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the annual and special meetings of the Woman's Missionary Union. She shall also notify officers of their election and committees of their appointment, and shall perform other duties usual to her office.
- 6. Young People's Leader—The Young People's Leader and College Correspondent shall have general oversight of the Junior organizations of the Woman's Missionary Union and with the cooperation of pastors, superintendents, and officers of societies, shall organize our young people for efficient, systematic mission work. She shall conduct a column relative to Young People's work in the State denominational paper.

- 7. Divisional Superintendents—The Divisional Superintendents shall have general supervision of the Associations in their respective Divisions, keeping in touch with the Associational Superintendents and aiding them in every way possible. They shall be members of the Executive Committee and shall hold an annual meeting in their Division, these Division meetings to be held preferably in the months following the State meeting.
- 8. Associational Superintendents—The Associational Superintendents shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Associational Union. They shall correspond with the President of the Executive Committee and the officers of all Woman's Missionary Societies and Junior Societies in all the churches of their Associations. They shall assist the societies in forming an Associational Union, which shall meet annually. They shall be ex-officio members of the Executive Committee, and shall as frequently as possible attend the monthly meetings of that committee. An annual meeting of the Superintendent and Executive Committee shall be held during the Annual Meeting.
- 9. Executive Committee The Executive Committee shall carry out the instructions of the Union, and transact all business between its sessions. It shall meet monthly, and oftener when necessary. Seven members shall constitute a quorum. When a vacancy occurs, the remaining members of the Executive Committee shall be empowered to fill the unexpired term. The committee shall report at the Annual Meeting and send an annual report to the State Convention through the State Board of Missions.
- 10. Representatives to Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention—These representatives shall be appointed by the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina at its annual session.
- 11. Expenses—In addition to the amount paid by the State Mission Board for printing, postage, and salaries, the expenses of the Woman's Missionary Union office, including traveling expenses of officers on Union business, shall be met by a yearly contribution of ten cents per member from each local society, said contributions to be made during the first quarter.

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

OF NORTH CAROLINA

FORTY-FIRST ANNUAL SESSION

Gastonia, N. C., March 10, 1931.

The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, held its forty-first annual session in the First Baptist Church of Gastonia, March 10, 11, 12.

The session opened Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, Rev. B. A. Bowers, D.D., pastor of the church, presiding, with the singing of "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," followed by prayer by the pastor. After a solo by Mr. Huey, of Gastonia, the devotional was conducted by Rev. B. A. Bowers, speaking from the texts, John 15:14; Psalms 121:1. An anthem by the choir was followed by the singing of "Stand Up, Stand Up, for Jesus."

The annual sermon was preached by Rev. Eugene Sallee, Home Secretary Foreign Mission Board, Richmond, Va. Hymn, "Give of Your Best to the Master," was sung, after which the meeting adjourned with prayer by Dr. Sallee.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 11

The session was opened at ten o'clock, with the President, Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, of Raleigh, presiding. "Joy to the World," W. M. U. hymn for the year, was sung.

Scripture reading, John 17, was given by Mrs. W. C. Barrett, of Laurinburg, followed by prayer by Mrs. H. T. Stevens, of High Point.

Mrs. N. W. Weldon, of Stovall, moved that the roll call be omitted, and that those whose registration cards have been turned in to the Secretary up to the time be recognized as constituting the organization. Motion carried.

Miss Sallie McCracken, of Thomasville, moved that the program as arranged be adopted as the order of business of this session. Motion carried.

The address of welcome was made by Mrs. H. B. Moore, of Gastonia. Mrs. J. C. Hough, of Kinston, responded to this address.

The report of the Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Edna R. Harris, was read, and adopted on motion of Mrs. H. T. Stevens, of High Point.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Boreham takes Emerson's words "Man is a faggot of thunderbolts," and adds a couplet giving us the following, "The soul of man is a packet of surprises, a faggot of thunderbolts." The definition might be applied to North Carolina Baptists for nineteen-thirty. The thunderbolts came thick and fast as the year grew and came to its close, so far short of the victorious one we had hoped it might be as the Centennial year of organized Baptist work in North Carolina.

The surprises came in our W. M. U. work. We cannot chronicle that all surprises are those that caused us to rejoice, but if there are those which cause a pang of regret, they will cause us thought, and I trust lead us to prayer and cause us to stop and search our methods with a view to finding the mistakes in our manner of trying, and to try again in a different way.

As churches and societies tried during the year to collect data for their history and found that so much valuable material in the form of reports and minutes had not been preserved, they learned how valuable these are. One society, we know of, had its minutes complete from its first meeting in 1885—the W. M. S. of Yanceyville. If officers could realize that minutes and reports are the means we have of keeping up our history surely no society would let its minutes be carelessly jotted down and cast aside as the year closes or with every change of officers, but would preserve them in well bound books. Surely not one organization would fail to send in a report during a whole twelve months. We are growing along that line for we had only 345 societies that failed to report, and were dropped from the roll at the close of the year as compared with 576 the year before. Twenty died or were killed by indifference, or lack of love during the year and expiring said "drop us from your list." During the year we had reported four hundred sixty-three new organizations, but by our losses we had a net gain of ninety-eight which gave us 2,628 active organizations at the close of the year. The stability of the work in many Associations is cheering. Brushy Mountain, while largely undeveloped, did not lose a single organization during the year, and gained two. Some Associations did not lose a W. M. S., but all young people's organizations did not report during the year. It has been estimated that it would take thirty-seven flashes of lightning to keep a common incandescent light burning for one hour. How many flashes of encouragement, of thought, or prayer go forth to keep the steady glow of faithful service from year to year? We are thankful for the intermittent glow from societies that try, and try, yet not discouraged, try again to create the steady glow, for it means there are faithful women there who long to share the privilege of service and who will not have their light smothered by the blanket of indifference, nor put out by the icy-cold water of discouragement. May their perseverance increase as the vision broadens, and their number increase until that farthest woman in that last little church may catch the gleam and a vision of her place of service. The Cherokee Indians in Burnt Swamp Association have caught the vision and with the assistance of our missionaries Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lunsford are entering largely into the plans and programs of mission work, observing the weeks of prayer, having mission study classes, and will put to shame many of our long established societies in interest manifested and in per cent of members taking Royal Service.

It was a surprise that encouraged to find we had one hundred thirty-eight more Standard societies reaching the Standard this year, having a total of 843, 260 of which were A-1. This means that many more are doing their work regularly and systematically. It was a kind of thunderbolt to find we had fallen behind in number of A-1 W. M. S., having only 59 reaching that grade, as compared to 80 in 1929. Roanoke Association almost doubled the number of Standard societies, having 101 or 62 per cent reaching the Standard. Beulah came next, having 50 per cent Standard. The Association having the highest per cent of A-1 societies was Mount Zion with 20 per cent being A-1.

We do not believe a more earnest, faithful, hard-working group of women can be found in our Southland than our Superintendents, who have made possible all this work. When you know that their combined reports record 29,518 miles traveled and 14,980 letters and postals written you are not surprised at better work. The following changes in Superintendents were made: Miss Minnie Haire now being Superintendent of Ashe; Mrs. George Pennell of Buncombe; Mrs. Paul Walker of Haywood; Mrs. J. A. Hunnicutt, Sandy Run; Mrs.

M. P. Blair, Union; Mrs. P. H. St. Clair, Sandy Creek; Mrs. C. R. Jordan, Bladen; Mrs. G. E. Lovell, Johnston.

We have eight full graded A-1 Unions this year: Blackwell Memorial, Elizabeth City; Greensboro, First; Durham, First; Durham, Grace; Durham, Temple; Spray; Lenoir, First; French Broad, Asheville. This is the fourth consecutive year for Durham, First and Durham, Grace; the third for Blackwell Memorial and Durham, Temple; the second for Greensboro, First. We welcome Lenoir First and Spray to A-1 Union list for the first time, and hope we may number them there in 1931; French Broad, Asheville, came back this year, having been A-1 in 1928.

Charlotte Division led in gifts, Greensboro second; Associations stood in the following order: Piedmont first, then Pilot Mountain, Mount Zion, Mecklenburg-Cabarrus, Roanoke and Central; the churches in gifts are, first Greensboro First; then Winston-Salem First; Raleigh First. Associations meeting apportionment were Alleghany, Avery, Blue Ridge, Caldwell, Green River, Haywood, Liberty, Mecklenburg-Cabarrus, Rowan, Sandy Creek, South Fork, South Yadkin, Stanly, Surry, Tennessee River, Three Forks, and Yadkin. It was from no lack of effort that others did not. Economic conditions were such that it seemed impossible for some; in others had not the Woman's Missionary Society been asked to bear the burden of repairs, interest on notes of the churches, etc., which are matters to be taken care of by the church as a whole, missions would not have suffered; and if all that has been given to missions had been safeguarded in some way so that it could not have been used for local expenses-societies, Associations and our State W. M. U. would have reached aims taken. It is not possible for W. M. U. to foster all the causes it is asked to foster, and if it did the very purpose of our organization "to stimulate an interest in missions" would soon be forgotten. Let's stand true to our purpose!

Report of Young People's Leader, Miss Alva Lawrence, was read and adopted on motion of Mrs. J. W. Bunn, of Raleigh.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S REPORT

A dear old lady was observing a lighthouse for the first time. She was told that this light guided ships at sea, yet she was baffled because of the constant flashing on and off of the beacon light. Finally she exclaimed "those sailors are the most patient things I ever saw. Every time the wind blows the light out they light it again." Surely our dear women of North Carolina show much the same patient, persistent "Keeping on" in leading and fostering our young people's societies. Perhaps one band flashes out but our records prove that these were "relighted" or others lighted in their stead. The 1930 record shows an increase in all W. M. U. organizations over that of 1929. The Sunbeams lead in the number of organizations with 589 Bands; G. A.'s follow with 476; Y. W. A., 314; and R. A.'s, 262; making a total of 1,632. A total of 463 new organizations was reported for the four quarters. The Sunbeams lead and the G. A.'s follow closely in new societies organized.

Again the "relighting" appears in the increased number of Standard organizations over the previous year. Four hundred seventy-nine were Standard and 202 of these were A-1. The G. A.'s led in A-1 societies with Sunbeams closely following.

Another case of patient and persistent lighting is noted in the increase of mission study awards. To our four groups of organizations were awarded 3,884 certificates and 6,075 seals. This study will truly enlarge the vision of our young people and enable them to serve more wholeheartedly.

The beacon flashed less brightly in the matter of gifts due to the general financial depression in our State. Each organization shows a falling off for all quarters. The Y. W. A.'s gave this year $17,593.59; G. A.'s, $7,145.30; R. A.'s, $3,831.36 and Sunbeams, $5,642.25. It is our earnest hope that we shall not be discouraged but shall strive harder during the new year to teach stewardship for it is not the amount that is given but the principle that is taught which counts.

The Associational camps show a falling off also for the year and, our women have not "relighted" these instruments for winning our young people. Carolina, Chowan, and Roanoke had camps of five days each and Tar River two days. There were 152 young people enrolled and 247 awards given.

The Girls' Auxiliary House Party was the new feature of the work for 1930. The results were most gratifying. Seventy-six girls from various parts of our State came to Meredith for the entire week-end. Saturday seventy-five other girls and leaders came for the day enjoying the conferences, demonstrations and fellowship. It is hoped both by the college and the girls that the G. A. House Party will be a permanent fixture of W. M. U.

Honorable mention should be given to five of our Girls' Auxiliary members—Shirley Mae Stallings of Durham, Edna Stroud of Greenville, Mary Clair Stokes of Wilson, Katie Leigh Stewart of Mebane, Mary Elizabeth Stanton of Red Springs who have attained the highest rank of Girls' Auxiliary, now being North Carolina Queens. In order to rank as Queen they must memorize certain portions of Scripture and have a general knowledge of our mission work as well as the business of the Southern Baptist Convention. These girls have been publicly recognized through the pages of the Biblical Recorder and some of them in the World Comrades.

The Ridgecrest Y. W. A. Camp was up to its high water mark. The spirit was excellent and the attendance good. Forty Y. W. A. girls from North Carolina were there for the annual Conference.

Our report would not be complete without mention of the nine college Y. W. A.'s, five of which were Standard A-1 for the year. Three hundred and five mission study awards for the year showed the earnest effort to teach our young womanhood to lift up their eyes and look upon the fields.

With gratitude we accept our 1930 report for it is the result of faithful and persistent lighting and relighting, yet conscious are we that there is much work to do.

"Is it getting night?" said an old Scotch woman ninety-seven years of age. "Husband," she said, "is it getting night?" and her aged Scotch husband by her side, realizing that she was dying, bent down close to her and said, "Yes, Janet, it is getting night." She was wondering a bit and was back in the olden days with her loved ones, but he knew that the end was near. She was still a moment and then said, "Are the boys all in?" "Yes," he said, "the boys are all in, Janet." Their last one had gone on three years before. The Woman's Missionary Union cannot say the boys are all in, or the girls are all in their missionary organizations while there are hundreds of churches without a young people's organization of any kind. May we resolve to strive even more earnestly during the new year to get every "boy and girl in" a missionary organization that they may be able to accept His "go ye" which was meant for them too.

Reports of Divisional Superintendents were read and adopted on motion of Mrs. J. J. Roddick, of Winston-Salem.

REPORT OF ASHEVILLE DIVISION

With deepest gratitude we report progress in our many town and few city societies and even in a relatively small number of the country societies, commensurate with the progress of the W. M. U. in other sections of our State and Southland. Several of our Associations reached their financial goals which in some cases are far too small. Some made splendid progress in mission study. There was an increase in number of tithers reported and 20 A-1 societies were reported. The growth in mission magazine subscriptions is gratifying, though the number of Biblical Recorders taken is all too small.

Our Annual Divisional Meeting was held with Bryson City Church in May. The attendance was quite good, the program a feast to those who love to hear from God's people.

The enthusiasm and optimism on the part of our Associational Superintendents is marked. Some of them spent much time going from one country society to another teaching study classes in missions and methods, demonstrating what could be done if there were enough leaders equipped to stay on the field and nurture.

However, remembering with all the pride in our souls our lineage pure and fine and the other compositions of which we Western North Carolinians boast, we must say today with Paul, "Brethren, my heart's longing and my prayer to God is for my countrymen's salvation. I bear witness that they bear an enthusiasm for God but it is an unenlightened one."

The Asheville Division embraces practically all of the people of our State sometimes referred to in our denominational literature as the "Forgotten Americans," viz., the mountaineer.

With humility and repentance we report the progress among a large percentage of our country churches as not by any means keeping pace with our splendid system of schools and highways. Neither are our Baptist pastors in many country churches measuring up in equipment for service with the progressive teaching forces of our public schools. Farmers, stock raisers, poultry growers—everybody is surpassing Baptists in progress in many country churches. These hold to the missionary name, and yet the minutes of our Associations and of our State Convention prove that they are practicing "Hard Shellism." This notwithstanding the missionary spirit of Humphrey Posey and others to whom they owe their very existence.

Acknowledging the great preachers who have come out from among us with hats off and heads bowed, we maintain that the ignorance of a number of our pastors is responsible for this backward trend among mountain churches. No church can go much ahead of its pastor.

We fear the rising generation with splendid educational advantages which they are grasping will be entirely lost to the denomination, as indeed these churches are lost now, unless there is an improvement in the type of pastors. Already have we sent out to benefit others many great characters whom we need at home, and might have held but for this very cause.

What can we do about it? This rests with the missionary zeal of the Missionary Baptists. Why should men with no mental culture be made into preachers? Did God call Moses to begin now or when prepared?

To the W. M. U. Superintendents of these mountain Associations who are trying to hold their slight gains, you owe a debt of which you little dream. No pages are printed of more real pioneers than some of them. We are not discouraged but we need reinforcements in many places. The "line upon line" of real teaching becomes an impossibility with some of our Superintendents because of home conditions. Field workers and pastors who could stay and live and persevere long enough to firmly fix the work is the solution, this rather than trying to tear down mission foundations. Unfinished tasks? Yes.

New enterprises within our bounds are adding to our opportunities and problems for Kingdom expansion. The United States Veterans' Hospital at Oteen has already brought into the bounds of the Buncombe Association an opportunity which challenges the Southland as well as our Division.

Pray with me for more consecrated leadership for:

"These are the people for whom I bled,

Give them the gifts I have given you, This is your cross and your crown too."

Many of these people are financially able—some very able if only led into becoming just stewards for God.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. R. MORGAN, Division Superintendent.

REPORT OF CHARLOTTE DIVISION

Watts when a boy saw white vapors puffing from his mother's tea kettle and dreamed of a new motive force—steam, as a result, now whisks across continents and sails the seas on the wings of that boy's dream.

Ford dreamed of a poor man's horseless carriage. As a result of that dream we have the automobile. Wright Brothers dreamed of flying like birds in the air; and we now have the aeroplane.

Miss Heck dreamed of the value of organizing the State in five divisions. As a result of that dream last year the gifts of the Charlotte Division amounted to more than twice as much as the State contributed before the Divisions were organized.

As a result of the dreams of the Superintendents and the colaborers of the individual societies we present to the Convention our 1930 report.

We are very grateful to our Heavenly Father and praise His Holy name for making possible this splendid year's work. We held our Annual Meeting in June at Rutherfordton up among the hills, where ministers and missionaries are born. We were on the playground of the Bosticks who have done so much for China; the native heath of Dr. Zeno Wall, one of the State's most consecrated ministers, who delivered our annual missionary sermon. We held our sessions in the home church of Miss Alda Grayson, now in the Kathleen Mallory Hospital, China. Our attendance was splendid and we had with us two of our own Division missionaries, Mrs. Maud Burke Dozier (of Statesville) now of Japan; and Rev. D. T. Hurley, of Roumania. The W. A. Smith memorial mission study banner was won by the Pilot Mountain Association. Our poster contest was a success from which we learned many valuable lessons.

Our special love gift over and above our pledges amounted to $169.09. This was given to Dr. H. H. McMillan of Soo Chow, China, for an assistant native pastor. Mr. Day, his assistant, is now at the Louisville Theological Seminary in Kentucky.

The Division is giving $20.00 per month to Rev. D. T. Hurley for a building and loan fund to erect chapels in Roumania. We have sent $31.00 to Roumania by our treasurer, Miss Lazenby.

Mrs. Wacaster reports from the King's Mountain Association $600.00 for equipment of Boiling Springs library. Mrs. O. J. Howard is specializing in young people's work. She will send 20 Y. W. A. girls to the Camp at Ridgecrest. Mecklenburg-Cabarrus has increased in members and a number of men have attended the W. M. U. meetings. Sandy Run reports progress along all lines especially quarterly meetings. Gaston is doing special work in mission study. South Yadkin is noted for its liberality. Miss Lazenby reports two boxes to the Indians valued at $142.00; also gifts to Orphange in Texas and Good Will Center in Japan, also supporting students at South Mountain Industrial Institute. Yadkin made ten per cent increase in membership. Mrs. Shelley Rose has traveled 1,000 miles in the Pee Dee visiting Scotland, Anson and Richmond counties, emphasizing G. A. organizations. Union is the hostess of the Charlotte Division the second week in June. We meet with Mrs. M. P. Blair at Wingate.

We still lead the State in gifts, contributing this year $90,833.12. Respectfully submitted,

MRS. T. B. HENRY, Division Superintendent.

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

Another year has been added to the annals of time. With some of our members, it has been the evening of life and they are listening from the skies; with others, the dawn of a new day—enlisted. The year has been one of loving service and progress along all lines of our work.

The Roanoke, with Mrs. E. B. Beasley at the helm, has led this great Association along, step by step, to its high standard of organization and service. Her aim for the year was a hundred societies making as many as four points on the Standard of Excellence, and her hopes were realized. This Association has 160 societies, 100 doing organized personal service, 90 have study classes with 1,108 periodicals. They also have 400 tithers and 10 new organizations. The County Unions hold their quarterly and semi-annual meetings. One of the County Unions is assisting Mr. Ayers in his medical course. The county homes and jails are visited. The Nash County Unions are to be hostesses to the Divisional Meeting that will be held at the First Church in Rocky Mount. This Association made nine points on the Associational Standard.

Our faithful Mrs. R. N. Scott of the Atlantic, who surrendered half of her estate to the Neuse, reported 450 present at their Associational meeting; 15 new organizations, and 60 tithers. The county groups all have organized personal service, as well as their local societies. One county assisted in building a church, another is maintaining a hospital bed, others have organized work among the Negroes. This Association also made nine points on the Standard.

The old West Chowan with its new Superintendent, Mrs. T. E. Beasley, retained its high standard and dependability in our great work. They have 17 societies making A-1 grade and only have a few churches without the regular organized work. They are supporting Miss Pearl Johnson in China, who is home on furlough and expects to return to her work in August. The County Unions are supporting a Bible woman in China, they have a scholarship to Louisville Training School, have a circulating Mission Study Library, and have 4 scholarships to Chowan College. On her return home, they presented their missionary with a love gift of $75.00 and gave a hundred dollar radio to the Rev. R. B. Lineberry for his devoted service to the West Chowan Association.

Mrs. I. A. Ward, of Elizabeth City, Superintendent of the Chowan Association, reports the best year in their history. They have 62 churches with 123 societies with a membership of 3,000, 14 new societies were organized, there were 82 Mission Study Classes, 115 societies doing organized personal service. There was an attendance of 71 at the camp at Virginia Beach. Over 700 registered delegates attended their annual meeting. They report 8 church Schools of Missions and this Association also entertained the State Convention. They also have nine points on the standard.

We come with the initial report of the Neuse, our new Association—half of the divided kingdom of the Neuse-Atlantic with Mrs. J. C. Hough of Kinston as Superintendent. When Mrs. Hough entered upon this work there were only 8 churches with a W. M. U. organization. Today only 8 without them. They went beyond their aim in every department of their work, with the exception of a few dollars short of their financial goal. There are enlisted in this Association more than again the number of women and young people since the beginning of the year. They have their group organization with able leaders. This Association has had a marvelous growth, making nine points on the Standard.

God be praised for the year 1930, for these noble leaders who have wrought so well—the Superintendents, the county and group leaders, the local presidents, the circle chairmen, and the individual member who made this report possible. May the year 1931 bring greater victories for our Lord and His Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. M. FINCH, Division Superintendent.

REPORT OF GREENSBORO DIVISION

I wish to render thanks to our Heavenly Father for His guidance and blessings on the women of the Greensboro Division who have made this report possible. We give Him honor and glory for all we have been able to do.

Over some attainments we rejoice, other features cause sorrow because we could not do more. In the eight Associations there are 238 churches, 573 societies with a membership of 8,600 women and young people. New societies organized 441, and there are 41 churches with no societies. This is a definite task this year.

Only one resignation of Superintendents, Mrs. June Gunter; we thank her for her services over a period of years. Mrs. P. H. St. Clair was elected to fill the place as Superintendent of the Sandy Creek Association. We welcome her.

The subscriptions to religious and missionary literature are 3,699. Number of societies having some form of personal service, 304. Number of tithers, 860.

Our mission study leader, Mrs. D. A. Kearns, Greensboro, reports marked improvement in mission study: number of classes, W. M. S., 765; young people, 412. Enrollment in W. M. S. classes, 3,456; for young people, 2,462. There was quite an increase also in the number who read these books and received reading cards and stamps for so doing.

The reports show an increase in the number of societies observing the weeks of prayer for home, State, and foreign missions. In the Division there are 74 A-1 societies including, young people, and four A-1 graded W. M. U., namely—Greensboro, First, Piedmont Association; Durham, First; Temple, Durham; Grace, Durham, Mount Zion Association.

There were some special gifts from two societies, who are each supporting a native Bible woman in China. This makes four societies contributing to this object in Mount Zion Association.

Mrs. J. C. Canipe, Siler City, leader for young people of Greensboro Division, reports four new Queens for the Girls' Auxiliary, two in Flat River Association and two in Mount Zion.

The annual meeting of the Division was held in the First Church, Burlington, May 8, 1930. The attendance was excellent, reports good, and much interest shown. Mrs. Edna R. Harris was with us and gave a most inspiring and helpful message. The Minnie Marshall Buck Memorial mission study banner was presented to the Mount Zion Association for the largest number of awards. We were glad to have with us quite a number of the pastors in the Division and hope they will continue to come to our meetings.

It was a pleasure and inspiration to visit five Associations at their annual meetings, and to hear the reports and plans for the year's work. All had splendid attendance, good reports and are wanting to do more in Kingdom work.

I wish to thank our Superintendents and every one who had a part in the work of the Greensboro Division, for their loyalty and faithfulness in their labor of love, for God, to make this report what it is. May they have a clearer vision of the task before them and the courage to go forward as "laborers together with God," "that the world may know" the unspeakable riches of Jesus Christ our Saviour and Lord.

The Greensboro Division will hold its annual meeting with the First Baptist Church, Sanford, May 7, 1931.

Respectfully submitted.

MRS. J. M. WHITTED, Superintendent.

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION

"Who can utter the mighty acts of the Lord? Who can shew forth all his praise?"

With thanks unto Him for His mighty blessings upon us and our efforts for Him, we bring the report of the Wilmington Division.

We have had many handicaps and problems, but our God has led us on and a great host of His children in this Division have labored faithfully and heroically. Success and failure have gone hand in hand.

Through our achievements we have rejoiced, but are humiliated at our failures.

Many new societies have been organized but we have a net loss of 24, leaving 454, and 20 churches having five grades.

While we have lost in number of societies we have gained in membership, 446, making total number of members 7.522.

Our financial aim was $38,245.00. We deplore our failure to reach this high aim. Under such financial depression we paid $28,308.51, leaving a deficit of $9,936.49. We gave $1,578.57 less than in 1929.

But our Superintendents are rejoicing in faith, and through their loyal devotion, and loyalty of their leaders, we face the year 1931 with renewed hope to go forward.

Our annual associational meetings were well attended and the programs were uplifting, filled with a deep spiritual atmosphere.

Mrs. W. O. Biggs has done great work in the Bladen Association, and we welcome Mrs. C. R. Jordan as her successor. Mrs. B. R. Page is still leading forward the work in the Brunswick, and Mrs. J. T. McKenzie is loyal to the work in Cape Fear-Columbus.

The Eastern again gave salary for Miss Katie Murray in China, with their Christmas offering, and a Kindergarten School in China; sends Christmas boxes to frontier missionaries and clothes a girl in Mills Home.

Johnston Association supports a native family of workers and a Bible woman in China, sent boxes to two Margaret Fund girls at Meredith and one at Louisville. Mrs. B. A. Hocutt, the beloved Superintendent, who has given untiring and loving service fifteen years, resigned in October, and we welcome Mrs. George Lovell as her successor.

Little River, with Mrs. Paul Bradley, Superintendent, is hopeful of going forward and still gives one scholarship to Training School.

Robeson, led by Mrs. T. S. Teague, reports largest number societies, 112, and largest number of young people's societies, and has 59 churches.

Wilmington has steadily gone forward under the leadership of Mrs. J. W. Carroll. They gave a scholarship to Training School, sent Christmas box to frontier missionary, had Summer Camp at Wrightsville Beach for R. A. and G. A., lead in mission study classes, 62, and in gifts, $8,818.82.

Our Divisional meeting in 1930 was held in February with Temple Church in Wilmington. It was well attended, and great spiritual enthusiasm was evident throughout the meeting and in every message. We were blest with the presence and wonderful messages of Rev. and Mrs. Wade Bostick of China and Miss Alva Lawrence of Raleigh.

The Eastern Association was presented with the banner for having largest number of churches with five grades of societies, have eight churches with five.

We thank God for what has been done and take courage, "For his God is our God for ever and ever, He will be our guide even unto death."

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX, Superintendent.

LIFT, LOOK, LOVE, LABOR

Every period brings an emphasis on certain words, familiar words, but in some way they come into common usage more frequently and with an added meaning. Some years ago we talked of loyalty, then of vision, then we wore the word service so threadbare that it lost not only its beauty but much of its meaning. Latterly we have used "cooperative," "cooperation" and "program" until we are weary of even the sound.

This morning the thought I want to bring to you this early in a new decade, brings me to one of these much abused words—the word "program," and I want briefly to present the fundamentals in a tenyear program for our Woman's Missionary Union. It is not a new program I am presenting, but the old program, if possible with a new viewpoint and an added emphasis. This program can be summed up in the four words, LIFT, LOOK, LOVE, and LABOR.

Lift

The meaning of Lift comes clearer when we remember the words of the Psalmist, "I will lift up mine eyes to the hills from whence cometh my help." "My help cometh from the Lord which made Heaven and earth," or go back to the picture brought to our minds by the words of the Saviour to His disciples when passing through Samaria after the memorable interview with the woman at the well. "Lift up your eyes, Look on the fields, they are white already to the harvest." Through the ages God has sought in various ways to teach men that failure and success, victory and defeat, prosperity and calamity are dependent on their relations to Him, their obedience to His definite commands. Israel failed to learn this lesson, notwithstanding the many manifestations of supernatural power in their varied experiences. Today the world is far from the simple faith that sees God and His providence in all the changing affairs of life. We trust in ourselves, our ability, our material resources, our fine organizations, but it is He alone who can give power and ultimately bring victory in the great task of world evangelization. We must lift up our eyes to Him and He will lift up our arms and lead us into larger and more fruitful fields of service.

Lifting our eyes to Him will cause us to see Him anew. The mount of transfiguration was a source of never-to-be-forgotten strength to the three fortunate apostles who had this marvelous experience It gave them strength not only for the trying days ahead when they were in a measure to share with their Lord the experience of Gethsemane and Calvary, but for all the coming days. "We would see Jesus," the message of the Greeks who were seeking Him is the motto of the Woman's Missionary Union Training School. We must make it the motto of our daily lives and see Him amidst all of our cares and perplexities and catch from the radiance of His face a light that will lighten some of the darkness around us. By looking constantly to Him, we will find our own lives transformed and we shall be able to go to our work upheld and strengthened by His power.

Looking constantly to Him, we shall not be tempted to become discouraged when our plans fail to materialize and efforts seem wasted, or to follow lines of thought and activity that are not directed by Him. We shall have strength when all seems against us and our best efforts a failure if we are sure of the approval of Him to whom we look. Let us put away from us the discouragements and failures of the past, the financial depression that has almost overwhelmed us and turn our faces away from these things, realizing that our God is able to overcome all of our difficulties and is sufficient for our every need. Not only able to overcome but can and will enable us to overcome. With this faith there will come a new courage for the task ahead, a courage that will enable us to grasp our burdens, pay these debts that are handicapping us so fearfully and enable us to bring victory out of defeat.

Lifting up our eyes to God means maintaining constantly an attitude of prayer—not the prayer that asks necessarily, but the communion that alone can bring into our lives the trusting faith, the peace and joy that He'talked to His disciples about on that memorable night before the crucifixion. Prayer is the foundation stone of the program, individual and united prayer.

Look

No one can be interested in the things upon which he is not informed, a fact no one can question, so the command to look on the fields, follows naturally the lifting of our eyes to God. We must know the conditions that are facing us both at home and on our mission fields. We have heard it said many times in recent months that the Woman's Missionary Union is giving a large part of all that our denomination is giving to missions at this time. This is true not only in North Carolina but in other states. The explanation is very simple. Our women in their homes and societies and their mission study classes are acquainting themselves with the facts concerning mission work. There is no study of such vital interest as the study of God's dealings with His people not only in the past centuries, but in the present day. There is no study that concerns us as individuals more deeply. Let us for a moment look at conditions we face in our own country with a crime bill annually of sixteen billion dollars, at the spirit of lawlessness that is so prevalent everywhere, at the thousands of young people in our homes and churches with only a superficial training in the fundamental precepts and practices on which they must build their lives if their lives are to count for the Kingdom of God. We must create a different attitude toward these things. There must come a realization that our forefathers were right when they placed such emphasis on teaching obedience to parents, and to those in rightful authority—our duty not only to parents but to our fellowmen and the blessings that come from Sabbath observance. To combat the spirit of lawlessness we must go back to the training that earlier generations received from their mother's knee.

The menace of communism is here and we must not close our eyes to its dangers. The Soviet government, not content with closing churches and sending hundreds of devout people to jail and to Siberia for the sole cause of religious activity, has its emissaries in our own land and would destroy in America, if only they had the power, the last vestige of religion as they are striving to do in Russia. The days of the martyrs are not over, but a new chapter is being written as terrible as any in the early days of Christianity. Looking on the fields today, notwithstanding the things that are taking place in Russia, will bring inspiration to a greater effort and more devotion to the cause of our Christ. Instead of the difficulties we face, let us look at the marvelous progress of the gospel in heathen lands in the past one hundred and thirty-eight years. There has never in the world's history been anything comparable to the story of the growth of Christianity since William Carey went to India in 1793. We face tremendous difficulties in our mission work in China, but we have at the lowest estimate more than five hundred thousand Christians in that great country. If the ratio of progress should be the same in another century, China will be a Christian nation.

The student of missions sees a glimmer of hope today for the adherents of Mohammedanism in their efforts to break away from the shackles of their age-old customs and to conform to modern civilization. It is significant that an official of the Shah's government has recently written an article dealing with the position of women in society, in which he says that Jesus Christ has done more than any one in the world's history to elevate womankind. The missionaries in Mohammedan lands face their task today with a hopefulness they have never had before. Looking on the fields is Mission Study, mission study in its best and most effective interpretation. Knowledge, knowledge that will bring power in service and enable us as His witnesses to the marvellous power of the gospel to testify in this materialistic age in which we are living.

Dr. Robert Speer, in the Missionary Review of the World, concludes an article on the Outlook for the New Year with the message a message so hopeful that I want to repeat it here—"In spite of many adverse conditions, possibly because of them, that there is a rising spiritual tide in the world today cannot be questioned—the awakening to the evangelical message in South America, the mass movements in India of 2,000,000 Protestants, over seventy-three per cent from the depressed classes, the growth of Christian missions in the heart of Africa, the Kingdom of God movement in Japan led by the modern apostle Kagawa, all testify to this fact."

Love

If one were to ask what is the motive power of our Woman's Missionary Union, what it is that keeps more than fifty thousand women constant in service through all the difficulties and discouragements that come to all who would share in the work of the Kingdom, we would answer with this one word "love"—Love to God, based on His marvellous love to us, and because of that love, love to our fellowmen. In the department of our work that we call personal service, we are constantly striving to manifest that love. Because of it, we would like the Good Samaritan in the story told by Jesus, help to lift the wounded, those who have fallen on life's highway, and find room and shelter for them in the inn of His love and mercy. None can pass by, cold and indifferent to the needs of those about them if they have the love of God in their hearts. Our ministrations to those in need have become so multitudinous that we can no longer report them, but the main purpose of this work is sometime forgotten in the midst of our many activities. It is the winning of these to whom we minister to the knowledge and service of our Lord. Far too few are the number of these.

In this new decade, the last in a fifty-year period, we would place a larger emphasis on soul winning. Let us not forget that you and I will not win others to our Christ unless they can see in our lives something of His radiance. You will say that this is a difficult task, indeed it is but it is God given. We are to witness to our knowledge of Him and to His saving power in such a way that all may see. In that wonderful chapter on Love, written by Paul, we are told that love never faileth. Like the divine love of which it is a part, love has infinite patience, bears with the unlovely, does not grow weary in well doing, but sees in each new day another opportunity to show something of our love for God and for those for whom He died. Love will solve all problems, the problems in the home, in the church, in society, the great questions that are perplexing the world today. How shall we get sufficient love to meet these needs? There is only one way. That is by keeping so close to the Master, living in such obedience to Him that His love will come into these hearts and lives of ours and possess us. We must not get discouraged, because love never faileth. We may not be equal to the need, but there is One who is. The record of the ministry of healing to those in heathen lands is one that brings a thrill to our hearts when we remember that before a knowledge of Christ was given to these people, there were no hospitals, no trained physicians, no trained nurses. Let me give you a few statistics that tell the story so effectively. "Christianity's healing work is without a rival in the world. Protestant missions control 858 hospitals, with 31,000 beds. Nearly 400,000 patients were treated last year, half of them operative cases. In our sixteen hundred dispensaries there were more than ten million consultations last year." There are fine native physicians today and well equipped hospitals maintained by heathen people but they are the direct result of Christian missions. Surely the Master, who in His brief ministry, found time to put out His hand and touch the leper with healing power, and who at the close of a weary day laid His hand on the thronging crowd who gathered at the home of Peter, and healed them everyone, He who gave back to father, mother, sister and brother, even those whom death had touched, is pleased with our ministry to suffering humanity.

When John, from the gloomy prison of Machaerus, sent the messenger to Jesus with the question "Art thou he that should come or do we look for another?" He answered, "Go your way and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised and the poor have the gospel preached to them." Love is the fundamental thing in our Christian religion, and love is the abiding thing, that which we will carry with us into the eternal.

Labor

"Laborers together with God." "For ye serve the Lord Christ." How often have these words fallen from our lips during the years of our missionary activity, yet they never fail to bring inspiration. Working, not alone at a difficult task, but working with Him who alone can give the power to accomplish and with whom there can be no failure. Isaiah, in his vision, pictures the One who holds the Heavenly bodies in their courses, and who gives to His weary children the strength when it is needed to mount up with wings as eagles, to run and not to be weary, to walk and faint not. Does the way seem long, the difficulties unsurmountable? Remember that there is One by our side with whom we are working who will enable us to walk and not faint. In the organization of our Woman's Missionary Union under this head, Labor, we would place two of our most important departments-Enlistment, and Training our Young People. Enlistment has been emphasized in many ways, featured in all of our meetings and yet the fact remains that only a small part of the members in our churches, our missionary societies, are actively enlisted in Kingdom work. There is only one way we can reach these inactive members, by persistence and prayer. How futile it is to talk about what the four hundred thousand Baptists in North Carolina could do if each one would do so much. We may have that many names on our church books, but so far as our mission work is concerned we would be as well off, probably better off, if many of these names were not there. We may well ask the question, is a person really a follower of Jesus, a Christian, if they are making no effort to obey His great command to give His gospel to a lost world? We have failed to get over to our people the great truth that there is no place in the plan of our Lord for the inactive selfish believer. From His own lips we have the words "Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away and every branch that beareth fruit he purgeth it that it may bring forth more fruit." We should strive to create a sentiment for an active church membership. Perhaps a good way to begin would be through our young people's organizations. There should come at the time of conversion, a conviction that one is a part of God's great plan for world redemption and that He has called us to fill a definite place in that plan. We each of us need a vision of our possibilities in Him.

Training our young people will call for consecration on our part, for still the greater part of teaching is not through precept but by example. Young people are critical and they are exacting in their standards so far'as other people are concerned and the first essential for a leader of young people is consecration. So much is being done in the way of programs, special literature that the leading of a young people's organization is not the difficult task it was formerly. Consecration first, a love for young people, a real love because they will quickly detect the counterfeit, and patience and persistence. How essential is this last. Our work in training young people cannot be completed in a few weeks or months. It is sometimes a matter of years, but how worth our best efforts. Many a leader or teacher who has regretted her own limitations has been instrumental in leading young lives into paths of service that have had world wide influence. These are familiar things, they lack the charm of novelty, but remembering the love of the Master for little children and His tenderness in dealing with them, we would stress again and again our work with our young people and its paramount importance. If our missionary efforts are to go on to greater strength and influence it will be because we have not neglected the training of young people in our homes and in our churches.

Recently in one of our denominational papers there was a most beautiful description of the Singing Tower built by Mr. Edward Bok who many of you remember as Editor of the Ladies Home Journal. Mr. Bok came to this country an immigrant boy. He achieved success, made a name for himself and accumulated a fortune. In the latter years of his life, he built this beautiful tower at Mountain Lake, Florida, on the highest hill in that State. The tower stands 205 feet high and is octagonal in shape, fifty-one feet wide at base, thirty-seven feet wide at the top and is built of pink and gray Georgia marble and coquina shell. The great thing about the tower is the bells, the finest musical bells in the world, seventy-one in number, the largest weighing twenty-four thousand pounds, the smallest twelve pounds. At stated times they give forth wonderful music, national anthems and great hymns of the church filling the region for miles around with inspiring music. The tower is located in the midst of a bird sanctuary and the tiny feathered songsters add their notes of melody to the music of the bells. Nightingales were brought from Europe and it is said that the native mocking bird has learned to sing the song of the nightingale.

The story is told that Mr. Bok received the inspiration for this beautiful gift from the words of his mother in her farewell message when he left his home in the old country: "Wherever you go and wherever you live, do something to make the world a bit more beautiful and a bit more happy." He never forgot his mother's words, and we are told that "the pilgrim at Mountain Lake, as he strolls along the foot-paths of this sanctuary, or sits in a shaded nook among the flowers, or looks at the majestic tower and on out beyond the fleecy clouds finds himself purged at least for the time of fear, of selfishness, of hatred, of wickedness, of thoughts that debase and destroy. He finds himself meditating on truth, beauty, duty, life, religion and God."

In this program I am presenting to you today, I would hold forth the ideal that we build singing towers of these lives of ours, lives that will strengthen and bless all whom we pass on our earthly journey, lives of truth, of beauty, of melody so harmonious that it will be heard above the discord of the earth-born sounds around us. Live so the world will be a better, happier place because of you, and passing, leave behind an influence that will lighten and strengthen those who follow. "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think of these things, and the God of peace shall be with you."

SALLIE BAILEY JONES.

At the request of the Divisional Superintendents, Miss Macy Cox asked Mrs. J. J. Roddick to express to Mrs. Jones their love and appreciation for her faithful service during the past years. Mrs. Jones was presented with a silver loving cup, which she graciously accepted.

Mrs. Jones presented to the Convention an application from the Burnt Swamp Cherokee Indian Association for admission into the Woman's Missionary Union. They were received on motion of Mrs. Charles E. Maddry, Raleigh. Representatives of this Association were presented by Mrs. M. C. Lunsford, Pembroke, Superintendent of the Association.

A vase of red carnations was sent by Mrs. Livingston Johnson to the Convention, with the following message: "And this is the confidence we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He heareth us." 1 John 5:14.

Mrs. Edna R. Harris made the motion that a telegram of love and sympathy be sent to Mrs. Johnson.

A telegram of greeting was read from Rev. and Mrs. Walter M. Gilmore, of Nashville, Tenn. Motion by Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain, that a telegram be sent to them.

Closing devotional by Mrs. D. W. Herring, of Fuquay Springs, topic, "The Presence of God."

Adjourned on motion previously made by Mrs. J. M. Whitted, of Durham.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 11

The session was called to order by the president at 2:30 o'clock. Singing, "Jesus Thy Boundless Love to Me."

Scripture reading and prayer by Mrs. George Pennell, of Asheville. Minutes of morning session read and approved. The Committee reported the enrollment up to this time as 392 delegates and 179 visitors, making a total of 571.

The following Nominating Committee was elected from the floor: Mrs. George Pennell, Asheville, Asheville Division; Mrs. W. J. Francis, Belmont, Charlotte Division; Mrs. C. W. Stokes, Wilson, Elizabeth City Division; Mrs. J. M. Whitted, Durham, Greensboro Division; Mrs. J. W. Carroll, Wallace, Wilmington Division. The Committee appointed to recommend a president to succeed Mrs. W. N. Jones: Mrs. H. M. Finch, Rocky Mount; Mrs. John O. Gough, Wake Forest; Mrs. B. A. Hocutt, Clayton; Mrs. J. R. Roddick, Winston-Salem; Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain; Mrs. J. R. Morgan, Waynesville; Miss Macy Cox, Magnolia—was to serve with this committee.

Outline of paper, "Light Bearers from North Carolina," written by Miss Blanche Sydnor White, Corresponding Secretary of Virginia W. M. U., was read by Mrs. J. W. Bunn, Raleigh.

Telegram of greeting was read from the Tennessee W. M. U., in session at this time. On motion of Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain, the secretary was instructed to send telegrams of greeting to the State meetings being held at this time, these being Virginia, Georgia, Illinois, and Tennessee.

Miss Kathleen Mallory, Corresponding Secretary of the Southern W. M. U., was an unexpected but welcome visitor to the Convention. The subject of her address was, "What is Our Union Doing That the World May Know?"

Mrs. W. Walter Jones, of Charlotte, formerly missionary to Brazil, spoke on her work in Brazil, and offered special prayer for Miss Pearl Johnson, missionary of Shanghai, China, who was kept away from this meeting because of sickness, and for other missionaries.

Report of Margaret Fund Chairman, Miss Alva Lawrence, was read and adopted on motion of Mrs. T. B. Henry, of Wadesboro.

MARGARET FUND REPORT

Mrs. Frank Burney, our Southern Margaret Fund Chairman says: "There is a beauty, a modesty, a mellowness, a glory about candle light that attracts and inspires. In Proverbs 20:27 we read, 'The spirit of man is the candle of the Lord.' How we love to picture our Margaret Fund students as candles. And with what care must these young people be nurtured, whose spirits are to be candles of the Lord." The women of our State have with anxious care tried to help to mold and bless these students during 1930. All gifts to W. M. U. Specials were divided with the Margaret Fund. In addition gifts and remembrances have borne messages of love and thanksgiving to these young lives.

North Carolina has had the opportunity of caring for five excellent young people this year—Nancy McDaniel of China and Helen Dozier of Japan are Sophomores at Meredith College and are daughters of whom we are proud; Woodrow Pettigrew of Brazil at Mars Hill College, Bryson Typton of China at Duke University, Durham, and Edwin Dozier of Japan at the Seminary at Louisville, Ky., complete our list of Margaret Fund students.

The Southern Committee recommended at the Convention in New Orleans a Margaret Memorial to increase gifts to the Margaret Fund for 1930 and this was passed by the Convention. The recommendation encouraged each person by the name of Margaret to contribute at least $2.00 as a special gift to the Margaret Fund thereby having her name, or the one in whose honor the gift was given, inscribed in the Margaret Book of Remembrance. North Carolina has fourteen Margarets whose names are inscribed in this book. The money was sent specially designated to Mrs. W. C. Lowndes, our Southern W. M. U. Treasurer.

There is to be a change in our plans for 1931. We are discarding the term "W. M. U. Specials" which has been so sort of meaningless and confusing. This year we shall speak of the Margaret Fund and the Training School as two separate items. Again we urge you to pray and give that these special "candles of the Lord," our missionaries' children, may be molded and made "meet for the Master's use and ready for every good work."

Respectfully submitted,

ALVA LAWRENCE,

North Carolina Member Margaret Fund Committee.

The playlet, "Love Provides," written by Mrs. Frank Burney, Waynesboro, Ga., Margaret Fund Chairman for the Southern W. M. U., was presented by the Cramerton Y. W. A. Prayer was offered by Miss Naomi Braswell.

By request, Mrs. M. L. Braun, of Salisbury, sang "The Old Rugged Cross."

Conference on Methods was conducted by Mrs. J. Clyde Turner, of Greensboro.

The following Committees were named by the President:

Committee on Time and Place—Mrs. A. J. Smith, Goldsboro; Mrs. E. J. Daniel, Durham; Mrs. L. G. Bullard, Raleigh; Mrs. R. E. Powell, Burnsville; Mrs. Arthur Jackson, Hendersonville; Mrs. R. M. Maddrey, Seaboard; Mrs. P. E. White, Leaksville; Mrs. J. A. Liles, Shelby; Mrs. C. V. Brooks, Calypso; Miss Lula Brooks, Buie's Creek.

Committee on Resolutions—Mrs. B. K. Mason, Winston-Salem; Mrs. H. W. Baucom, Waynesville; Mrs. Geo. F. Allred, Greensboro; Mrs. E. B. Horton, Chapel Hill; Mrs. Walter Clark, Asheville; Mrs. E. B. Vaughan, Murfreesboro; Mrs. I. T. Valentine, Spring Hope: Mrs. Joel W. Griffin, Monroe; Mrs. E. R. Hardin, Lumberton; Miss Emma Middleton, Warsaw.

After a motion to adjourn, the benediction was pronounced by Mrs. W. W. Jones, of Charlotte.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 11

The meeting was called to order at eight o'clock, Mrs. Jones, the president, presiding. Hymn, "Joy to the World," was sung. After an anthem by the choir, the devotional was led by Mrs. D. W. Herring, of Fuquay Springs, her subject being "The Purpose of God." Song, "The Whole Wide World for Jesus," Mrs. Paul Brantley, Wendell. Address, "The Keys of the Kingdom," Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence, Home Mission Editor, Southern Baptist Convention, St. Louis, Mo. Hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Benediction, Rev. T. E. Walters, Rocky Mount.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 12

Session called to order by the president, using hymn, "Lead On, O King Eternal." Devotional, Mrs. W. W. Jones, of Charlotte, reading from Paul's Epistle to the Corinthians. Minutes of Wednesday afternoon and evening sessions were read and approved. Hymn, "Majestic Sweetness Sits Enthroned."

Report of Mission Study Superintendent, Mrs. Edna R. Harris. Adopted.

MISSION STUDY REPORT

In conference with Chinese leaders in China, J. H. Franklin said: "In this time of trial and crisis in China we must find solution for our problems in deeper fellowship with each other and in a fuller fellowship with a suffering Christ, as we seek a fuller fellowship with the sufferings of those about us." Surely such a message is just as fitting to us now, on the opposite side of the globe. In no better way may we deepen our fellowship than by learning of the sufferings, superstitions, trials and troubles of those who know not our Christ, and then by acquainting ourselves with the sacrifice and service, the joys and sorrows, the privileges and blessings that have been, and are a part of the lives of those who have gone out to carry the "light of the world to those that sit in darkness," than by regular systematic mission study. Two classes a year is the required point on the Standard of Excellence, but the live, wide awake society is constant in its mission study. For love's sake, many women do much individual study for the most fascinating story ever told is the story of the progress of the Gospel. A growing interest is manifested in the much larger number of awards in 1930. For W. M. S. there were 972 more record cards and 3,037 more seals stwarded, 474 more classes, and 25 more official seals than in 1929. Two completed the Advanced Course, Mrs. J. M. Whitted, Durham; Mrs. W. R. Rominger, Winston-Salem.

The increase in young people's awards was likewise noted, 1,544 more certificates and 2,154 more seals. One hundred fewer reading cards were sent out which showed that more definite study was done by them.

Piedmont and Mount Zion veritably ran a race in mission study, Piedmont reporting 190 classes and Mount Zion 183, but Mount Zion went ahead with more than twice the number of seals awarded, Mount Zion 1,908, Piedmont 739.

As our knowledge increases and vision broadens through mission study our interest quickens, our love increases, we pray more, we give more, "that the world may know."

Report of Training School Trustee, presented by Mrs. H. T. Stevens, High Point, President of North Carolina Alumnæ, in the absence of Mrs. R. N. Simms, Trustee, Raleigh.

REPORT OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

In spite of depression and hard times, there are one hundred and thirteen young women from many Southern States at our Training School this session. The Lord's work goes on no matter what economic conditions may be. He careth for His own.

Considering the fact that none can be sent to the foreign field and that the unemployment situation is affecting our graduates in religious positions, the enrollment is most gratifying.

This year forty graduates will go out eager for service. Miss Littlejohn asks that we pray and leave no stone unturned whereby they may find places of service.

Two students were graduated in January, one from Missouri and one from Kentucky. North Carolina is represented by 19 young women, 9 on scholarships and 10 pay students. Miss Pearl Johnson, who graduated in '24, missionary to China, whom many of us know, is spending the third quarter there. They feel that she has been an inspiration to the girls.

The same beautiful Christian spirit pervades the school and all its work. Mrs. Woody, Chairman of the Board of Managers, says she found on boarding in the school, that the "half had not been told," when referring to the spirit of Christ existing in House Beautiful. Students have done good work, and have put real worth and beauty in all their religious services.

The health of the students has been good except for an epidemic of flu. During that, the infirmary with nine beds, could not care for all the patients, many of whom were treated in their rooms.

Lovely gifts from all over the South have been greatly appreciated Grapefruit from Arizona and Texas, cakes from Tennessee, Mississippi and Kentucky, apples from Missouri, check for Christmas turkeys from Oklahoma, Valentine chicken dinner from Alabama, next Thanksgiving Day's dinner from Dr. L. B. Warren, Atlanta. canned fruit and preserves from Kentucky, Illinois, Florida and Georgia, tea towels, napkins, pillow cases and quilts from Florida, Kentucky, Mississippi and Missouri, pecans from Georgia and Mississippi, apples from Missouri, oranges from Florida, oysters from Washington, D. C., and Maryland, and other miscellaneous gifts for students.

Recent special gifts are a beautiful rug for the Blue Room from an Association in Kentucky, a cottage organ for the chapel from Mrs. Woody, an after dinner coffee set from Mrs. J. H. Anderson, a beautiful butterfly wing picture from Rio from Miss Mallory, Chinese mats from Orma Melton, Chinese vase from Mabel Williams and Chinese pictures from Pearl Johnson, the last three being alumnæ missionaries.

North Carolina has frequently provided a chicken dinner for Easter. May we not do so again this year? A gift from your Association of home-made products would be acceptable, too, we are sure. See what your women would like to do when you meet next. During the past year we have contributed $2,974.05 to the Training School.

Banks have failed in Louisville, as well as in North Carolina, so the financial situation is not so very encouraging. It is hoped that the $7,313.40 on deposit will be available in time, but now the Emergency Fund is being used and every cut and economy practiced.

Miss Littlejohn says the school's gift of $865.50 to the Christmas Offering can be explained only in Paul's words (Moffat's Translation), "Their overflowing joy and their deep poverty together have poured out a flood of rich generosity." This offering is always most generous each year, and puts most of our societies to shame.

Let us give thanks for God's rich blessing upon this child of our Convention and pray more and give more this next year that its splendid representatives may continue to go out and enrich our denominational life.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS, Trustee.

Report was adopted. Mrs. Stevens read a letter of greeting from the North Carolina girls now at the Training School, also letter from Miss Carrie Littlejohn, Acting Principal of the Training School.

Song, "We Would See Jesus," sung by North Carolina Training School Alumnæ in attendance on the Convention.

Report of Trustee of the Baptist Hospital, Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Winston-Salem. Adopted.

REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST HOSPITAL

After seven and one-half years of service to our denomination in behalf of suffering humanity, it is with grateful hearts we are enabled to report to the Woman's Missionary Union the success of the past years' achievements.

For during this time, fifteen thousand and four hundred have been admitted for treatment. Of this number nearly 7,000 have been charity patients. The free service rendered this year has far exceeded that of any other year, for it has taxed not only every available bed in our wards but it has been necessary to place beds in our sun parlors that we might be able to accommodate the large numbers that came to us to be cared for. They have come afflicted with various diseases and many bound by deformities. Our missionaries, our college students, ministers and their families, widows and orphans have come and we have opened our doors to them in Christ's name. Yet we realize that it has been largely due to the loyal cooperation of our Woman's Missionary Union that we have been enabled to do such a large charity work. Only your continued support will make it possible for us to continue to treat such large numbers another year. Our record for the past year shows that 2,650 patients have been treated; of this number 622 were full time charity patients, and 599 were part pay-patients. More than half of our patients treated this year were charity patients.

Our gifts from our Mother's Day offering were $1,225.00 less than last year. If we would do this work of the Master let us lay it on every woman's heart. The women ministered to the Savior of their means as He was on earth; shall we not in this day of need bring our offering to the Master on this day that is fraught with so many tender memories. Surely no offering could be more fitting than that we would help somebody's mother on this day. The charity work given cost the hospital last year $45,000.00. During this year of depression, it has cost us nearly $60,000.00. We find during these months of depression four per cent of the contributions made through the Cooperative Program will not take care of the interest on the building and retirement of the bonds as they fall due; therefore, it has been necessary to borrow $7,500.00 from our operating expenses to meet the bonds. Forty thousand dollars has been paid on the building, but if the falling off of contributions continues through the Cooperative Program, we will be compelled to either limit our charity work or go in debt. If only every Woman's Missionary Society could hear the voice of the Master as He said "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of these, ye did it unto me!" May you then have the vision of the exalted service you may render in His name as you on Mother's Day lend yourself and influence to making a worthy offering in your church and society on this sacred day in honor of the one who first loved you. The white gifts made by our women have aided us in a substantial way in our hospital for we have received during the past year 70 sheets, 70 spreads, 162 pillow cases, 19 hot water bottle covers, 58 yards of domestic, 269 bath towels, 72 huck towels, 239 wash cloths, 10 dozen table napkins, 42 table covers, 30 scrap books. The Baptist Hospital Auxiliary, under the wise leadership of Mrs. E. L. Davis, has proved a great blessing in our work. The Baptist women of the city of Winston-Salem through their circles, contributed cards bearing some quotations from the Bible together with some flowers or favor for each patient's tray on every Sabbath morning and at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Special donations are made in fruits and flowers to all our patients. The carrying on of the sewing and mending, under the wise supervision of Mrs. J. S. Slate, has added materially to the necessary economy of our institution. The service of each does not seem so large and yet it is the spirit and the united efforts that count in the Master's work. Again we would plead in the earnestness of His name that we hear His voice as He says, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might." May that earnestness of purpose so control our lives that when the evening cometh we may hear that welcome voice, "Well done thou good and faithful servant. Enter into the joys of thy Lord."

Respectfully submitted,

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 12

The Thursday afternoon session opened at two o'clock with the song "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult." Mrs. O. G. Tillman, of Asheboro, read the forty-sixth Psalm and led in prayer.

Dr. Charles E. Maddry, Corresponding Secretary of the Baptist State Convention, spoke in appreciation of the women's part in the Emergency Effort and urged efficient handling of our funds.

Minutes of morning session were read and approved. Recommendations of the Executive Committee were read by Mrs. W. N. Jones. Mrs. J. R. Morgan, of Waynesville, moved that the Recommendations be adopted. Mr. John A. Oates, of Fayetteville, Chairman of Commission on Debt of the Baptist State Convention, spoke on the Convention Debt. The full Recommendations of the Executive Committee were adopted by a unanimous rising vote.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION, FOR THE YEAR 1931

In view of the financial depression that has affected so large a part of our State, and the falling off in our gifts to denominational causes of more than $33,000.00, we would urge, first of all:

I. Prayer. That during the coming year we place an increased emphasis on prayer, both in our individual lives and as missionary societies. To this end, that we covenant anew to keep the nine o'clock prayer hour, remembering at this time the work in our own land and on our mission fields, and our missionaries on whom this depression has weighed so heavily. That we endeavor to deepen our own prayer life and seek a closer communion with our God.

That all of our organizations observe the stated Weeks of Prayer: Home Mission Week, March 1-7; Day of Prayer for State Missions, September 7; and the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions, November 30-December 5.

That at this time we endeavor to get our societies to make a liberal offering for Home Missions, State Missions, and the Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions. That the money received in these offerings be sent directly to the W. M. U. Treasurer, Miss Elsie K. Hunter, 215 Recorder Building, Raleigh, N. C., the church treasurer to receive from the society treasurer a statement of the amount forwarded to include in his annual report.

II. W. M. U. Training School—Margaret Educational Fund. We recommend that during the quarter ending September 30, preferably during the month of August, the Woman's Missionary Union Training School, located at Louisville, Ky., and Margaret Educational Fund for missionaries' children, be brought to the attention of our societies, and an offering be taken for each of these funds. We recommend that in addition to the Louis Castlebury Memorial Schoolarship, we maintain eight other scholarships at the Training School, at a cost of $1,600.00, and that we give $1,000.00 to the Margaret Educational Fund, the percentage of funds sent to Executive Committee of Southern Baptist Convention be given to Current Expense Fund of the Training School.

Eight Scholarships, $200 each	$1,600.00
Louis Castlebury Scholarship	200.00
Current Expenses, W. M. U. Training School	1,000.00
	22.222.22
	$2,800.00
Margaret Educational Fund	1,000.00
	$3,800.00

In view of the necessity that young ladies applying for scholarships shall know, early in the spring, whether or not they will be accepted for admission to the Training School, so as to enable them to terminate or make contracts for other work, and also in order that all Training School scholarship gifts be available for the scholarship fund adopted by the Convention, we recommend that all applications for scholarships be required to be submitted before March first of the year the applicant desires to enter.

III. Heck Memorial Fund. That each society observe June 16, or some other day in the month, Miss Fannie E. S. Heck's birthday, and the voluntary offering sent in at this time be used this year as a gift in payment on the Convention debt, in Miss Heck's name. We ask that each society take as its objective for this fund this year $1.00 for each member. Because the success of this effort depends entirely on every society responding and raising its quota, your Committee would urge the most hearty cooperation of every society and every individual in this effort. An honor roll will be kept of all societies who meet this objective and a banner be given to the Association with the largest per cent of members of societies reaching this goal.

- IV. Expense Fund. That as early as possible the societies send in their quota for the Expense Fund of the Executive Committee; where it is practicable, that the money be sent in April instead of May. The balance on hand of the W. M. U. Expense Fund is tied up in the closing of the Mechanics Savings Bank, and the officers of the Union will greatly appreciate a liberal and a prompt response to this appeal. No Associational visiting can be done until this fund is available.
- V. Convention Debt. The Centennial Campaign is over but the debt on the Convention is not paid. In order that the women, who constitute a large part of our church membership, may help in reaching this debt, we would recommend that all missionary societies make a contribution to this debt each quarter. We ask that in those societies where the campaign pledges of members have not been met, every effort be made to secure as quickly as possible their payment.

Because of the fact that the debt is largely a result of the falling off in the gifts of our churches to our denominational work—the percentage being nearly that given by Dr. McGlothlin in a statement to the denominational press in regard to Southwide work, 80% local and 20% to all denominational causes—we would ask our women to bring this matter directly to the local church and endeavor to secure at least $33\,1/3\%$ of all gifts to missions and benevolences, the ultimate aim being 50% at home and 50% for missions and benevolences. Total gifts reported to the Baptist State Convention for 1930 were:

For local church operations$2,739,157.09
For denominational enterprises
Total $3.448.644.47

Thirty-three and one-third per cent of this total given to missions and benevolences would be $1,149,546.12. This would be sufficient to meet all debts as they become due.

VI. Plan of Work. That we endorse the Plan of Work as published in the Year Book of the W. M. U., Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, and put all suggested plans in practice in our organizations as far as possible.

VII. Contributions. We advise that contributions be made each quarter to the objects listed in the blanks for reports sent out by the Executive Committee. Each society treasurer is asked, when the money is paid to the treasurer of the church, that he sign the blank presented to him and either forward at once, or have the W. M. U. treasurer forward, all amounts given by the women without delay. We want each church to receive credit on its books for all gifts of its women, but existing conditions demand that money be sent to the Convention treasurer with as little delay as possible.

That we do not increase our financial aim for the year, but endeavor to reach the objective of the past year—$300,000.00, this amount to be apportioned among the societies by the Associational Superintendents.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. WESLEY N. JONES, Pres., MRS. EDNA R. HARRIS, Cor. Sec., MRS. W. D. BRIGGS, Rec. Sec., MISS ALVA LAWRENCE, Y. P. Leader, MISS ELSIE K. HUNTER, Treas.

The report of the Stewardship Chairman was given by Mrs. J. G. Boomhour, Chairman, Raleigh. Mrs. John O. Gough, Wake Forest, moved the adoption of the report. Carried. This report was spoken to by Mrs. B. F. Bray, of Wadesboro.

STEWARDSHIP

During our Lord's earthly ministry He spent a great deal of time helping His disciples to know God's will; instructing them, as stewards of His gospel, to share His vision, His plan and His purpose. Surely, He has given us our great inspiration for the teaching and practice of this important phase of our work. Our women have always emphasized the cultivation of stewardship as an important part of our missionary program, both for the W. M. S. and Junior organizations. The annual report for 1930 shows only 4,026 tithers out of the thousands of members of our societies. Doubtless there are many faithful women, who are acknowledging their stewardship in a systematic way, whose names are not included in this report. There are many others who must be aroused to a sense of their responsibility. Every district, associational and local stewardship chairman is called to this task. If your society has not already appointed a chairman of stewardship, will you not take this further step and thereby place this phase of our work on a more efficient basis? Let us prayerfully and tactfully seek to lay this matter upon the hearts of our women and young people.

In these days of financial depression, there comes to us the challenge and promise of Malachi 3:10: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse and prove me herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room to receive it."

Our southwide chairman, Mrs. G. R. Martin of Norfolk, Va., has thought out for us some very definite plans to help us to put stewardship on an educational basis. These plans, I hope, we shall study and follow.

As we continue in the teaching of stewardship, we must not forget that it is necessary to translate our knowledge into some form of activity. If all our members were intelligent faithful stewards, what wonderful things could be accomplished through our Union members for the Kingdom of our Lord.

It is required of a steward, that he be found faithful, Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. G. BOOMHOUR, Chairman.

Mrs. C. L. Greaves, of Raleigh, Chairman of Personal Service, read her report. Motion for adoption by Mrs. T. E. Beasley, of Ahoskie. Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence, Personal Service Chairman for the Southern W. M. U., spoke to this report.

REPORT OF PERSONAL SERVICE

Elihu Root, one of our American statesmen who has given many years of distinguished service to our country, says on his 87th anniversary: "Ideas and ideals are changing, and I think we are constantly moving towards better things. Gradually men's conceptions of their relations to one another have improved. There is an increase of liberty, justice and righteousness. Men have become generally more intelligent, less cruel, and they have more regard for the rights of others. Even in my time compassion, not only for human beings, but even for animals has grown. It is this growth of compassion that I would say is the greatest change that has occurred during my lifetime." Is not this in fulfillment of the parable which Jesus spoke when he said, "The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal until the whole was leavened." Gradually and surely the whole is being leavened, and in our Personal Service we hasten the process. There is no phase of W. M. U. work which is more enjoyed than Personal Service. Yet many of our societies do not engage in this blessed service to our Saviour, or if they do it is not organized and reported. May I not plead with presidents of Woman's Missionary Societies to appoint Personal Service committees and help these committees plan and carry out work to fit the needs of your communities.

Reporting is another important matter to receive attention. Blanks on which to make out reports are furnished every quarter, but not all of them are sent in. I'm persuaded that much work done is not reported. Will presidents and Personal Service chairmen of societies give more attention to this matter? Local societies report to associational chairman, and they in turn to the Raleigh office. The blanks are very simple, but often the reports are not made out properly. A careful study of the blanks will remedy this fault.

This period of financial depression affords a splendid opportunity for much Personal Service, and we must never neglect the old, the children and the needy, but we must act wisely so as not to pauperize. Neither must we jeopardize our missionary program by subtracting from our missionary offerings to buy food and clothes. God has placed in our hands a sufficiency for both if we act with judgment and discretion.

The Personal Service reports have been gratifying, showing interesting glimpses our people are giving to the opportunities at our doors. Every Christian is supposed to be a missionary, if not there, then here. We expect those sent far hence unto the Gentiles to minister to those people among whom they dwell. Shall we do less to those among whom we dwell?

Mrs. T. H. Plemmons, of Fairmont, presented the following resolution on upholding the Eighteenth Amendment, which was adopted.

Whereas, a determined effort is being made to nullify the Eighteenth Amendment to our National Constitution,

Therefore, be it resolved:

First, That we the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina in Convention assembled at Gastonia, March 10-12, 1931, condemn the persistent and misleading methods now being used to bring our laws into disrepute, thereby undermining the very foundation of our government itself.

Second, That we reaffirm our allegiance to our Constitution and pledge our loyalty to its every provision.

Third, That we wish to record our deep and unqualified resentment of every statement made which presumes to pledge the womanhood of our land to the modification or repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. Fourth, That we utilize every opportunity for increased teaching of temperance in home, church, and school, using the splendid literature provided by the W. C. T. U. and other agencies.

Fifth, That a copy of this resolution be sent to our Senators and Representatives of State Legislature and National Congress that they may know that we are upholding their every effort to make effective this righteous law and are looking to them for unwavering loyalty to the highest interests of our country in this day of a supreme test.

The following resolution was presented by Mrs. C. E. Maddry, of Raleigh, member of Inter-Racial Committee of the Baptist State Convention, and adopted.

Because the year 1930 saw an alarming increase of lynching in our Southland, we the Baptist women of North Carolina wish to express our deep conviction that lynching is no protection to womanhood and no deed of violence was ever found a cure for crime. We call upon officers of the law for protection in the prevention of crime and the carrying out of the just sentences of our courts, and pledge our support to them in every effort to enforce our laws.

We request that this resolution be spread upon our minutes and that a copy be sent to the Inter-Racial Committee in Atlanta; and a copy to Miss Clara Cox, Chairman of the Woman's Inter-Racial. Committee of North Carolina.

The Harvard Plan of Entertainment—the hostess furnishing bed and breakfast—for W. M. U. Conventions, was presented, and on motion by Mrs. T. H. Plemmons, of Fairmont, was adopted.

Memorial service was held for members called home during 1930. After statement by Mrs. W. N. Jones that she desired to place a picture of Dr. Livingston Johnson in 1930 W. M. U. Minutes, with appropriate inscription, motion to this effect was made by Mrs. John O. Gough, of Wake Forest. "There is a Land of Pure Delight" and "The City Foursquare" were sung by Mrs. Paul Brantley, of Wendell.

Mrs. P. E. White, of Leaksville, reported as follows for the Time and Place Committee:

We, the Time and Place Committee, accept the invitation from the Greensboro Baptist churches for the Convention to meet with them in 1932. We recommend that we meet the first week in March, beginning Tuesday and running through Thursday.

RESOLUTIONS

The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina in the fortyfirst annual session in the First Baptist Church of Gastonia.

It is with grateful hearts that we try to express to you our appreciation of the gracious hospitality extended to us during these days spent in your city. We shall "thank God upon every remembrance of you" in the years to come.

It is an unusual privilege to meet within the gates of this rapidly growing city with its beautiful churches, hospitable homes, and many industries which are famed throughout the South, and of which North Carolinians are justly proud. Gracious hospitality has been shown in many ways.

Our hearts are filled with gratitude for the wise planning and careful consideration for the comfort of every delegate and visitor. We would mention especially the General Chairman and President of our hostess society, Mrs. H. B. Moore; Mrs. E. A. McCarter, efficient and untiring Chairman of the Hospitality Committee; and the homes, not only of Baptists, but of all denominations, whose doors were so generously opened to us, proving that Southern hospitality still exists in Gastonia; Mrs. A. C. Current, Chairman of Transportation, and the women who have so willingly used their cars in serving us; Mrs. O. F. Mason and Mrs. Frank Sanders, who are responsible for our delicious lunches; Mrs. A. G. Wallace, Chairman of Ushers, and the young women who so efficiently served 'us; and for the gallant Boy Scouts, who did many good turns each day for us. For the beautiful and fragrant message the flowers have brought to us each day, we are indebted to Mrs. W. H. Wray, Mrs. C. C. Armstrong, of Gastonia, and Mrs. Livingston Johnson, of Raleigh. To the pastor of this church, Rev. B. A. Bowers, and Mrs. Bowers, we offer heartfelt appreciation.

For the helpful and deeply inspirational program, so carefully prepared for us by our Committee;

For Dr. Eugene Sallee, of our Foreign Mission Board, who brought us first-hand information about our foreign mission work;

To Miss Kathleen Mallory, who gave us a delightful surprise, and in her inimitable way gave us a message on her recent visit to South America;

To Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence, Home Mission Editor, who has stirred our hearts with her Home Mission appeals, and has quickened a desire in our hearts to use the master key more efficiently in the coming year;

To Mrs. D. W. Herring, returned missionary from China, who has brought us the inspirational devotionals each day;

To our beloved President, Mrs. W. N. Jones, who brought an unusually practical and helpful message;

To Mrs. Milton Braun, Mrs. Paul Brantley, and the local choir, who moved us with their messages in song—to one and all we give the loving thanks of our hearts.

We want to thank our W. M. U. officers for their untiring work for us during the year, and to tell them we love them and wish to cooperate more fully with them this year.

We also wish to thank the Gastonia Gazette for its publicity of our meetings, and Dr. O. L. Miller for his invitation to visit the famous Orthopedic Hospital here.

Finally, we rejoice because we can be "laborers together with God," and pray that as His children, we may be entirely yielded to the Holy Spirit.

Therefore, be it resolved:

First, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this organization.

Second, That a copy be given publicity in the local papers.

THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 12

Miss Alva Lawrence, Young People's Leader, presided over the Young People's session which opened at eight o'clock. The Y. W. A. hymn, "O Zion Haste" was sung. Miss Cleo Mitchell, Student Secretary N. C. C. W., Greensboro, conducted the devotional; topic, Answering God's Call.

A Poster Brigade, featuring World Comrades, The Window, G. A. House Parties, Ridgecrest Y. W. A. Camp, and Associational Camps, was conducted by Miss Alva Lawrence.

The following winners in the Tithing Story Contest were announced: Y. W. A., Ellen Daniel, Salisbury; G. A., Mary Walston, Scotland Neck; R. A., Jack Crawley, Hollister; Sunbeams, Edwin Andrews, Jacksonville.

The Young People's banner, given for largest gain in new societies and in Standard societies, was awarded to the Chowan Association, Mrs. D. J. Pritchard, Hertford, Young People's Leader.

After adjournment of the Convention, a pageant, "The Call of the World Today to America's Christianity," was presented by the young people of Gastonia.

Benediction by Dr. B. A. Bowers, of First Baptist Church, Gastonia.
